

CANNON BELCH AND THUNDER ROUND ABOUT PORT ARTHUR

LIAOCHANG, June 3.—It is rumored here that another great battle is in progress near Port Arthur today.

CHEFOO, June 3.—The Japanese have landed another body of troops at Tsing-tzuitze, 20 miles southeast of Takushan.

KANSAS RIVERS ARE AGAIN ON RAMPAGE

KANSAS City, Mo., June 3.—Two days of continuous rain have caused the Kaw and other streams to rise rapidly.

Railroad communication is in a chaotic condition owing to the numerous washouts. At Emporia the Cottonwood and Neosho rivers have covered the valley with a vast sea of water.

Monday last. The Russians were finally driven northward.

The Japanese lost 26 killed and wounded. The correspondent of the Temps at St. Petersburg wires that 30,000 Russians under General Kouderovitch were sent to relieve Port Arthur.

TOKIO, June 3.—A report reached here today of an engagement between the Russians and the Japanese at Luchiatun, about 50 miles north of Port Arthur.

are out of business and the railways are paralyzed. Conditions at Newton were very serious last night, but word from there this morning indicates that the worst is over.

At Abilene 1,000 feet of track has been washed away by a 10-foot rise in the Smoky Hill river.

At Fort Scott the Marmaton river is over a mile wide, and the whole north end of the city is inundated.

At Owala the Neosho river is 30 feet above the normal height. Two hundred people were forced to flee from their homes, one family being compelled to leave a corpse behind.

destruction of the youth than a disregard for the laws of the land, and good people should bend every energy for the enforcement of existing laws, as well as for the making of better laws.

SIX LIVES ARE LOST IN WRECK

NORWALK, O., June 3.—As a result of a collision on the Lake Shore electric road a few miles east of this city last evening six persons were killed and a dozen more injured.

GOOD TIME ENDED IN THE LOCKUP

BURGLAR SCARED BY GIRL'S SCREAMS

MEMORIAL DAY IN THE SOUTH

ATLANTA, Ga., June 3.—The anniversary of Jefferson Davis' birth was generally observed as Memorial today throughout Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Louisiana.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 3.—The anniversary of Jefferson Davis' birth was generally observed as Memorial today throughout Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Louisiana.

the Indian addition. The McKinley school will be the polling place. Taxpayers and patrons of the school, men and women, are entitled to vote.

CHILD'S BETRAYER FATALLY WOUNDED

SEATTLE, June 3.—George Joye, of the steamer Telegraph, was shot four times on the Coleman Rock here, last night, by Mrs. Gertrude Robb, because she believed the man had ruined her 16-year-old daughter.

On hearing the story of the man's perfidy from her daughter, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Robb, who conducts a lodging house on Washington street, at once armed herself and proceeded to the dock.

As Joye left the steamer Mrs. Robb called to him. The man unsuspectingly approached the frenzied woman, and when within a few feet of her the latter pulled a revolver and fired two shots in quick succession.

shots, two of them striking the wounded man. Satisfied that she had avenged her daughter's ruin, Mrs. Robb handed her revolver to a bystander and surrendered herself to a policeman.

It was found that two bullets had pierced the abdomen on the left side, one had entered the back, injuring the spinal cord, while the fourth missile had struck the man's left shoulder.

At the police station Mrs. Robb told her story freely to the officers, and her daughter, Miss Cornelia Coleman, confirmed the statement. Joye refused to discuss the case, but informed Chief Deasey that he was willing to marry the girl.

DEAD AT 107

LONG BEACH, Cal., June 3.—J. J. Overton, aged 107, wrote his obituary notice on Tuesday. During the afternoon he walked down town and joked with friends, saying he was too busy to die.

W. L. COX GOES NORTH

W. L. Cox, buyer for the Pacific Cold Storage company, sailed on the Olympia, which left Seattle yesterday, with 20 heavy cattle and 250 sheep.

SENATOR TURNER TO HAVE BIG RECEPTION

Ex-Senator George Turner, of Spokane, the probable candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, will arrive in this city tonight or tomorrow.

Senator Turner has been in San Francisco for several days, attending to important legal matters, and will stop here on his way home.

While in Tacoma, Senator Turner will address a public meeting probably at one of the theaters, but the time and place have not yet been definitely decided upon.

and he is assured a cordial reception. A movement has been started to organize a Turner club here.

The question of Pierce county representation on the state ticket was also discussed at the meeting last night, and it was decided that this county will ask the state convention for the nomination of lieutenant governor.

neers. All persons who have lived in Washington for 22 years are eligible to honorary membership in the association.

RUSH WORK ON PUYALLUP BRIDGE

All the iron work for the Puyallup river bridge has arrived and the work will be completed without delay.

In the center pier there are 81 piles, 27 in each abutment, and 135 in the approach. The bridge is strong enough for street car traffic and heavy teaming.

WAR ON THE CATERPILLARS

War has been commenced on the caterpillar army by the Tacoma Land & Improvement company. Ten men are at work on the company's property in the North End, cutting down all the affected trees and shrubbery and burning them.

War has been commenced on the caterpillar army by the Tacoma Land & Improvement company. Ten men are at work on the company's property in the North End, cutting down all the affected trees and shrubbery and burning them.

MISS ANTHONY GIVEN OVATION

BERLIN, June 3.—The International Woman's Suffrage Conference, in session here, today elected Susan B. Anthony president, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of Wyoming, secretary.

TRAMP MURDERER IS ELECTROCUTED

COLUMBUS, O., June 3.—Carl Berg, the 19-year-old murderer of John Guillard, was electrocuted here this morning.

REPUBLICANS TO HAVE BANQUET

Tomorrow at noon the Pierce county Republican committee, candidates for county offices and a few others who have been invited will meet at Odd Fellows' temple to enjoy a banquet and incidentally talk over matters pertaining to the plan of the fall campaign.

LOTS OF THINGS TO EAT AT NOME

NOME, April 1.—This is the first winter in the history of Nome when there has not been a prospect of a shortage in some article of supplies before spring.

ASSAULT MAY PROVE FATAL

BERLIN, June 3.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the condition of Foreign Minister Lansdorff, who was attacked by Prince Dolgorouki, is considered serious.

ATTORNEYS CLASH

R. G. Hoge, attorney for Pasquale, made application to Judge Snell today for an order on Chief of Police Maloney for the effects found on Pasquale when arrested.

SEATTLE, June 3.—The Pioneers of Washington will hold their annual reunion at Pioneers' hall at Madison park on June 21 and 22.

IDAHO FARMERS LYNCH PRISONER

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho, June 3.—T. M. Myers, who killed George Brownie near Crook's corral three weeks ago, was taken from the officers here today by a mob of 40 men and lynched.

PLANS LAID TO DEFEAT PARKER

NEW YORK, June 3.—An important political conference between Senator Morgan and Colonel Guffey, national committeemen, is being held in this city today.

FIRST SLAP AT THE BEEF TRUST

SALT LAKE, June 3.—The incorporation of the Utah Packing company was effected here yesterday.

It is asserted that similar corporations will be organized in other Western states in the near future with the object of getting better prices for stockmen.

A SUMMER HOLIDAY

NEGRO MURDERERS ARE SHOT DOWN BY AN ARMED POSSE

GREENVILLE, Miss., June 3.—John Simms, a prominent planter of Trail Lake, and his manager, M. Cato, were killed last night by two negroes.

CANDIDATES CAN NOT WITHDRAW

No more withdrawals from the contest for queen of the rose carnival will be permitted. At the meeting of the rose carnival committee last night this rule was adopted.

TROOPERS SHOOT FOR THE TROPHY

Teams from Company E and Troop B of the National Guard will compete in a rifle shoot next Sunday morning for the Salmon trophy. Company A now has the trophy, having won it twice.

of Captain J. Murray McLean, Lieutenant F. M. Beachler, Sergeant John Pitch, Sergeant R. G. Lanan, Sergeant H. M. Mattison, Sergeant Fred Jones, Corporal Stewart, and Privates Hagler, Hanson and Crocker.

Both of the murderers were killed this morning and another negro was shot dead during the pursuit by the posse.

committees were announced as follows: Floats—Mrs. Leonard Crasswell, chairman; Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mrs. G. D. Hanscom, Mrs. J. W. Cloes, Mrs. F. W. Clark, Mrs. J. O. Babbitt, John T. Redman, C. H. Plass, E. A. Younglove, A. J. Rhodes, William Moir.

Invitations—C. P. Ferry, chairman; Mrs. Bernice E. Newell, Samuel Golyer, decorated carriage—Mrs. W. S. Dimmock, chairman; Mrs. A. C. Phillips, Mrs. W. H. Snell, Mrs. J. L. Carman, Mrs. R. L. McCormick, Miss McDonald.

Children—Mrs. E. A. Henderson, chairman; Mrs. A. E. Law; Mrs. George Browne, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Miss Norton, Miss Campbell, Miss Lamson.

Music—Miss Fannie Daitley, chairman; Mrs. C. A. Bates, Hugo Schmidt, Ball—Miss Anna Griggs, chairman; Mrs. M. A. Bull, Mrs. Wilkeson, Mrs. Lockwood, Miss Winifred Loomis, Miss Nellie Cardin.

The meeting lasted until a late hour and a number of features in connection with the celebration were discussed.

Other matters to be considered will be the election of a chairman and secretary of the committee.

The meat dealers have a bountiful supply of fresh meats, and there are still some beef cattle to be killed.

All persons arriving on the Pacific coast prior to January 1, 1879, are eligible to membership in the association, as are persons arriving later and having married pio-