

BURGLARS WANTED CASH

Burglars last evening forced an entrance into the residence of S. Z. Mitchell, manager of the Puget Sound Power company and the Columbia Improvement company.

The house was entered early in the evening, when no one was at home. Miss Hannah Bergman, a domestic employed at the Mitchell home, first noticed that a robbery had taken place when she returned to the residence, and she immediately telephoned to Mr. Mitchell, and he in turn notified the police. In a short time Mr. Mitchell arrived at his residence, and Chief Fackler was also there, going over the grounds.

Mrs. Mitchell is away at present, and, as far as Mr. Mitchell knows, nothing was taken, although there might have been some jewelry removed, as no one knows exactly what Mrs. Mitchell has with her.

Chief Fackler believes the main object of the thieves was to obtain money, and nothing else, as there were several nice, large revolvers unmolessted, and these are the things that robbers will take every time, because they find them useful in their work.

Another queer feature of the robbers' work was that they used a jimmy to open a trunk that had a key in the lock.

Everything in the house was turned upside down, but nothing as yet can be noticed as missing.

The officers are of the opinion that the job was done by a very queer kind of a burglar.

LIQUID SUNSHINE

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Keeping pace with the scientific progress of the age, the Technology club, composed of the New York alumni of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will serve a brand new drink at its annual dinner tonight at the University club. It is called liquid sunshine, and is the discovery or invention of Dr. W. J. Morton.

When the guests seat themselves at the banquet table they will find beside their plates a tiny capsule and a glass of water. The room will then be darkened and each man will drop the capsule into the glass and will make his own liquid sunshine by introducing a tube of radium into this water. They will then rise and drink to their alma mater in liquid sunlight.

TACOMA JAPS IN A TIGHT BOX

Two Japanese residents of Tacoma, who rejoice in the appendages of C. Imazumi and Rizzo Kasahari, were placed on trial before a jury in the federal court at Seattle yesterday afternoon, accused of offering a bribe to United States Immigration Inspectors W. B. Estell and A. S. Fulton. They induced the inspectors to look the other way when the wife and niece of Kasahari walked down the gangplank of the Oriental liner Olympia in October last.

The men themselves walked into a cleverly laid trap, prepared by the immigration inspectors, and after tendering the latter $50 in gold were placed under arrest on the bribery charge. The inspectors had two witnesses secreted behind the furniture in their office when the tender was made, and the evidence of these men was yesterday introduced by the prosecution.

It is expected that the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

A WRECK ON TACOMA EASTERN

On the Tacoma Eastern yesterday afternoon the train which left Eatonville at 4:30 p. m. collided with a box car that had run out from a siding onto the main line near Bismarck. No one was injured, but there were several narrow escapes. The locomotive and car were badly damaged.

The train was in charge of Conductor Clough and Engineer S. A. Thomas. The cause of the wreck will be investigated today.

STATE POINTERS

According to State Horticulturist A. Van Holderbeke, Washington has never been so effectively covered with nurserymen and solicitors as this winter. There are 300 agents and solicitors at work in the state, representing 67 different nursery firms, 48 of which belong in Washington.

The court has granted the defense in the Victor murder case at Davenport one week more from the 1st of February in which to file affidavits in support of the motion for a new trial. A large number of affidavits of alleged new evidence have been filed since the motion for a new trial was made.

J. W. Roseco, of the Casino theater at Bellingham, was yesterday found guilty of violating the ordinance regulating boxes in saloons and fined $50 and costs. The defense was that he was engaged in running a variety theater, not a saloon.

Louis Schmidt of Walla Walla has been arrested on a charge of setting fire to a building at Prescott in which he was conducting a saloon January 17. The complaining witness is H. Alexander, a former employe. Schmidt claims that it is a blackmailing scheme, as Alexander demanded $150 from him a few days ago.

Fred Slocum, who furnished tools for prisoners to attempt to break out of the Yakima county jail, was found guilty by a jury at North Yakima yesterday. He is the man who was arrested there last fall as one of the escaped convicts of the Folsom, Cal., prison, but was later released. He had been in that prison, but was released a week after the escape. Robert Thomas, who was charged with passing bogus money, was also found guilty.

Deputy Sheriff George Deering of Everett is expected to return from Vancouver today with John Powell, wanted in Everett for forgery. It is alleged that Powell passed a forged check on John Diefenbacher, a saloon keeper, about a month ago. Powell is said to have tried to commit suicide on a bridge at Vancouver. He was found in what was thought to be a fit, but it was later learned that he had taken poison.

A flock of sheep belonging to the McGhie Meat company was struck a train on the Northern Pacific track a short distance from Lowell yesterday, and 22 of them killed. There were 464 in the flock. They had escaped during the night.

FURNITURE COMPANY IS INCORPORATED

The West Coast Furniture & Woodwork company yesterday became the owner of the Washington Ladder & Woodwork establishment, which has been operating on East G and Twenty-sixth streets. The cash transaction amounted to $4,800. The new company is capitalized at $18,000. Improvements will be made at once which will bring the valuation of the property up to that amount. Local capitalists are back of the proposition, and each has contributed $2,000 to the business. The company has been incorporated.

John Peterson, Peter Peterson of Peterson Bros., corner of Eleventh street and Yakima avenue, P. Bergen, Victor Swanson, L. Ottoson, O. Anderson, O. Moline, Andrew Peterson and Martin Johnson are interested in the enterprise.

L. Ottoson is the manager for the new company and will have charge of the establishment.

The deed calls for lots 1 and 2, block 7628, and all improvements thereon, together with the personal property in connection with the factory. The new company will do a general furniture manufacturing business.

CITIES NOT LIABLE FOR QUARANTINE

OLYMPIA, Feb. 5.—Attorney-General Stratton has decided that in cases of quarantine in incorporated towns of other than the first class the county health officer should have charge of the case and the expenses charged to and paid by the county. This is a question that has been bothering the officials of many towns in the state, and the decision will cause a reversal of custom in many places.

The law of 1903 gave to the city health officer in incorporated towns the authority to quarantine contagious diseases, but a new act prepared by the state board of health was passed by the legislature of 1903. The new law names the county health officer as the one in authority in all such cases existing in his county with the exception of those in cities of the first class.

SAYS WIFE HAS A BAD TEMPER

John F. Garrison has brought suit in the superior court for divorce from Lillian F. Garrison.

Garrison alleges that he and the defendant ceased to live together two years ago because of the vicious and uncontrollable temper of Mrs. Garrison. The complaint alleges that Mrs. Garrison made her husband's life miserable by her constant abuse; that she would use bad language toward the plaintiff, often cursing and swearing at him in the presence of the two children, and that she would attend wine suppers with other men, come home late at night or as early as 2 o'clock in the morning in a state of intoxication.

Mr. Garrison alleges that he has often tried to persuade the defendant to abandon her evil ways and to live as a good and true wife should, but that she refused to do so and continued her wrongful actions until he can live with her no longer. In view of all these things, the plaintiff asks for complete separation. They were married February 17, 1892, at Spring Brook, Ontario.

Social and Personal

Miss Mason has sent out very unique invitations for a dancing party to be given on St. Valentine's eve, February 14, at the Tacoma Music hall.

The first dance of the second series of the Twelve o'Clock Dancing club will be given at Elks' hall February 16.

The house-warming of the new Trinity parish house last night proved a pleasant success. The members of the different parishes of the city turned out in large numbers and the rooms of the new building were the scene of an enjoyable social gathering. In response to a call for a "shower" from the members of Trinity parish, the new parish house received almost a complete kitchen equipment, many beautiful rugs and pictures, and over $40 in cash. The parish house will be used for the Sunday school, and for entertainments, lectures and meetings of the boys' clubs. There is a kitchen between the main rooms, which is complete in every detail, and will be put to use in the future entertainments.

Mr. Fred L. Ulin, formerly city passenger agent of the Great Northern in this city, leaves this week for Lewiston, Idaho, where he will take charge of the ticket office of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company. The position which he relinquishes here will be filled by H. H. Jock, formerly of the Blaine office of the Great Northern.

The Daughters of Hur will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. S. W. McDonald, 414 South Seventh street.

Miss Ruby DeVon of Seattle is the guest of Miss Clara Brooks.

Mount Tacoma Rebekah auxiliary will hold a meeting tonight at Odd Fellows' temple.

Dauntless lodge No. 93, Independent Order of Good Templars, met on last Wednesday night and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Chief Templar, Hubert Karshner; vice-templar, Charles E. Fisher; P. C. T., Miss Nellie Tomberlin; secretary, Benjamin Green; financial secretary, Miss Mildred Neville; treasurer, Donald McKinnon; marshal, Howard C. Covey; chaplain, Miss Effie Brown; guard, Merwin Morse. Miss Mamie Fisher acted as installing officer.

Ride on the Greyhound when going to Olympia.

AMUSEMENT

LYCEUM THEATER.
Commencing next week, a two-weeks' vaudeville engagement opens at the Lyceum theater. Some of the best talent in the vaudeville line will be seen.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

"Are You a Mason" comes to the Tacoma theater tonight and Saturday evening.

TACOMA THEATER.

Mr. Paul Gilmore, with a good company, will present "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the Tacoma theater next Wednesday evening.

"GHOSTS."

Sunday and Monday evenings "ghosts" will be the attraction at the Tacoma theater.

EDISON THEATER.

One of the best contortion acts ever witnessed in Tacoma is to be seen at the Edison theater this week. The "Great Train Robbery" is still a strong attraction.

EMPIRE THEATER.

A fine bill is being presented this week at the Empire. Good acts, all of them.

The illustrated songs and moving pictures are among the chief attractions.

WAIT LONG TIME FOR THEIR MONEY

Many Tacoma people are interested in the outcome of the trouble in which the Fraternal Order of Home Buyers of Portland is involved. Two of the officers—C. Guy Wakefield, the alleged president, and Ross Nichols, the alleged trustee, will appear before the federal court this afternoon in Portland to answer to the charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

There were 1,600 investors in this order, including many Tacoma people, and they each paid into the company sums ranging from $2 to $15 per month, the amount depending upon the kind of house that was to be built. At the end of 20 months a policy would mature, and the investor could borrow $1,000 when his turn came.

The concern was all right until the police began to mature, and then there was trouble, for there was no money to take them up. A number of people are liable to have to wait a long time before their "turn" comes to borrow $1,000.

As a result of the protracted meeting just ended, 161 new members have been added to the Christian church at Dayton. Another revival is in progress at the Methodist church, at which Mrs. Emma Moffatt, a gospel singer who has arrived from Seattle, is assisting.

ROYAL WEDDING

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The great preparations which are being made at Windsor for celebrating in truly royal style the wedding next Wednesday of Princess Alice of Albany and Prince Alexander of Teck are sufficient to show how strong is King Edward's attachment to the young people. The king is a consummate master of ceremonies and nothing suits him better than to have a hand in supervising the arrangements for such affairs.

Each day brings additions to the list of royal personages who will attend the wedding. Prominent among those who have accepted invitations are the queen dowager of The Netherlands, the king and queen of Wurtemberg, the prince and princess of Waldeck-Pyrmont, the hereditary prince and princess of Wied, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles of Hesse-Cassel, Prince and Princess Charles of Sweden and the hereditary grand duke and duchess of Luxembourg.

The bridesmaids are to be the daughters of the duke and duchess of Connaught and the duke and duchess of Fife and Princess Victoria of Wales. There will, of course, be a grand ball at the castle to mark the event. The honeymoon is to be spent at Brocket Hall, in Hertfordshire, lent by Lord Mount-Stephen, which will soon have brighter memories than the deaths of prime ministers, for which it is at present so curiously famed.

The Star Is Going to Quit

The Star Clothing Company knows when it has had enough.
The building is sold and it's ordered out.
The clothing business is overdone.
We don't propose to seek a new location.
We propose to get out and keep out.
So the whole stock is for sale.
The salesmen want other positions when the business is closed up.
To effect a quick transfer we have cut the prices on everything in the store.
Everything except Overalls. We promised we would not cut prices on Overalls and we keep our promises.
