Tacoma Now Next To Tail Enders

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE.

Standing of the Teams.	Won	Lost	Pct

Vancouver	62	56	.522
Tacoma	60	55	.522
Seattle	43	73	.371

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SPOKANE, Aug. 16.—Getting away with a start of two runs it looked good for the Tacoma Tigers in the opening baseball battle of the week here yesterday, but the Indians tied up the score in the second and third and got the odd one in the eighth.

Both McCammett and Killhay pitched good ball but the hits of Spokane were long drives and won the game. McCammett lost the game by issuing passes which, followed by long smashes, put the runners home. The defeat of the Tigers puts them back again in third place in the league race.

Score: R H E
Spokane 3 4 0
Tacoma 2 4 0

Batteries: Killhay and Shea; McCammett and Byrnes.

GOOD SHOOTING ON 3,000 YARD RANGE

CAMP PERRY, O., Aug. 16.—Capt. Guy Emmerson of Ohio won the Wimbledon cup match for 1,000-yard rifle shooting in the big national meet here yesterday, making a score of 99 out of a possible 100. Lieut. Col. C. B. Winder also made 99 and set second place.

SPORT CHIPS

Gov. Hughes seems to have hung the everlasting binger upon the boss game in the Empire state. Saratoga without Canfield or the ponies promises to become a "deserted village."

Joey Woodman continues to pester Jack Johnson. Some day the champ will become peeved and accept Woodman's challenge, on behalf of Langford. A large percentage of sport followers believe Sammy has John Arthur's nanny.

American Association of Amateur Oarsmen meets on the Potomac, at Washington, Aug. 12 and 13.

The Cubs have it on the Giants. During 1909 the latter team defeated Chicago's crowd but three times on the Polo grounds. The record this year is worse.

Just as an example of the sort of stuff pulled off by Charley Murphy, the Cub owner: Chicago traded Substitute First Baseman Ludenous for Pitcher Foxen, a Phillie star. Who owns the Cubs and Phillies?

The way Mel Sheppard is clipping records on the cinder path ought to bring an aspiring lot of young athletes into the game of spiked shoes and small clothes.

The pitcher who winds up with men on bases won't last long in any company—if the manager knows anything.

Isn't it about time to start another agitation for an international challenge for the America's cup? Tommy Lipton please take notice.

England is the send another polo team after the Meadowbrook cup next year.

SEATTLE AGAIN SHUT OUT

SEATTLE, Aug. 16.—Vancouver had no trouble in walloping Seattle again yesterday, shutting the Turks out without a run. Miller was in good form and held the Weed crowd to three hits.

Score: R H E
Vancouver 3 6 1
Seattle 0 3 2

Batteries: Miller and Lewis; Chinault and Custer.

Ready for the Football Boys

The sodding of the gridiron at the stadium is half done and will be finished this week. The hose will be turned on then for a week or two and the grass will be given a good start before the High school chaps get on it the first of next month to practice.

The Tacoma team will play all games this year in the stadium excepting one with Lincoln High at Seattle and one with Spokane High at Spokane.

The "Going Up" Season Is Here

All over the country the big leagues are buying players, and the heroes of the bush leagues are hearing music that sounds like "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

PUYALLUP WONT' COMPROMISE

PUYALLUP, Aug. 16.—An attempt to make a compromise settlement with the Puget Sound Electric railway last night failed. The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Commercial club and ended in a motion to reject the company's proposition.

The matter will now go to the supreme court. Chairman Fairchild of the state railway commission was at the meeting but took no part in the discussion.

The company offered a 10-ride commutation book for $1.50 and a 32-ride book for $4.

CAN THIS FARM LAD LICK JACK JOHNSING?

Here's a man who can whip Jack Johnson.

At least Jim Corbett says so, and it is generally admitted that few followers of the scrap sport are in a better position to know than Corbett, who stood up as best man and chief mourner to Jim Jeffries at the Reno slugfest. On that blistering July day Corbett had no adequate comeback to Johnson's kidding, but it is generally supposed that right there Corbett made a deep-dyed and bloodthirsty resolve to have revenge on the big chocolate drop, and that he is scouring the world for any likely looking youngster who can hand Johnson one hard enough to put him on the blink and send him to dippy land while the referee counts 10.

The "future hope of the white race," according to Jas. J. Corbett, is a farmer boy hailing from the "show me" state of Missouri, county of Gentry. His name is McLeod—Miles McLeod, but you pronounce it just as though it were spelled "McLeod."

And the remarkable thing about this youngster of 28 years is that he has never done any fighting—that is, professional fighting. Of course he puts on the gloves once in awhile with the neighbor boys, any one of whom he can whip with one hand tied behind him, but he isn't a professional—yet. He has everything to learn, but—and it's a great big but—he has no old tricks to unlearn.

Stood up by the side of Johnson he would tower five and three-quarter inches above the black man. He is as strong as a bull, and just as wiry, agile and quick as you can get 'em.

He is not a college-bred man. He is just a farmer boy, a physical giant, but does not claim to be much of an athlete. But he is willing to train, and he is anxious to fight.

This is what he has to say about it himself:

"If Mr. Corbett says I can lick Johnson, I'll sure enough lick him. I have never seen a man I refuse to fight, and I am anxious to fit myself to meet the negro. I want to fight him and will fight, providing the match can be arranged and Mr. Corbett has sufficient confidence in me."

And when he goes into training he will not have to quit smoking or drinking, because he never began to smoke or drink. He has lived a clean mental, moral and physical life, and when it comes to material fitness, well—he has pitched a whole lot of Missouri hay, and shoveled a plow around miles of Missouri fields, and he has gone to bed early, and got up early, and eaten clean, wholesome food prepared by his mother.

Corbett got a good look at McLeod in Chicago. He was enthusiastic about the Missouri lad, and it is generally believed by the initiated that he is going back to Missouri some day and take Miles in hand. And again, it isn't improbable that McLeod will begin to train on his own initiative.

McLeod's parents are of Scotch descent. They are of the sober, industrious and law-abiding type, purpose and is willing to tote the "white man's burden" and work back the supremacy of his color whenever Corbett gives the word.

MILE McLEOD, WHO IS JUST NOW A FARMER, BUT WHO MAY BE SLATED FOR PUGILISTIC LAURELS.

In comparison with Johnson, McLeod shows more of the perfect man. He is 5½ inches taller, has the advantage of 9½ inches in reach, and is broader across the shoulders and deeper of chest. Johnson is bulkier than the Missourian in arms and limbs. The following figures will show where McLeod has the advantage over the negro:

	McLeod.	Johnson.
Age	28 years	32 years
Height	73 inches	72 inches
Reach	81½ inches	72 inches
Chest (expanded)	49 inches	39½ inches
Chest (normal)	44 inches	36½ inches
Waist	41 inches	34½ inches
Biceps	16 inches	18½ inches
Forearm	13 inches	14½ inches
Wrist	8 inches	10½ inches
Thigh	23 inches	25½ inches
Calf	16 inches	15½ inches
Ankle	10½ inches	10½ inches
Neck	16 inches	17½ inches
Weight	235 pounds	205 pounds

Leads the Bunch in Biggest Race of Year

What do you think of it? Here's a green, rank outsider coming in and nosing the champion bingers out of first place in the greatest automobile race ever pulled off. There's something besides glory in being the champ hitter in major league base ball this year—a big touring car is the prize that the best batter will receive.

And it looked like Ty Cobb and Nap Lajoie would have the race all to themselves. Nobody in the National league seemed to have a stand-in. And then Larry slumped and the swatting Tiger began to sulk, while recruit Snodgrass of the New York Nationals began hustling to the front like a real auto racer.

Snodgrass is so near the 400 mark that Larry and Ty get cold chill every time they think about that auto that they ought to win. "Snod" was picked up from a Los Angeles college team last season. He used to be a catcher, but Muggsy figured it out that a man who could rap the ball on the nose at such frequent intervals ought to get every chance to face the pitcher, so he made a cracker-jack outfielder out of "Snod."

The Home Paper of Tacoma

Is the Tacoma Times

The Times employs as many carrier boys as both other afternoon papers combined, and The Times through this army of boys delivers nearly as many paid for copies as both other afternoon papers combined.

The Times city circulation beats the circulation of one of the other afternoon papers by about 7,500 copies each day, and The Times' city circulation beats the city circulation of the other afternoon paper by about 1500 copies each day.

Most Everybody in Tacoma Reads the Times

In proportion to the population of Tacoma the circulation of The Times is greater than that of any paper printed in the Northwest.
