

Modesto Is No Match For Tigers

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
MODESTO, Cal., April 3.—The Tigers literally ran away with the crack local team yesterday and the supposedly crooked twists of Mobley, the Modesto slab artist, they straightened into 11 hits and eight runs.

NORTHWEST BASEBALL

Dugdale is going to give his men all kinds of strenuous exercise this week. He has a couple of games booked with the Snohomish team and one with the Fort Worth soldiers, not to mention two or three regular-insurrecto skirmishes.

Already Dugdale has made himself solid with the harem skirt fans. The fat magnate says he is particularly desirous that the ladies become thoroughly acquainted with the new players, and every day will be "ladies' day" at Recreation park until the season opens.

Outfielder Dickinson, who is not quite fast enough for the Spokane Indians, will probably catch on with Eddie Householder at Victoria. Dick once ran Eddie a close race for batting honors in the California state league, and Eddie thinks quite kindly of the man Cohn says won't do.

Don't miss this: Joe Cohn has discovered a southpaw named Paul Strand, who is only 17 years old, yet he has Rube Gregg skinned by a city block, according to Cohn. Cohn springs more or less bunk, but at the same time, he has sent more real ball players to the big leagues than any two or three other clubs combined.

"Brick" Devereaux and "Buck" Franks have started another California outlaw league in the San Joaquin valley. Larry McLean, the old Portland catcher, who is now a star in Clark Griffith's firmament, says he won't wear shin guards any more because they interfere with his running the bases. Larry is having a pair of knee protectors made.

Roy Aiken, former Seattle third baseman is now playing third for the Los Angeles team in the Coast league. Already Dillon has discovered that Aiken is a good waiter, and has Roy at the head of the batting list.

Jimmy Wiggs, old Helena and Oakland pitcher, has all kinds of speed and form this year with the Chamblers. He fanned 14 of Charley Graham's senators in Sacramento the other day, and let them down with eight bingles.

There is said to be little chance of Terry McKune, who is claimed by Seattle, but sentenced to play in the Coast league one year more, catching in with Vernon this year. Hogan believes that Pitcher Hosp will make one of the classiest infielders in the business and will probably use the former twirler at one of the infield stations.

Right Fielder Teck, Pitcher Coleman and Utility Fleider H. L. Deal, who have been trying out with Los Angeles Coast league team, were released today.

The injury to Jimmy Byrnes' hand is healing nicely and if nothing further turns up in the shape of bad luck, Jimmy will be in shape for that first game, two weeks from tomorrow. Let's hope so, anyhow.

First Baseman Kading of the Dugdale crew does not believe in wrangling with the umpire. Very seldom he makes a protest, but when he does it carries weight. "When John Kading kicks on a decision," says an umpire in the Wisconsin league, "I wonder if I wasn't wrong."

SEASONABLE SPORTS

JAIL HORSES' CHAMBERMAID IS MR. JOHNSON CHAMPION SWIMMER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Jack Johnson's last hope of avoiding the 25 days' jail sentence dealt him by Judge Treadwell vanished here when the supreme court denied his petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The big prizefighter is still acting as chambermaid for the horses at the county jail and will continue to do so until his time is up.

SPORT CHIPS

The wrestling game, which, by the way, is said to be on the rise, stands for some awful lunk. Henry Ordemann, who pitched Doctor Roller on his head in Seattle, leaving him hors de combat for some time, is to wrestle Frank Gotch in San Francisco a week from tomorrow night. And just think of it, Ordemann found out all about Gotch's style when he stood the champion off in a handicap match, and is going to put Frank on his back—he says so himself. Gotch is a strong rival of Abie Atch in that "pluck them easy" game.

Langford pounded Sam McVey all over the ring in Paris, but all he could get was a draw. Harry Lewis saw the fight and says it was Langford all the way. But in Paris, where some sad things take place in the sporting line, McVey is a great idol.

It is said that George Hackenschmidt has mastered the toe hold which Frank Gotch invented, and which Gotch, by the way, worked so neatly on Hack when the men met in Chicago a couple of years ago. It is now up to the Lion to acquire Frank's little trick of constantly keeping an opponent off balance, but it is doubtful if he ever will.

Jim Corbett has the largest nose of any pugilist that ever stepped into the ring, but oh my, how hard it was to hit that nose of Jim's. Although he fought scores of battles, many of them championship affairs, it was Corbett's proud boast that he never had that beak broken, or even bloodied.

Pete McVeigh, the Seattle lightweight, has caught the eye of Jack O'Brien in the Quaker City. Pete trimmed a boy almost a middleweight the other night, and Jack says he will do nicely. Pete's opponent was one of those tall rangy chaps, and Pete couldn't reach his jaw without standing on a chair, so he just felt for the breakabout and soon had the tall one doubled in a knot.

Bugs Raymond, the erratic, is anxious to become as valuable a pitcher as Matty Mathewson, his teammate, and to be known as such, and Foxy McGraw, feeling that Raymond needs an incentive,

PARIS, April 3.—Like a nightmare in a motion picture reel reads the recent adventure of Cattaneo, champion swimmer of the world. After having been arrested for riding a bicycle through Paris streets clad only in bathing trunks, Cattaneo was placed in a special prison ward. He then demanded a swimming tank so that he could keep in condition. Several months ago Cattaneo fell and injured his head.
