

LIFE FOR HIM WILL BE A LIVING DEATH

Fred Munroe Preston, only 31 years of age, must spend the rest of his life in prison. He says he cannot explain why he goes wrong but he cannot keep from committing burglary. He confessed to two burglaries here in the past week. He admits he has been in the penitentiary twice before and pleaded guilty to being an habitual criminal, and was sentenced for life. So this week the bars of Walla Walla will be closed on him forever. When he comes out again he will come out in a coffin. He told Judge Eusebio he never harmed anyone and that his only crime is that he is a burglar. His thefts were mostly in daylight.

"Divine" Sarah's Enemy Dead

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PARIS, Aug. 31.—The death here of Marie Colombar has revived gossip today of enmity that long existed between the woman and Sarah Bernhardt. Madame Colombar accompanied Mme. Bernhardt on her first American tour. After her return to Paris she wrote a book entitled "Sarah Bernhardt," which under a thin disguise, dragged the name of Sarah Bernhardt through a number of scandals. The book ran through 91 editions.

"UNCLE LON" RETIRED FOR VOTING WITH "UNCLE JOE"

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 31.—Swat! Another stiff punch landed on Uncle Joseph Cannon, of Illinois—this time the demerit of Georgia. His faithful friend "Uncle Lon" Livingston retires from congress at the express wish of his constituents. Wm. Schley Howard captured the primary which means election down here in "solid" Georgia.

WM. SCHLEY HOWARD Georgia Man Who Defeated "Uncle Lon" Livingston, a Cannon Congressman from Georgia.

One little vote last spring lost "Uncle Lon" hundreds of votes and his seat, after 29 years in congress. He voted with Cannon in the rules fight. Howard is a picturesque character, with rough and ready eloquence. Although of an old family, he easily becomes a typical "wool-hat boy" when he wants to. A few years ago he was elected solicitor general of DeKalb county after a "barefoot" campaign, during which he hid his shoes and silk socks in the woods and tramped barefoot over plowed fields to talk to the farmers. He owns a beautiful home in Atlanta, but is a fervid progressive democrat.

Montreal: Here is a "ville" that is 60 per cent French. You get an inkling of this as soon as you see the street signs and the gardeners. The street signs are half of them French, and the gardeners are all of them French. The French chalk, the French poodles and the French mustard are French. Yes, and the German fried potatoes, even, are French. The French have been here since 1603, but the younger ones can't remember that far back. Once—don't laugh, it is history—there was a mayor of Montreal who was not French. His name was Peter McGill. But, probably, his name got on the ballots as Pierre Meiguille.

which, however, are not wasted. I believe artisans beat them out into copper wash boilers. There are also nickels, or 5-cent pieces, as they are called. "Fragments" would be better. They're about the size of the spangles on a masquerade costume. Most of them are quite crumpled. Douglas Malloch, the lumberman poet of Chicago, says they are thus dented by Scotchmen biting them to test the "siller." Being a Scotchman himself, this from Malloch is perhaps not a mere fare box by a handle, like a stein or seidel. He shoves it at you, and you contribute. You drop the 5-cent piece into a slot. Also the transfers. The conductor carries a silver of wood to stuff the paper into the hole. It's a good thing they don't have 3-cent fare here. The conductor would have to carry a key to collect it. Those large discs called pennies, you know, one dropped on the foot of E. W. Miller, boyhood friend of Eugene Field. Although he limped away, it was not necessary for him to buy a crutch.

VOTE FOR WOMEN FIRST

The ballot for women and death of the liquor traffic were the two prominent doctrines advocated in the twenty-first annual Pierce county W. C. T. U. convention, which held meetings all day and last evening in the Presbyterian church. The meetings are continuing today and will close tonight. A feature of the meeting yesterday afternoon was the appearance

FLOAT, NOT MARCHERS, WILL REPRESENT SUFFRAGETTES

Tacoma suffragettes will not march in the Labor day parade. Instead they will have a big float to advertise the fact that they want the ballot and mean to get it. Organized labor offered the women a place in the Labor day parade and the women decided to accept by placing a float in line for their cause.

There was a suggestion that the women get out and march but the leaders in conference at a dinner at the Olympics yesterday decided that it was not necessary to march and that it would injure the cause more than benefit. Mrs. Emma Smith DeVoe, state

In Little Old New York

BY NORMAN. NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—There's a new variety of moving, up Harlem way. A family living at one end of a block switched to a flat in the other end. The roofs of all the apartment houses were practically on a level. The people were moving from one top-floor flat to another. Their goods never went to the street—everything was lugged across the roofs from the old residence to the new.

Pedestrians walking along a quiet stretch of upper Lenox avenue one evening were puzzled to behold approaching them two small lights, approaching about eighteen inches apart, and a couple of feet above the sidewalk. As the lights drew near, it developed they were headlights on a baby carriage, being wheeled by a so-
