

SUFFRAGISTS TO BE IN LABOR DAY PARADE

One of the big features of the Labor Day parade this year will be a demonstration by the Tacoma woman suffragists. A float typifying the "votes for women" movement will have a prominent place in the parade. This week Dr. Luema Johnson sent letters to all the suffrage organizations urging them to take part in the Labor Day demonstration.

Little Things That Happen Around Town

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Sheriff Morris to bring Henry Fred G. Remann yesterday filed information against Gus Stark, an alleged member of a gang of sea pirates, charging him with grand larceny. The crime of which Stark is accused is the stealing of a screw propeller, valued at $50, belonging to J. W. Doughty.

The big stadium will next week better than ever, for workmen are now sodding the whole field. When carpeted with green, the big horseshoe will present a beautiful appearance. The grass will be allowed to get a good start before the football season is on.

Judge Chapman has ordered Carnahan.

MAKES ANOTHER PLEA FOR BOOST IN SALARY

The city of Tacoma pays $8,100 less for its whole staff of attorneys than the Northern Pacific pays one lawyer in Tacoma, according to the statement made by Assistant City Attorney Baker when he appeared before the city commission asking that the pay of the attorneys all be raised. He says Tacoma pays over $25,000 less than Seattle for attorneys and in Seattle they do not stay in the city hall, do not advise the officials and spend much time in private practice.

The attorneys here now get $300 a month for Judge Stiles, $175 for Baker and $100 for Carnahan. They ask $400 for Stiles, 250 for Baker and $150 for Carnahan.

WIRELESS CLOSES OFFICES ON LAND

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 12.—The headquarters of the United Wireless Telegraph company at Portland and the stations here and at St. Helens were closed today. Their disorganization signals the termination of the present efforts of that corporation to compete with telegraph lines on land. The nearest wireless station will be Astoria.

The financial returns have not been sufficient to warrant a continuance of the inland offices, and it is planned all energy to sea work. The company has plants aboard 100 vessels on the Pacific coast with shore stations from Alaska to San Diego.

HOT FIRE IN SOUTH END

The fire department worked for two hours yesterday afternoon to save the district in the vicinity of South Twenty-third and C streets, from destruction. A blaze which started in the Hartly house, a three-story frame rooming house, damaged the building considerably and scorched surrounding structures.

The loss is estimated at $5,000. Mrs. Hartly, who rented the building, carried insurance of $600 on furniture which she says cost $3,000.

MASTERFUL MEN.

The Russian peasant women have a proverb to the effect that there can be no love without jealousy, and no jealousy without beating. So the mooning Russian woman sees in every blow her husband gives her another proof that he loves her still. And she is more thoroughly convinced that he is just "crazy" about her when he knocks her down and kicks her in the face. She likes "masterful" men, she does.

WHAT WILL TAFT DO?

has been placed on the defensive gives the advantage to the insurgents, politicians declare. But the matter over which they are debating is the probable attitude President Taft will take. The president has explained the Ballinger charges, has defended Cannon, has come out strongly for the tariff, praising Aldrich for the part he played in framing the law. Whether he will come out for Aldrich in the present controversy, taking sides with him against the insurgents, is the question politicians are asking.

Remembers Iowa Convention.

The feeling of cordiality between Taft and the insurgents, it is admitted, has been strained by the action of the Iowa republicans who adopted such a lukewarm endorsement of the president and the administration that many republicans are wondering just what they meant. The fight against an endorsement of Taft's administration by the insurgents of his own state which caused the regulars a good many hours of worry, recent developments in Kansas and other insurgent strongholds have not tended to make the president feel more friendly toward the insurgent leaders. It is believed certain here that Aldrich has asked ed the president to endorse him in the present controversy.

Expect More From Bristow.

That a reply from Senator Bristow to Aldrich's explanations is the general expectation of the politicians. Senator Aldrich's letter, written to Chairman William B. McKinley of the congressional campaign committee, admits the charge by Bristow that Aldrich is connected with the Inter-Continental company and also admits that the rubber schedules were advanced five per cent as Bristow alleges. The advances, Aldrich contends, were not made for the benefit of his own company but because the rubber industry as a whole demanded it and because the demands seemed fair to the committee to whom the evidence was submitted.

Bristow has charged that the company recently reorganized is empowered by its charter to engage in manufacturing and also is empowered to engage in other business, such as mining. This Bristow charges, is intended to help the Guggenheim syndicate get possession of the mineral wealth in all parts of the United States. Bristow emphatically stated that his charges were based on the charter of the company, a copy of which he had seen.

Hindu Hordes to Be Barred From Coast

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—The announcement of Assistant Secretary Benjamin S. Cable, speaking for the department of commerce and labor, that a policy of increased restrictions as regards the immigration of Hindus would be adopted, will undoubtedly be good news to the Pacific coast.

The report from Calcutta of an influx to the Pacific coast, occasioned by widespread reports that America was the "good land," and that there every husky hand had a chance to get on the police force, prompted the assistant secretary to declare that it was about time the country awakened to the import of such a threatened invasion.

ELKS CONVENTION ENDS TODAY

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PORT ANGELES, Aug. 12.—The Elks' convention will close today, following a ball game between the Tacoma and Seattle teams for the championship of the lodge. A resolution was passed yesterday favoring Portland as the next meeting place of the grand lodge. Next year's convention of the state lodge will be decided by a committee later. Thomas Shields of Ballard was elected president, T. H. Carter of Tacoma first vice president; H. L. Cogan of Seattle second vice president; Charles Manning of Everett third vice president; Roland Ganwell of Bellingham treasurer; T. H. Hylan of Everett chaplain, and Geo. F. Russell of Seattle sergeant-at-arms.

MORTALITY NOTES

William Henry Hauser, of the firm of Wille & Hauser, shoe merchants, at 1512 Jefferson avenue, died of heart failure last evening just after he had finished a pleasant conversation with friends about 6 o'clock. He was found dead in his office chair by his partner, Otto Wille, who summoned Dr. McReery. The remains were removed to the Mellinger company's undertaking parlors. Deceased had been in business in Tacoma for eight years. He leaves a widow.

Amandus Gothlin, 20 years old, died at one of the city hospitals of typhoid fever yesterday. He is survived by his father, P. G. Gothlin, 2819 South I street, two brothers and seven sisters. The remains were removed to Mellinger company's undertaking parlors.

Lucille M. Wall, 10 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wall, died yesterday at the family residence, 1812 South L street. The body was removed to Lynn's undertaking parlors.

William Lytle, 64 years old, died at one of the city hospitals yesterday morning. He is survived by a brother, J. John Lytle of Tacoma. The remains were removed to the Mellinger company's undertaking rooms.

Eric Arthur Anderson, aged eight months and two days, son of Anders Anderson, died yesterday at the family residence, 605 East Harrison street. The funeral will be held Saturday.

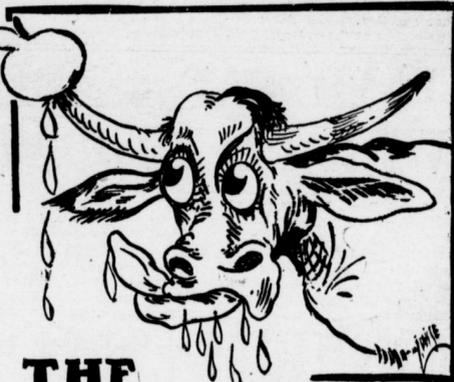

The funeral of James Volanek, who died near Eatonville Tuesday, was held today from Lynn's chapel.

Town Being Swallowed Up In Earth

(By United Press Leased Wire.) STAUNTON, Va., Aug. 12.—Residents of Staunton are hurriedly moving from their homes today terrified by the sudden appearance in the town's center of gaping holes in the earth. Already two houses have been engulfed and other cave-ins are occurring at short intervals, slowly destroying Baldwin street, the main thoroughfare. Staunton is in the limestone region, and it is believed that hitherto concealed subterranean chambers have suddenly settled, breaking the surface. No relief seems possible.
