Money Saved is Money Earned
 YOU can do both, by coming now and selecting one of those swell suits and coats and pants that we are selling at such low figures. The prices are low, very low, considering the values we are giving. It pays to dress well, particularly when you can get such clothes at so little a price. Why in the name of Sam Hill should a man pay a tailor $30, $35 or $40 for a suit or overcoat when we sell the identically same thing for $15, $20 and $25?

CAN'T WEAR READY MADE? BOSH!
 THERE was a time when perhaps you couldn't get your clothes notion carried out except at the tailors, but when you make this remark in these days of ready-made clothing perfection, you are very evidently not abreast of the times. For proof of this assertion call on

 Wm. Hurlbert, one of the original settlers of Loomis, was in town Tuesday.
 E. W. Mallory will have a big turkey shoot in Oroville the day before Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhoden, of Loomis, were over to the dance Wednesday evening.
 F. J. Cummings, of Riverside, left on a business trip to Spokane Wednesday morning.
 Chas. Shull, one of the pioneer residents of the county, was in town from Loomis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dunlop and Mrs. Williams, of Kipling, were visitors in town this week.
 J. C. Bimbury, head of the boundary police force, was down from Greenwood, Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Powell and Miss Kate Dallam went to Loomis Thursday for a visit of a few days.
 Arthur Lund, the popular and successful young banker of Riverside, was in town over Tuesday night.

Conductor Gage, of the Keremecs run, is taking a lay off to move his family to his ranch near Kettle Falls.
 Jas. Calahan and A. M. v. Kaas, of Loomis, were in Oroville Wednesday on a tour of the county along the line of the new railroad.

The department of commerce and labor has designated Oroville as one of the four ports of entry in the state for the admission of aliens.
 D. Bain has been on the sick list for several days, and at one time was in a serious condition. At last accounts Mr. Bain was improving.

Henry Mustard was down Wednesday from his Palmer mountain ranch to meet a brother who had just come in from the Walla Walla country.
 Geo. W. Loudon, of Loomis, drove 120 sheep through Oroville, Saturday, on the way to Vernon, where he had disposed of the bunch at good figures.

Miss Ada McGee, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. Truax, for several weeks, returned to her home at Santa Cruz, Cal., Wednesday.
 The Odd Fellows dance Wednesday evening was a hummer. The attendance was large, and those present had a large time measured by the pleasure in circulation.

A cradle roll reception will be given Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 in the M. E. church parlor. All the mothers and friends as well as the babies are cordially invited.
 The town council advertises in this issue for bids for building certain sidewalks in the north part of town. Here is a chance for the carpenters to get in on an extensive job.

Geo. A. Blackwell, of Riverside, one of the old residents of the county who has prospered in business enterprises with which he has been connected, was a visitor in town Monday.
 The Hollow'en party to be given by the Tri M society this evening promises to supply a whole lot of joy all who attend. The young people should be encouraged by a large attendance.

Miss Gladys Blackler left for her home at Forest Grove, Ills., Monday morning, after having spent the summer in Oroville. She was accompanied as far as Spokane by her brother, J. A. Blackler.
 Dan Welch, a prosperous cattle man living near Loomis, left Thursday for his old home in Pennsylvania, where he will spend the winter. It is the first time he has been out of the county in 19 years.

The dance given last Friday night for the benefit of the Catholic church was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by those taking part. The receipts were large leaving a satisfactory balance for the church.
 The local Circle Women of Woodcraft have a class of 16 new members who are to be initiated in a couple of weeks. Mrs. Hollywood will return to conduct the ceremony and will be assisted by a large delegation from Loomis.

Parties are eradicating the marks of the fire on the south end of the Peerless hotel. New paint is a great improver of buildings, and particularly in this case where there was much brown and scorched space exposed to the public view.
 The Keremecs Chronicle says that "the first wedding to be celebrated in Keremecs church was held on Wednesday, the 20th inst., at noon, when Simon Robert Tilson was united to Miss Leslie Ada Rainey, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Schafer, of Oroville."

Fred. J. Fine was called to Molson Monday to act in the capacity of coroner in the case of a sudden death. Upon arriving on the ground Mr. Fine found that an inquest was not necessary and would hence not put the county to that expense.
