YOUNG WIDOW WILL HAVE FRESH START

When the contributions for Mrs. A. W. Holmes closed yesterday afternoon the Times fund aggregated a total of $401.15.

The contract has been made, the papers drawn and everything is ready to transfer Mrs. A. W. Holmes and her baby and mother of her dead soldier husband to their new home.

"When things seem the worst something always happens to pull us through," was the intuitive optimism of the little woman when she was first visited by the Times representative.

Down at the old home, which has been the scene of so much sorrow and suffering, preparations were going on today for the "moving."

The weight of anxiety that has been lifted from the heart of this young mother is something no one can realize who has not had the experience. Even the little babe forgot to be sick and was peacefully sleeping this morning.

The fund that has been raised for Mrs. Holmes will enable her to

Wezler Named as Slayer by Jury

"We, the jury, having viewed the remains of the deceased, Mrs. Fredericka Schulz, having heard the evidence of the witnesses called, present this as our verdict, to-wit: That Mrs. Fredericka Schulz came to her death on or about the 4th day of April 1910, at 11 a. m. or thereabouts, about 1 3/4 miles from Gig Harbor on the Artondale road, in Pierce county.

Verdict Quickly Reached. The verdict of the coroner's jury finding Charles J. Wezler guilty of the murder of Mrs. Fredericka Schulz was reached after but a few moments' deliberation this morning.

Witnesses Discussed Marriage Laws. Eugene S. Twaddell, a new witness who voluntarily called at the court house this morning, testified that he discussed the marriage laws of the United States and England with Wezler on the steamer Crest while Wezler was on his way to the scene of the murder.

Wezler, Twaddell says, condemned the laws of the United States and upheld the British laws. He cited his own case, which in talking with Twaddell, he mentioned as being the case of a friend.

"When a man marries in England he gets all his wife's money and keeps it. Here he doesn't get anything. The case of a friend of mine shows how rotten the laws of this country are. He married a woman on a salary of $80 a month. When she got her divorce she was left an alimony of $50 a month and had to pay all the costs, and she got all his property," Twaddell says Wezler said to him during the argument.

Other witnesses called were C. A. Darmer, W. B. Buckley, Wilfrid Burrell, Emma and Albert Schulz, Mrs. L. L. Wezler, divorced wife of the accused; F. Haberecht, Clarence Curran, A. F. Ponder, O. P. Coffman, Elwin T. Klingsberger, W. M. McLaughlin, H. O. Wroten, Tony Novak and Dr. F. J. Stewart.

Try to Find Woman. It is believed that the Freeman, of San Francisco, knows something of Wezler's whereabouts and the San Francisco police have been requested to search for her. She corresponded with Wezler but discontinued her letters and postal cards the day the murder was committed.

SPORT EXTRA TODAY. Results of the Langford-Barry fight at Vernon will come to the Times office by rounds over the United Press leased wire this afternoon. Watch for the sport extra.

Tacoma, Bellingham And Long Distance Concerns Affected

First Picture of Thos. Lloyd

Thomas Lloyd, leader of the Fairbanks party which scaled Mt. McKinley, and his wife and little daughter.

Lloyd declares that he found no records such as Dr. Cook claims to have left, and says that the route supposed to have been taken by the Cook party is impossible. He is a resident of Seattle, where his wife and a daughter are awaiting his return.

JOHNNIE BOBS UP AGAIN

John M. Bell is trying to slip through a couple of franchise extensions before the present council gets out and the new commission plan of government starts.

Last night he had two ordinances introduced to give him 10 years extra time on his franchises. Bell has a franchise for a fire alarm service and another for a district telegraph messenger service. One expires in 1915 and the other in 1920. There is just one reason for extending them now, and that is that it may save embarrassment when they run out, as it will not be as easy to grab franchises then as it has been in the past.

The original franchises were for 25 years. Bell wants them simply amended to read 35 instead of 25.

Little Daughter of Dishonest Treasurer Must Pay His Debt

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 14.—Upon little Ruth Baehr, 13 years old, daughter of the late W. J. Baehr, former city treasurer, will fall the burden of the shortage said to have been found in the accounts of the city treasury.

Experts accountants are now working on the books and when the investigation is completed Baehr's bondsmen will reimburse the city and then take action to confiscate the estate of the late treasurer. In this way Ruth will lose her mother's fortune left to her father by will. The Baehr estate is estimated at $50,000 and the accountants are said to have expressed the belief that Baehr's shortage will reach $63,000.

Operate On Girl's Eye

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—An operation on the eye of Ruth Frances Wilson, pretty victim of an acid-thrower who squirted vitriol in her face Tuesday afternoon was begun today at the Mount Zion hospital, where the girl was taken after the attack.

What the nature of the operation is the hospital authorities refused to say, other than it was on the eye, injured by the acid.

JEFFRIES IS FAVORITE 10 TO 6

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Jeffries is a ten to six favorite in the betting on the Emoryville fight, scheduled for July 4, according to betting commissioners of San Francisco.

There is little betting on the outcome of the big box, thus far, according to local sportsmen.

POOL ROOM IS NICE PLACE NOW

Last week the pool room at South Tacoma run by Webster Feyler was a bad place. It was a menace to the neighborhood, a school in which young boys were being taught bad habits. It was so bad the council revoked the license. Yes, sir, the council will have the morals of the community conserved.

This week it is all changed. The pool room is a nice place. It is a god for boys to play pool, and learn to swagger and swear and do other things it is said they have been doing. At least the council thinks so, for it rescinded its action of last week revoking the license, and the pool room may now open up and go on.

It was a bad place last week, but it is all right this week, according to the sentiments of the council.

CITY STUNG AGAIN

The city council last night as usual was free with the people's money. Over the protests of Rankin, chairman of finance, the council voted to pay Judge Dillon of New York $1,700 to give an opinion on the legality of the power warrants for the Nisqually power plant.

Mayor Linck's "anti-knocking" proclamation has elicited more come-backs than such freak stunts usually do. "Biggest damphool thing I ever heard of," declared a member of the Commercial club this morning. The verbiage employed in the "proclamation" is certainly a trifle—shall we call it undignified?

RUSH WORK ON NEW DEPOT

Steel arches and girders of the new N. P. depot are arriving each day and work is progressing rapidly. Ornamental brick for exterior decoration is being stored on the ground. Brick walls have reached the height of the floor of the main waiting room.

Tracklayers are moving the Portland avenue street car tracks to permit the beginning of construction work on the reinforced concrete bridge at A street. The wooden bridge will soon be torn out. Traffic will not be delayed.

For Tacoma and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday. Light easterly winds.

THE CASE OF "MAPLE AND CANE SIRUP"

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—The department of agriculture has made public a bulletin telling of the prosecution of Baker Preserving Co., of Denver, in the United States district court of Colorado.

The government charged that the company shipped 12 bottles of syrup with labels: "Baker & Co.'s Cane and Maple Sugar Syrup, Denver, Col.," which was misleading in that the words "cane and" were so placed as to be practically invisible. This, the government charged deceived the purchaser, as the contents consisted almost entirely of cane sugar sirup with a very small amount of maple sirup.

The company pleaded guilty and paid fine and costs amounting to $20.15.

SLASHED BY WRONGED HUSBAND

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 14.—Henry Derment is in a local hospital near death, while the authorities are searching for his assailant, Thomas Dangdon, who, believing himself to be a wronged husband, planned to revenge the invasion of his home with the same character of attack that Jack Cudaby of Kansas City arranged for Jere Lillie.

Derment was slashed across the thighs and sides and was stabbed just under the heart by the enraged husband.

PLANS NO GOOD. Water Superintendent Whitney thinks the council has been completely buncoed on the fire tug plans. He says the plans do not give details at all and would be almost worthless for a manufacturer to figure from. He has not looked over the specifications yet.

In the meantime Ballin and McCoy and Spear have their $3,150.

Girl Hands Revolver to Man; He Shoots Her Father With It

ROSWELL, N. M., April 14.—W. B. Arnold shot and killed A. S. Luckie with a revolver handed him by Luckie's 12-year-old daughter.

The men quarreled at Turkey ranch near here. Both rushed to the ranch house for their revolvers. Arnold called to Luckie's daughter to hand him his weapon and she gave him the revolver before her father could shout a warning to her. Arnold turned and fired at Luckie, killing him instantly.

"QUALITY, NOT QUANTITY OF CHILDREN"—Mrs. Baker

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—Preaching "Quality and not quantity" of children is needed Mrs. Lorraine Helen Baker, of Spokane, Wash., who is attending the National Woman Suffrage association conference here, declared in a speech today that 90 per cent of the American children are "human culls."

"Roosevelt is a poor, ignorant man if he urges the American people to raise large families," said Mrs. Baker. "Anthony Comstock, the purist, cries 'obscenity' when the subject of 'eugenics' is broached. Nevertheless it is quality children we want, not quantity."

"My studies have convinced me that over 10 per cent of the children are born of love. The other 90 per cent come unwelcomed into the world.

"This leads me to think that ten years hence the man who is the father of from ten to twelve children will be as much disgraced as is a confirmed drunkard now.

"What humanity needs is a Luther Burbank for human plants."

SEES PATHETIC FIGURE IN BANK WRECKER MORSE'S DEVOTED WIFE, SEEKING PARDON

By Elizabeth Gregory. NEW YORK, April 14.—No matter if millions of people DO think Chas. W. Morse ought to be in jail—

No matter if he did get more mercy than justice when he was sent to Atlanta prison for 15 years on one count, when he was indicted on 52, for ruining thousands—

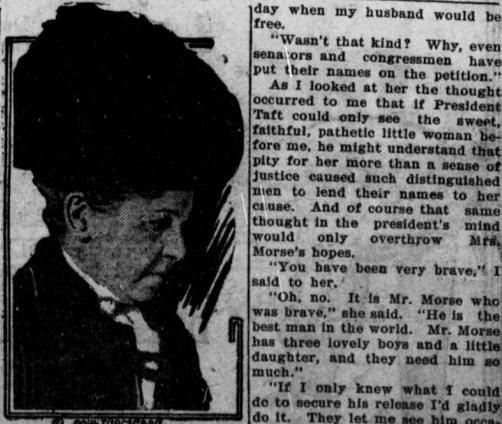

No matter if his name is execrated because he took from thousands of tenements the cooling blessing of ice by forming the ice trust—

No matter what the world thinks, his wife, with all a woman's mysterious devotion, has left her life of ease and luxury, to fight for his release.

There is a world of pathos in her declaration. "My husband is not guilty."

I talk to her in the office she has established in New York for the business of getting names on a petition for her husband's release that will be presented to President Taft.

She doesn't look the part of a keen business woman; she is best suited to a drawing room; her dainty lingerie waist was trimmed with yards and yards of lace, and her well-cut black skirt trailed the floor, modestly.

MRS. CHAS. W. MORSE.

day when my husband would be free.

"Wasn't that kind? Why, even senators and congressmen have put their names on the petition."

"As I looked at her the thought occurred to me that if President Taft could only see the sweet, faithful, pathetic little woman before me, he might understand that pity for her more than a sense of justice caused such distinguished men to lend their names to her cause. And of course that same thought in the president's mind would only overthrow Mrs. Morse's hopes.

ODDS AND ENDS

THEN IT HAPPENED

Our Daily Discontinued Story.

Traffic was impeded this morning on a downtown street while two gentlemen paused to argue whether a two-ton safe being hoisted to the third floor of a building would be able to get through the window.

The scene was the smoking room on a trans-Atlantic liner; a game of draw poker had just been played. The two players got up, and one of them stepped close to the other.

"Sir!"

"What do you want?"

"I saw you cheat just now."

"I am sure of it."

"You mean to ruin me?"

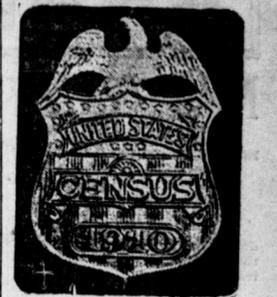

"Quite the contrary; I want you to take me into partnership."

"Hear the news? Jones went home last evening and discovered fire in the house."

"Yes; it was the only time this month the furnace hadn't gone out."

The chafing dish is the advance agent of the indigestion tablet.

THIS BADGE PROVES HE'S CENSUS MAN

This is the badge that the census enumerator who visits your house tomorrow will wear—that every one of Uncle Sam's 70,000 enumerators will wear, in fact.

MOB BURNS GOVERNOR IN EFFIGY

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 14.—Governor Patterson today insists that he did right in pardoning Colonel Duncan Cooper, whose sentence to 20 years' imprisonment for killing former Senator Edward W. Carmack was confirmed by the supreme court of the state yesterday.

His action in granting the pardon within two hours after the sentence was confirmed seems bound to keep alive the bitterness of feeling caused by the Cooper-Carmack quarrel. Last night the governor's figure was burned in effigy in Germantown, where Patterson was reared.

Feeling against Governor Patterson here is so strong that plain clothes detectives surrounded the executive mansion last night. Governor Patterson is reported to have slipped out of town this morning.

Burned in Effigy. Columbia, Tenn., April 14.—Indignation is rife here today over the action of Governor Patterson. When the news of the governor's action reached here last evening, a mob quickly gathered and burned the state's chief executive in effigy.

Mrs. Carmack, widow of the senator, refused to comment on the governor's step.

ROOSEVELT ON WAY TO AUSTRIA

(By Staff Correspondent of the United Press.) VENICE, April 14.—Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit arrived in Venice at 2 o'clock today after a hard 12 hours ride from Porto Maurizio.

As soon as the train pulled into the station Kermit and the colonel rushed to the hotel and retired. Everyone believed that they would sleep for some time. However, Roosevelt was up again at 6 o'clock, although he appeared drowsy.

At all the stations he was cheered by groups of Americans who had gathered to greet him.

Many of them cried, "You must be our president again."

Roosevelt never answered them. Roosevelt expects to leave here this afternoon for Vienna. According to advice received here from Vienna, Roosevelt's time will be as strenuous as a man of his temperament could desire. He will be the center of a whirl of dinners, receptions, royal audiences and other affairs during his two-day stay.

Receives Royal Visitors. The Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, and Count Tieste, traveling incognito, arrived unexpectedly today and called on the Roosevelts. They discussed the plans for entertaining Roosevelt while in Vienna. The Duke d'Abuzzi also called on Roosevelt.

FOUR TRAMPS KILLED IN WRECK

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SPOKANE, Wash., April 14.—Four tramps are probably dead and eight injured in a freight wreck on the Northern Pacific one-half mile west of Hannagan creek bridge. Incoming freight No. 502 was thrown into the ditch by a broken wheel on the third car from the engine. No trainmen were hurt.
