

RACE RIOTS FOLLOW BIG FIGHT

ROOSEVELT STANDS BY INSURGENT POINDEXTER

Not Much Doing For Them Yesterday In Tacoma

DR. HYDE IS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—Dr. B. C. Hyde, convicted of the murder of Col. Thos. H. Swope, today was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Lathshaw...

Toll of Death Aftermath of Johnson's Victory

CHICAGO, July 5.—A toll of bloodshed and riot was today's aftermath of the Jeff-Johnson fight. The blows that beat down the white man at Reno were re-echoed throughout the night...

SUMMARY OF RACE RIOTS
Roanoke, Va.—Six negroes beaten and dying; one white man shot.
Pittsburg—Scores hurt in race riots in which 1,000 negroes attacked white men...

Rumored That Jeffries Was Doped

MYSTERY IN HIS SUDDEN FAILURE

BALTHASAR'S REVIEW OF TRAGIC FIGHT IN RENO SHOWS THAT WHITE GIANT WAS NOT HIMSELF WHEN GONG SOUNDED—JOHNSON GIVEN CREDIT FOR CLEAN AND FAIR VICTORY.

BY MAX BALTHASAR.

RENO, Nev., July 5.—James J. Jeffries, defeated heavyweight champion of the world, is in fair shape today following the pounding he received from Johnson yesterday.

His actions just before and after the fight have caused rumors here that he was doped before he entered the ring. His handlers deny the story strenuously.

Jeffries' private car will be attached to a train leaving for San Francisco at 7:35 p. m. today.

RENO, July 5.—Perhaps it was a case of youth being served; perhaps it was a piece of luck. At any rate Jack Johnson today stands as the greatest heavyweight in the world...

The serving of youth may have been a factor in the downfall of the hope of the white race; psychology may have entered very largely, and luck also may have figured, but to get down to the real nubbing of the thing is as complex as the many excuses offered for Jeff's defeat.

Johnson Wins Fairly. But was it the negro's superior fighting quality that won the battle for him; was it a lucky punch or was it a strange fall that seemed to come over Jeff the moment he stepped into the ring?

That Blow to the Eye. The punch did not rock Jeff but his eye was in bad shape. The moment the punch landed he looked dazed and stepped into the easiest sort of punches to avoid.

Jack never transgressed the rules. He took no undue advantage while the referee was not looking, but lashed out squarely and when he landed it was a fair punch.

Getting down to brass tacks, Jeff lost everything he showed in training the moment he stepped into the ring. He had absolutely nothing. Cold as a fish, his hands more like icicles than the great bone and gristle maulers that sent so many men to defeat he was nothing like the Jeff whose training stunts made the great judges of condition marvel and predict that he would make mince meat out of Johnson.

Johnson Had His "Goat." Why he should have gone to pieces upon entering the ring, as Sam Berger, Jim Corbett and Billy Muldoon say he did, is an intangible something that may come under the head of psychology.

Can't Explain Jeff's Failure. That Jeff had nothing whatever is quite commonly agreed. What he did have, and he showed plenty in training, he must have left in camp, for the speed, endurance, strength and everything else that seemed to be necessary to a successful battle were his while working, both at Rowardennan and Moana Springs.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

Blinded or not, too long out of a ring to come back, a victim of nerves or what not, Jeff was whipped, and fairly, and a more magnanimous enemy, despite color or any other prejudice that may exist against the champion, he never met.

GREAT RECORDS MADE BY UNITED PRESS. It was not alone in Tacoma that the United Press service showed its superiority yesterday. In every city on the coast the United Press papers beat the opposition by from ten to twenty minutes in getting the returns through from Reno.

FARE CASE UP TODAY

STREET CAR COMPANY'S PETITION FOR INJUNCTION AGAINST CITY AND THE "FIGHTING SQUAD" BEING ARGUED BEFORE JUDGE HANFORD.

Judge Hanford is today wrestling with the Fern Hill case.

The matter was taken up at 11 o'clock, the attorneys argued until 12:30 and then adjournment was taken until 1:30 when it was again resumed.

Attorney Howe of Seattle opened the case for the street car company. He recited the history of the controversy and asked that an injunction be issued against the parties named and the city to prevent interference with the company in its policy of trying to force 10 cent fare out of the people.

H. G. Rowland opened for the Fern Hill people. He questioned the whole cross bill and motion for injunction in the case. He quoted from the federal and supreme court and the cyclopedia of law to show that the cross bill was not a cross bill at all but a new case if it was anything.

This tack caused the court to take a recess. He looked over the authorities and came back announcing that while it was probably not properly a cross bill he would consider it as an affidavit in the case.

Judge Stiles for the city then took the matter up. The complaint of the company had cited that Mayor Fawcett had done certain things with the police force. The charter of the city was cited to show the mayor is not in control of the police force and that the city has done nothing and is doing nothing of which the company may complain and ask for injunction.

"If the company wants the city to send policemen to help it collect 10 cent fare it certainly cannot expect the city to do that," said Judge Stiles.

Judge Stiles also cited the recent decision of Judge Shackelford and pointed out that this covered the whole contention that was being raised now in federal court. He said the whole matter had been gone into and concluded with the statement that if the street car company found now it had made a bad bargain in that settlement that it was no excuse for its proposition of now asking the courts to relieve it of the necessity of living up to it.

Attorney Langhorne for the Fern Hill people was opening his remarks when the court adjourned for noon.

To United Press Operators: We wish to thank you for the very excellent, highly professional manner in which you handled the matter coming out of Reno yesterday.

UNIFORMLY EFFICIENT WORK enabled the United Press to lead all rivals in a supreme test of efficiency.

UNION PRESS ASSOCIATION. C. D. LEE, President.

THE LARGEST INCUBATOR in the world is in Australia. It hatches 11,040 eggs at a time.

THE SUPREME COURT of Kansas has decided it is the duty of pedestrians to dodge automobiles. Duty or no duty, it is safer to dodge.

Ted, Jr., may find his carpet factory experience valuable when his wife tells him to tack down a few.

An Evangelical Lutheran church is to be built in St. Louis at a cost of $1,000,000. It will be completed in 1917.

Ex-Councilman Calvin Stewart has had appendicitis for a week. He came down town this morning with a cane.

Circus acrobats are paid salaries ranging from $50 to $200 a week.

NORRIS NOT TO RUN FOR THE SENATE

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 5.—Congressman Norris, Nebraska, insurgent, today announced that he is not a candidate for senator from Nebraska, but that he intends to seek re-election to congress.

Senator Burkett is a candidate for re-election. The "progressives" of the state as well as leaders in the movement outside, are organizing to fight him. Senators La Follette, Bristow and Cummins, it is understood, will take the stump to urge his defeat in Nebraska.

WHAT THEY GET IN CASH

JOHNSON GETS $2,000 MORE THAN JEFF

(By United Press Leased Wire.) RENO, July 5.—When the last bit of money in the house is counted it is believed that Johnson's victory over Jeff will net him $30,000 more than the defeated white man will receive.

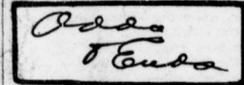

It is estimated that the entire receipts will be $110,000 in addition to their interest in the moving pictures.

Johnson's share of the purse will be about $20,000 his bonus, $10,000, and his picture rights, $50,000, making a total of $80,000.

Jeff is to receive $50,000, a bonus of $10,000, and $50,000 for his motion picture rights, or a total of $110,000.

It is estimated that the entire receipts will be $110,000 in addition to their interest in the moving pictures.

Johnson's share of the purse will be about $20,000 his bonus, $10,000, and his picture rights, $50,000, making a total of $80,000.

"Then It Happened"

T. R. WITH POINDEXTER

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

OYSTER BAY, July 5.—Representative Poindexter of Washington after a prolonged conference with Col. Roosevelt today declared Roosevelt to be with the insurgent movement "in heart and in action."

Discussing his conference with a representative of the United Press Poindexter said: "Roosevelt and I have always stood together. He is still with me and he assured me today that he will continue to be with me. We discussed politics in all its phases and I am heartily pleased with the colonel's views. The outcome of our conference is gratifying."

Times' Stadium Packed

The Times certainly made a hit extra, was out on the street minutes before any other paper, giving the fight in all its details round.

With an operator at the ringside and another in the office, returns from the Reno arena were handed to the 5000 people who crowded Commerce street in the improvised stadium within a few seconds of the time the events were witnessed by the crowd away off there in Nevada.

There was no relaying of the service for the Times. And the Times had a spokesman at the business end of the megaphone, whose enunciation was so distinct that everybody heard every word plainly.

Seats were furnished to several hundred and the rest stood during the fight. Many ladies were present, just as interested as any of the men.

To top off the whole day's proceedings the Times, with its pink extra, was out on the street minutes before any other paper, giving the fight in all its details round.

The multitude that packed the Times' stadium was good-natured, and although disappointed at the nature of the news that came from Nevada, appreciated the efforts made by the Times to give them the best and quickest service possible.

Shots Woman's Tongue Out. ENOKA, La., July 5.—Three negroes were killed in rioting here following the victory of Jack Johnson.

A negroess who shouted for Johnson was followed by the infuriated whites, who shot her tongue out. She died today.

Trouble in Walls Walla. WALLA WALLA, July 5.—Feeling between the whites and negroes here is exceedingly bitter today on account of the outcome of the Reno fight, and extra precautions have been taken by the police to prevent trouble.

KILLED BY TRAIN (By United Press Leased Wire.) SPOKANE, July 5.—John Windandy was caught by an electric train and instantly killed here yesterday.

M'CREDIE'S CHEERFUL MESSAGE. McCredie, the Portland base ball magnate, who is just now misrepresenting Tacoma in congress, arrived in Portland from Washington the other night and when interviewed by the Oregonian, a stand-pat paper, this is what McCredie said: "I consider Cannon a great man. He would even have made a great base ball man."

That's McCredie's message to the people. Interesting and cheerful, isn't it? And yet three papers of Tacoma are knifing Warburton and boosting McCredie for another term.

ONE LITTLE PEEP FOR ASHTON Editor Tacoma Times: The Sunday Seattle Post-Intelligencer has extracts from 43 papers in the state of Washington on the senatorial situation. We find that 22 counties are represented, with 10 counties from Eastern Washington and 12 counties from the west side.

We find that 22 of the papers are favorable to John L. Wilson for United States senator, while nine of the papers say that the fight is between Wilson and Poindexter. The other papers speak of the situation mentioning every candidate in the race except one man, and that is James M. Ashton. We find one paper, after looking closely, that says Ashton is a candidate.

The counties represented are as follows: Western Washington—Cowlitz, Clallam, Chehalis, Island, King, Lewis, Pacific, Pierce, Skagit, Snohomish, Waukikum, Whatcom, East Side counties—Adams, Chelan, Douglas, Klickitat, Lincoln, Okanogan, Yakima, Spokane, Stevens, Whitman.

It is natural to suppose that when the Wilson compiler got these clippings together that he would see that a majority of them were for Mr. Wilson for senator, and that he would not want to show too much Poindexter sentiment. On the other hand, as Ashton is only out to help Wilson, it is unnatural for the compiler to pick out papers that did not mention Ashton. The facts in the case are that there is not a paper in the state outside of Pierce county that is giving its support to General Ashton, and all of the papers consider Mr. Ashton's candidacy.

Negro Hanged to Lamp Post NEW YORK, July 5.—A negro was hanged to a lamp post in the tenorlin here today, but the police cut him down in time to save his life.

Riots continued all night, and the police fear further trouble during the day. Thousands of policemen are on duty in the colored sections of the city.

Negro coachmen and butlers, who have won large sums on the fight, are quitting work. The negroes are assuming an overbearing and insolent demeanor and go out of their way to crowd whites off the sidewalks.

Atlanta, Ga.—Negro runs amuck following the victory of Johnson, and is saved from death by the police.

Baltimore—Several negroes stabbed in a riot.

Washington—Hospitals crowded with injured whites and blacks. Rioting continued all night; 230 under arrest.

New York—Negro hanged to lamppost; another beaten to death; scores injured. Police reserves out in all negro sections.

Shreveport, La.—Three negroes killed, one white man fatally injured, scores of whites and blacks hurt in riot following the fight returns. Reports from northern Louisiana tells of many persons injured in riots.

Chicago—One negro stabbed and dying; scores injured; frequent fights in the "black belt."

Omaha—One negro killed, many injured.

Houston, Tex.—A white man was stabbed by a negro and then killed his assailant. Several negroes attacked and beaten.

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Two negroes attack white woman and beat her fatally with beer bottles.

Augusta, Ga.—Riots reported in Southern Georgia. Three negroes killed, many injured.

Mounds, Ill.—Negro constable killed by negroes whom he was attempting to arrest for "shooting up the town," in celebrating Johnson's victory.

Fierce Rioting in Washington. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—Rioting in which seven thousand negroes and whites participated continued throughout the night here. Every available policeman in Washington is on duty today, and it is possible that federal troops may be ordered into the national capital to restore order.

The fighting was continuous along Pennsylvania avenue between the capitol and the white house. The negroes are wild with enthusiasm, and their boisterousness increased as the evening wore on.

Attacks were made upon white men in their homes by negroes, joy-maddened at the beating of Jeff by Johnson. Three negroes entered the homes of white women, dragged them to the streets, beat and tore their clothing from them before a mob of howling blacks.

A fierce riot followed when police and white men rescued the women.

The black population of Washington numbers 100,000, and the indications today were that a great majority were hilariously and uncontrollably drunk.

MOUNDS, Ill., July 5.—One negro was killed and another injured in a riot caused over the victory of Johnson's fight yesterday.

Shots Woman's Tongue Out. ENOKA, La., July 5.—Three negroes were killed in rioting here following the victory of Jack Johnson.

A negroess who shouted for Johnson was followed by the infuriated whites, who shot her tongue out. She died today.

Trouble in Walls Walla. WALLA WALLA, July 5.—Feeling between the whites and negroes here is exceedingly bitter today on account of the outcome of the Reno fight, and extra precautions have been taken by the police to prevent trouble.

KILLED BY TRAIN (By United Press Leased Wire.) SPOKANE, July 5.—John Windandy was caught by an electric train and instantly killed here yesterday.

M'CREDIE'S CHEERFUL MESSAGE. McCredie, the Portland base ball magnate, who is just now misrepresenting Tacoma in congress, arrived in Portland from Washington the other night and when interviewed by the Oregonian, a stand-pat paper, this is what McCredie said: "I consider Cannon a great man. He would even have made a great base ball man."

That's McCredie's message to the people. Interesting and cheerful, isn't it? And yet three papers of Tacoma are knifing Warburton and boosting McCredie for another term.

ONE LITTLE PEEP FOR ASHTON Editor Tacoma Times: The Sunday Seattle Post-Intelligencer has extracts from 43 papers in the state of Washington on the senatorial situation. We find that 22 counties are represented, with 10 counties from Eastern Washington and 12 counties from the west side.

We find that 22 of the papers are favorable to John L. Wilson for United States senator, while nine of the papers say that the fight is between Wilson and Poindexter. The other papers speak of the situation mentioning every candidate in the race except one man, and that is James M. Ashton. We find one paper, after looking closely, that says Ashton is a candidate.

The counties represented are as follows: Western Washington—Cowlitz, Clallam, Chehalis, Island, King, Lewis, Pacific, Pierce, Skagit, Snohomish, Waukikum, Whatcom, East Side counties—Adams, Chelan, Douglas, Klickitat, Lincoln, Okanogan, Yakima, Spokane, Stevens, Whitman.

It is natural to suppose that when the Wilson compiler got these clippings together that he would see that a majority of them were for Mr. Wilson for senator, and that he would not want to show too much Poindexter sentiment. On the other hand, as Ashton is only out to help Wilson, it is unnatural for the compiler to pick out papers that did not mention Ashton. The facts in the case are that there is not a paper in the state outside of Pierce county that is giving its support to General Ashton, and all of the papers consider Mr. Ashton's candidacy.

(Continued on Page Three.)