The Local News.

Superior court convened Monday. The county commissioners are in session this week. Assessor Kenney took possession of his office Monday. The new city council was sworn in Tuesday evening. Rev. Joe Deatherage preached in Thorp Sunday. Peter McCallum of CleElum, was in the city Saturday. J. F. Brown of Roslyn, was down on business Saturday. Mrs. Wm. Grim of East Kittitas, is quite ill this week. Milton Carscadden is over from Spokane visiting relatives. R. M. and James Osborn of Thorp, were in the city Monday. R. L. Thomas becomes sheriff of Kittitas county next Thursday. H. M. Baldwin will take his position as county auditor on the 12th. A. E. Emmerson will assume the duties of county clerk on the 12th. Rev. Willis Pettibone preached at the Dyras school house Sunday. Belden & Bender, the painters, will open a shop within a week or two. Carol B. Graves spent Friday down in Yakima on professional business. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lauderdale of Yakima, spent a day in the city with relatives recently. W. E. Crowley of CleElum, was down Thursday of last week to make some arrangements about building. Auditor-elect, H. M. Baldwin, has appointed S. P. Fogarty head deputy and Evan Mathews assistant. Mrs. James G. Boyle and son Alfred spent a few days recently visiting with Mrs. A. L. Hollingsworth of Thorp. B. F. Reed is having the Sharp creamery and cheese plant converted into a couple of nice dwelling houses. Miss Mabel Carscadden after spending her vacation at her home in this city, returned to school in Prosser Friday. James Osborn of Michigan, a brother of R. M. Osborn of Thorp, arrived recently to spend a year in our beautiful Kittitas valley. Mrs. R. E. Gaston died at her home in the east part of the city Monday morning of consumption. She leaves a husband and one son. Judge Rudkin sentenced Abe Willis who was convicted of horse stealing at the last term of court, on Tuesday to two years in state prison. Andrew Snyder died at the residence of his son, Al Snyder, near Thorp, Monday. The remains were shipped to Olympia for burial Tuesday. Correspondents want to be on the alert and get every news item possible, and be sure to have your items reach us no later than Wednesday noon. Mr. Hawkins of North Yakima, recently spent a few days in this city with his daughter, Mrs. James G. Boyle, and family. Mr. H. has been visiting relatives and friends in Oregon and on the Sound for a month past. Our desire is to make THE DAWN purely a local newspaper and for this reason we desire every local news item we can get. If you have a news item, write it up or come in and tell us about it. The news is what we want and must have. Jerry Cross and wife left this week for a visit at their old home in Kentucky, likewise Wm. Mattox and wife go to visit relatives in Indiana and Missouri. THE DAWN follows these good Thorp people during their stay in the big east. Antone Foeller, an aged gentleman, who has resided in this city and valley for a number of years, died Tuesday evening of heart failure. He leaves an aged wife and two daughters, one single and the other the wife of Joseph Reia. Funeral Thursday afternoon. A good correspondent is wanted in every school district, one who will write the news up and send or bring the same to us. Paper, envelopes and stamps furnished and THE DAWN sent free to all such correspondents. Who will volunteer in your school district? Charles McAllister, who is feeding about 13,000 head of sheep in the Parker district, is mourning the loss of about six or seven hundred head, which were lost on the reserve through the carelessness and incompetency of herders. Mr. McAllister's sheep are consuming an average of 22 tons of hay per day.—Yakima Washingtonian.

Read the report of the city officials elsewhere in this issue. John Bloomqvist had both his lips bitten off by a mad horse Tuesday so we are informed. Edward Dennis and Miss Edna Yocom of Wenatchee were married at the bride's residence. Scott & Cameron bought out the Western Undertaking Company, conducted by F. L. Tripp on Fourth street, Wednesday. Our article on a "business college" met the approval of a great number of people and all agree that it can be brought about with a little exertion and encouragement. The city council Monday evening granted retail liquor license to Oscar Rentsch to continue business at his old stand on corner of Third and Pearl streets. Retail license was also granted to Schlottfeld & Linder to continue at their present stand on Third street. The West Coast Trade of Tacoma, has just issued its annual souvenir edition and to say that it surpasses all former issues is only justice to the publisher. It is a valuable paper to every citizen in the state who desires to keep abreast with the progress of the grand young state of Washington. Married—At the home of the brother of the groom, Mr. Hub Wilson, Jan. 7, at noon, Mr. John S. Wilson and Mrs. Myrtle Pontain. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Kenney and was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends who partook of a bountiful repast. The high waters on the west side of the mountains caused by long continuous rains and Chinook winds melting the snow in the Cascades, has done damage to the amount of millions of dollars. Mile after mile of the N. P. track and bed were destroyed, besides damage to towns and farm property, loss of lives, stock, etc. Great suffering and privations prevail in points isolated by the floods. Space forbids us giving the matter in detail and most of our readers will have gotten the city papers by the time THE DAWN reaches them. N. P. officials say it will be ten days to two weeks before trains will be running between Ellensburg and Seattle.

Thorp News Items.

John Newman will be found in his new house, having about completed. Mr. Scott, the bridge foreman, is busy unloading the steel for the new railroad bridge. We are having a wood and coal famine, none having been shipped in for some time.

A Correction.

Harry Bryant says Mr. Brenn in his article on the "Underground Wealth of Kittitas" makes a mistake in regard to discovery of coal at Roslyn. He says Nez Jensen, of CleElum hauled coal down from Roslyn and sold it on the streets of Ellensburg in 1884. Mr. Brenn states that it was not discovered there until 1886.

The Dawn's Predictions.

Levi Ankeny will be elected to the U. S. senate. Gov. McBride's commission bill will be killed too dead to skin in the senate. President Roosevelt will not succeed himself.

The democratic party will elect a president in 1904. Hot or cold, rain or shine, THE DAWN gives its readers the news in a reliable and readable manner.

Seed Distribution.

Hon. George Turner sent us with his compliments, a supply of garden seeds to be distributed among our patrons and friends, and we have set Saturday, January 17th as a day to give out these seeds, one package only to each caller.

Announcement.

This is to certify that George W. Dry has sold out his interest in what is known as the New Store in the old postoffice building and J. R. Davis with his little stock of goods and with the little prices will stay and still deal out bargains to all comers.

I thank the good people of Ellensburg and of Kittitas valley for their liberal patronage since I have been here and while you are in town come and see me and make this your headquarters. I have many articles here that the prices are right and will have many new things here soon and all at a little price. JAMES R. DAVIS.

Shakespearean Banquet.

One of the most brilliant and certainly one of the most enjoyable social events of the season took place Friday evening at the Grand Pacific hotel, when the Gallina club entertained their husbands at their annual banquet.

Magic lantern views, Shakespearean in character, interested the guests during the evening. Plates were laid for forty-one guests, the "place cards" bearing a fine photograph and an apt quotation from the same celebrated author.

The dining hall was prettily decorated with the club colors and the table was laden with good things most temptingly prepared.

Dr. Mahan as toastmaster was a decided success. The toasts were responded to by Rev. McLean, Mrs. Home, Mrs. Calkins, Rev. Pettibone, Mrs. Steinman and Prof. Morgan.

It was long past midnight before time was thought of and those present dispersed carrying with them pleasant memories of the occasion.

The guests present were: Mesdames Elwood, Pettibone, McLean, Weed, Wilson, Wood, Wheeler, Home, Carter, Mahan, Calkins, Morgan, Saunders, Bullard, Campbell, Spaulding, Steinman, Helm, Damman, Craig and Miss Patterson. Messrs. Ellwood, Pettibone, McLean, Weed, Wilson, Wolff, Wheeler, Home, Carter, Mahan, Calkins, Morgan, Saunders, Bullard, Campbell, Spaulding, Steinman, Damman, Craig and Felch.

Much credit is due the committee, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Weed and Mrs. Wolff for the success of the affair.

Fruit Industry of The State.

State commissioner of horticulture, A. VanHolderberke, says in his report that no less than 3,000,000 fruit trees were planted in this state during the year 1902, and that the fruit sales for the year 1902 exceed $6,000,000 or an average of $300 per acre for fruit land.

Who would not have an orchard? Kittitas county will, one of these days, when our people get awakened to the fact of the big profit, be the producer of the best and largest amount of fruit of any county in the state. Her fruit is perfect now and it will be kept so.

Glass Banks.

Application for adoption of children from the Spokane Home Finding association can be made through the local board. Homeless children are constantly found and good homes are being provided for them. The board has placed a number of glass banks about the city in which any offering, even the smallest is gratefully received, all sums being used for bettering the condition of these waifs. Signed, Mrs. Elvira Elwood, Mrs. J. W. Bean, Mrs. J. Morrill, Mrs. Pettibone, Mrs. Stulfauth, Mrs. E. L. Perry.

Simpson—Seely.

At the groom's residence in this city, January 1st 1903, John Simpson and Miss Bell Seely, Rev. T. J. Randall officiating.

Both of these young people are well and favorably known and enjoy the confidence and esteem of a host of friends. THE DAWN extends congratulation and well wishes.

PERBIN'S PILE SPECIFIC

Yearington, Nev., Oct. 20, 1902 DR. PERBIN, Helena, Mont. Dear Sir: I have nearly finished the former bottle and am practically well. My case was one most physicians would have pronounced incurable. My appetite is good, have gained 10 pounds in weight and feel like a new lease of life was given me. One of the bottles I send for this time is for a friend and the other for myself, as I do not intend to be without it. Yours very truly T. R. HARRIS.

PERBIN'S PILE SPECIFIC

Obituary.

Died at the home of his son, C. A. Snyder, near Thorp, Monday, Jan. 12th, Andrew Snyder, aged 78 years, 4 months and 11 days. Mr. Snyder was up and around the house all the time and shaved himself within an hour of his death. For some weeks past he had suffered from heart trouble and the failure of that organ was the cause of his sudden death.

Mr. Snyder was born Aug. 25, 1826, near Wheeling, West Virginia. A large gathering at the funeral services which were held in the Christian church testified to the high esteem in which he was held. Rev. W. M. Kenney, assisted by Rev. James A. Deatherage, conducted the services and the body will be taken to Olympia for interment.
