BOMB GOES OFF UNDER HOTEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—A dynamite bomb, hurled, the police say, by warring Italian fishermen, wrecked the entrance of the Hotel Bimbo, in the Latin quarter early today, but none of the 35 lodgers, including two women and four children, was injured. A brown felt hat, dropped by the would-be assassin as he ran away after the explosion, and an impression of his voice as he yelled when two policemen fired at him are the only clues on which the police have any hope of capturing the miscreant.

JOHN D. WORKS IS ELECTED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—With a vote of 62 to 16 in the assembly, John D. Works of Los Angeles became United States senator from California today. The number required to elect on joint ballot was 61. At the time the result of the vote in the assembly was announced in the senate, the upper house had not yet voted. Its vote, however, was merely perfunctory. The senate alone had elected Works.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 10.—Voting for United States senator to succeed Thomas H. Carter began in the Montana legislative assembly today with the following results: T. H. Carter, 31; T. J. Walsh, 28; W. G. Conrad, 18; Scattering 22. Necessary for choice 50.

Officers Trap Burglar and Shoot Him In Back

BIG NEGRO TRACED THROUGH SNOW AND FINALLY CAUGHT ROBBING RESIDENCE.

It was the first snow and fine for coon hunting and Detective Jack Ellison and Policeman Pugmyer bagged the game at 4:45 this morning. He gave his name as Charles Brown, aged 28, a porter, and he was shot across the back. The bullet just winged him and he will be able to go to Walla Walla shortly. When that snow came the boys thought now was the time for sport, so they put on their shooting irons and started down on South K street where game of the burglar variety seemed to abound in the last few nights. Soon after the chase started Ellison saw tracks. He called Pugmyer and they followed them. They went up to a window and came back. They found similar trails up to several houses but they always came back. Game Is Traced. After a while they followed the big footprints up to the home of Harry Koch, at 1956 South K street. The tracks led to the window. And they did not come back. "It's inside," says Jack. Pug assented and the pair surrounded the house. They were not in a hurry. It is no use to hurry when you tree a coon, just take your time. In a short time the front door opened and a big black woolly head stuck out. Bang! Pugmyer had missed. The coon ran back in his hole and went for the back door. He dashed out and was making good speed when Ellison pulled the trigger and the game dropped. There was a bullet hole through his back starting in on one shoulder and skimming along the back in a tantalizing way. The cops were on to the chap in a hurry. They called the wagon and the burglar was taken to the county hospital. He is not much shot up. On his person was found some jewelry he had grabbed. He is thought to be the same fellow who has been making good hauls the last few nights in this section. He had gone through the Koch house and the people never knew a thing about it until the policeman shot the thief right under their window. Brown, as he gave his name, has made some good hauls lately, but he forgot that coon hunting is always at its best after a light snow.

MAY TAKE UP CONTEMPT TODAY

SENATOR DAN LANDON MAY INTRODUCE MEASURE TO ADOPT FEDERAL LAW.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—Senator Dan Landon of King county will today, it is announced, introduce a bill preventing punishment for contempt for criticisms outside the courtroom. The bill will follow the lines of the federal law of 1831. Representative Victor Zednick, King county, has already filed a similar bill in the house, to go in as house bill No. 1. The introduction of these measures follows on the arrest and sentencing to jail of two editors of the Seattle Star whose comment criticized the issuance of an injunction by Judge Gilliam against the Duwamish valley residents and in favor of the Interurban Electric company. Already more than fifty legislators have pledged themselves to vote against the present law of contempt, and a majority of the senate has come out for the federal law.

OREGON SOLONS OMITTED PRAYER

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 10.—The senate having opened two sessions without prayer, the members saw the lack this morning and invited local ministers to perform the act of grace. Many bills were introduced, the most important being that fixing the length of freerackers at not to exceed 2 1/2 inches.

'THEN IT HAPPENED'

Our Daily Discontinued Story.

Benjamin J. Bedslat had one secret grief. It was his habit of sleepwalking. It is better far, dear reader, to have insomnia than somnambulism, which is what Benjamin J. had. Several times they picked him up in remote parts of town dressed for the evening but minus a silk hat and dancing pumps. It was remarkable how he could wander from between the blankets and get back intact. Luck surely was with Ben. On a certain night, however, he got up without being called and wandered back and forth on the ridgepole of a greenhouse. All would have been well had he not become attacked with a nightmare and suddenly tried to sidestep an imaginary automobile. THE END.

OREGON'S LIABILITY LAW LOOKS GOOD: EMPLOYER MADE STRICTLY RESPONSIBLE

How Oregon People Got It and How it Works—Man On Top Must Look Out for Life and Limb of Employee.

BY DANA SLEETH
PORTLAND, Jan. 5.—"Babies are born without limit and must live, and there are always plenty of workless men waiting to take dead father's shoes."
"Oregon has protected iron and steel machinery, but human machinery has been too cheap to protect; give the babies a chance."
That was part of the publicity battle turned on Big Business in Oregon by organized labor this last November; today Oregon has real sure enough employers' liability law.
For years the worst conditions regarding the protection of labor disgraced Oregon. Today Oregon has the broadest liability law in the nation. The sudden change came by itself.

Beautiful Princess Was Santa Claus on the Raging Sea

PRINCESS LWOFF-PARLAGHY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Every little child of the many who came over in the steerage of the Hamburg-American liner President Lincoln, is wondering how Santa Claus got to the steamer in mid-ocean, when reindeer are supposed to be strictly land navigators. Every one of them got fruit, candy, nuts and a coin, from the Christmas saint. The generous Santa Claus at sea was the Princess Lwoff-Parlaghy, the noted German portrait painter. She gave away $2,000 in gifts on Christmas eve on the liner, most of which went to the poor in the steerage. The princess left America a year ago for a visit to her Berlin castle, where she has a $3,000,000 collection of frescoes. While over here this time she will paint free the portraits of those to whom she takes a fancy.

Late Bulletins

SPOKANE, Jan. 10.—Following a long conference today, Mayor Pratt and the board of public works decided not to award any more contracts without consulting the corporation counsel in each case. This action was the result of the opinion recently rendered by Corporation Counsel F. B. Morrill that there is some question as to the authority of the board, now that the new charter has been adopted.

SPOKANE, Jan. 10.—The police are searching for "Red" Apple, prominent during the Coeur d'Alene mining troubles and the I. W. W. a year ago. Appleby was in Spokane last Monday night, and is claimed to have uttered threats against Capt. Sullivan in a saloon. He has since disappeared, and is alleged to have appeared in Grand Forks, B. C., two days after the shooting.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—Senator Crawford of South Dakota bitterly attacked Senator Lorimer of Illinois today, charging that he must have known of the corrupt practices employed in electing him. "The election of State Representative Shurtleff as speaker of the lower house of the Illinois legislature," Crawford said, "was the first step in the corrupt program."

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 10.—A demand for radical election reforms, another for the enactment of the initiative, referendum and recall, the endorsement of Senator LaFollette's cry to beat the presidential candidates of Wall street and a fling at 4,000 Kansas school teachers were the features of Gov. Stubbs' message sent to the legislature today.

METAL TRADES ASSOCIATION AGREES TO 8-HOUR DAY

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—That an eight-hour day in the metal trades has been established on the Pacific coast, is the opinion today of local labor leaders as the result of the decision by the Metal Trades association last night to accept the award of the Industrial Conciliation board. The award calls for the maintenance of the eight-hour day until November 9, 1911, in San Francisco only.

GILL CANNOT ESCAPE THE RECALL

HANFORD'S INJUNCTION KILLED BY COURT OF APPEALS.

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
SEATTLE, Jan. 10.—With the decision late yesterday at Portland by Judge Gilbert of the United States court of appeals overruling Judge Hanford's injunction, the opponents of Mayor Hiram Gill are deep today in plans for the recall. As soon as Judge Gilbert announced his ruling, Corporation Counsel Cahill, who brought the appeal, wired Seattle. At night the council met and set the machinery in motion for the election on February 7 as previously agreed on. Geo. W. Dilling, ex-member of the legislature, a Polidexter insurgent, and a member of Senator Jones campaign two years ago, who was asked to run against Gill, announced that he was ready to make the race. Registration lively. Immediate preparations were made to swell the registration, and Wednesday of this week was designated as ladies' day at the registration booths. Some of the women have been backward about registering, and setting the one day aside for women is expected to bring out a record number. With the registration booths closed on January 28 it has necessitated that about 3,000 register every day to get a complete enrollment. The average has fallen but little short of this, the registration so far breaking all previous records.

'Ladies Scairs' In Oregon

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—"Ladies is scairs" in Oregon, writes one of the latest communicants with the city hall, who wants Mayor Gaynor to help him to open up a correspondence with a prospective wife. The letter follows: "Portland, Ore. 'Sir: Will you do me a kind favor, that is this I am 45 years old and want a good wife. Ladies is very scairs out here. Now if you No of a good Lady that wants a good Husband tell her to write to me if you please. 'H. HIGLEY."

TWO OFFICERS AND MAN SHOT IN DUEL

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—The authorities today are trying to solve a mystery involved in a battle between police and thugs last night in which two officers and an alleged footpad were shot. Policemen Held and Private Watchman Stewart fought a duel, with two men, one of whom the police believe is Charles Buckman, who, after being wounded, was captured. Both officers also were wounded. Buckman claims he was shot by two men, who ran when the officers approached.

17 DROWNED IN SIGHT OF LAND

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Jan. 10.—Seventeen men were drowned today when three barges belonging to the Philadelphia & Reading railroad were sunk near here. The barges were being conveyed by the tug Lukens. Life savers attempted to rescue the men, but failed. According to the lifesavers, there were seven men on the first barge and five each on the other. The men were drowned in sight of shore, after a lone battle to keep afloat. The life savers assert that they saw 17 men on the wrecked barges. The last man managed to remain afloat until after 10 o'clock. He was lashed to a spar on one of the barges. The spar was broken loose and the man swept into the water, sinking at once. Another man, who managed to cling to the deck, although the waves were washing over it, saw that the rescuers would not be able to reach him. He launched a dory and tried to row ashore. The heavy waves capsized his boat and he was drowned before he had pulled two boat lengths away from the barge.

DO YOU KNOW

That there were 882 men on the city payroll last month and they got an average of $79.82 each for the month?
That there are 547 Protestants and 313 Catholics in the penitentiary at Walla Walla?
That reports from all over the Northwest today show that the temperature has dropped from 10 to 40 degrees and that it is expected to go lower tomorrow?
That on an average every penny in circulation changes hands 11 times a week?

Engine Goes Through Open Draw Bridge

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 10.—Sliding along the rails made slippery by the heavy snow, a Great Northern engine drawing a long freight train, plunged through the open draw today. Engineer Baker stuck with the engine and made the 30 foot drop, getting free and swimming to safety. Fireman Farrell jumped before the plunge. The accident was witnessed by hundreds of people on their way to work and a miniature panic ensued as the big machine hung for a second over the end of the bridge and then broke from its couplings and dropped into the waters of False creek.

PAULHAMUS CALLED DOWN BY SPOKANE LEGISLATOR

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
OLYMPIA, Jan. 10.—After flitting away most of the morning session in a somewhat humorous discussion of Senator Huxtable's resolution to provide $5 in stamps to members of the legislature, a sudden bomb was thrown into the senate with the announcement of the committees by President Paulhamus. Metcalf of Pierce moved for the immediate adoption of the selections. Senator Hutchinson of Spokane objected to the treatment he had received. "I have been subjected to a gratuitous insult," he said. "I am the oldest member here and I am ignored shamefully. I did not expect it from you, Mr. Chairman. My record is clean, and it is only a personal matter." "I object to any senator using such personal language; it is not dignified," broke in Senator Collins. "I don't mind it," said Paulhamus.

You Wrote Parade of Ones '1-1-11' For First Time in Hundred Years

Busy persons inclined to abbreviation who found it necessary to write letters on New Year day discovered that, for the first time in their lives, they set down the date in a perfect procession of "ones." "1-1-11" was the combination, and it was the first chance in a century anyone had to write them. Of course, everybody thought of Napoleon I. who always had some sort of a letter to write every day in the week, and who must have written something on 1-1-11 100 years ago. It was discovered that a still more unusual combination with another "one" in the row, would be offered on the eleventh of this first month of 1911, when it may be inscribed "1-1-11." But the extreme will be reached Nov. 11, when it may be written "11-11-11."

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 10.—On Thursday all the cities of British Columbia will elect mayors and aldermen. Victoria city council, after a year of fighting among themselves, met last night in a veritable love feast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Stanley Dollar Steamship company, the Harold Dollar Steamship company, the M. S. Dollar Steamship company and Stanley & Co. are to combine as one company.
