

GO TO GERMANIA HALL THIS EVENING AND SEE FURTHER PROOF THAT PETE SANDBERG IS BOOSTING FOR SEYMOUR. HOW MAYOR FAWCETT

MANAGED TO SECURE A SECOND ELECTION IN THE FACE OF THE COMBINATION THAT FOUGHT HIM IS ALMOST BEYOND UNDERSTANDING. BUT

THOUSANDS OF FORMER SEYMOUR SUPPORTERS NOW REALIZE BEYOND THE SHADOW OF A DOUBT THAT THEY WERE MISLED.

The Tacoma Times

VOL. VIII. NO. 101.

The Only Independent Newspaper in Tacoma.

TACOMA, WASHINGTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1911.

The Only Independent Newspaper in Tacoma.

30 CENTS A MONTH.

The Perkins Press has cried its eyes out about the "penny paper" for to these many years. They have claimed that a good newspaper could not be put out for a cent. Mr. Perkins is now endeavoring to prove the truth of this assumption in the recently issued penny edition of the Ledger which appears on a mornin'.

Seymour people cannot but admit but that they are losing strength every hour. Five more days and Fawcett would be a three to one favorite over Mr. Seymour. A concerted and bull dog spirit on the part of the Fawcett adherents means a victory next Tuesday. The fact that Fawcett held Seymour to a second election in view of the combination against him, has the Seymour people wondering.

PETE SANDBERG, TRAFFICKER IN WHITE SLAVES, BOOSTS SEYMOUR

The church people who have intended voting for Mr. Seymour will doubtless be pained to learn the following facts. Mr. A. R. Titlow, who spoke at South Tacoma hall last night, displayed three papers. The first was dated March 30 and was a copy of the Puget Sound Posten with the name of Peter Sandberg prominently displayed as president of the company.

article which referred very pleasantly to Mr. Seymour and showed a picture of him. In this article a "dig" was taken at Mr. Fawcett. Mr. Titlow displayed this same paper several nights ago at Pacific Heights. Mr. Woods, campaign manager for Mr. Seymour, had admitted that he could not name a single saloon man in favor of Mr. Fawcett, but he said he believed Mr. Sandberg was.

6. This issue also had Mr. Sandberg's name displayed on the editorial page. BUT—The most recent issue, that of April 13, finds Mr. Sandberg's name MISSING. Mr. Titlow displayed this issue last night. But what does it say about Fawcett? Translation by Swedish people shows that Fawcett is roasted to a turn by the tenderloin king. One article says that Mr. Seymour will give the city a "sensible" administration. What does Pete Sandberg mean by a sensible administration? Pete Sandberg made thousands of dollars off unfortunate women. He for years operated the unspeakable dives on Fourteenth street. Sandberg made a fortune out of a traffic too vile almost for mention. And this same Pete Sandberg is boosting W. W. Seymour for mayor of Tacoma in his paper. If there be any man or woman who entertains doubt as to the facts as stated, go down to Germania hall this evening and satisfy yourself as to what Pete Sandberg's paper has to say in support of Mr. W. W. Seymour.

NOW WHO'LL BREAK UP POWER PLANT?

Mayor Fawcett finished the signing of the Nisqually power bonds this morning and they will be delivered today to the purchasers who bought them from Savage & Nichols.

It will encourage other cities along the same line. The candidacy of W. W. Seymour is being boomed by the Stone-Webster crowd and the people are beginning to get suspicious. With Seymour, a public service man as mayor, if two commissioners could then be put in who would stand by the interests the city could be put in a hole yet.

A. V. FAWCETT MUST MEET SOLID SALOON STRENGTH

Just a Few Saloons Which Are in Favor of Mr. Seymour and Against Mr. Fawcett.

The saloons of Tacoma are lined solid for Seymour. Figures from the precincts where the saloons control, at the election a week ago Tuesday, showed Seymour had received the saloon vote, but a few of the women voters still are blind to the fact.

It is the first time in the history of the city when all the saloons were arrayed against a candidate. Never before have they been united to the last man. But they are today. And they are for Seymour.

In this situation the very essence of Christian religion is at stake. For the church voters to join the saloons to kill the only mayor who ever has attacked the saloons means that the Christian religion in Tacoma will be given a black eye from which it will not recover for a generation.

U.S. About To Invade Mexico?

Orders Sent to Capt. Gaujot at Douglas to Interfere if Bullets Cross Boundary Line—Taft Thinks Situation Critical.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) DOUGLAS, Ariz., April 15.—Following a report at 9 o'clock today that a large body of Mexican federals, marching to attack Agua Prieta, was 12 miles southeast of that town and marching fast, Capt. Gaujot, U. S. A., blockaded the international line between Agua Prieta and Douglas. No one was allowed to pass in either direction.

MOORHEAD WILL BE TRIED MAY 8

Roy Moorhead pleaded not guilty to first degree murder charge in connection with the death of Mrs. Sadie Buchanan before Judge Chapman in the criminal department of the superior court today. The trial was set for May 18.

Seymour supporters leaning that way, Roy's retention in office might give the dive keepers a chance. At any rate Pete Sandberg seems to think so, judging from his boosting of Seymour.

AGED COUPLE ELOPES. LOS ANGELES, April 15.—Reversing the usual order of things the "children" of Joseph Johnson, 91, of Long Beach, today are searching for their father, who has disappeared, and for Mrs. C. E. Cottingham, 75, who also is missing.

FAWCETT DRAWS THE CROWDS

The largest political gathering seen in the South End for a long time listened to Fawcett speakers at South Tacoma hall last evening. The hall was packed and the growing Fawcett sentiment could easily be noted.

The Times sent a representative out this week to see every saloonkeeper in town. And not a single saloonkeeper was found for Fawcett; all are for Seymour.

Henry Moore, the negro saloonkeeper whose license was revoked at the instance of Mayor Fawcett because he kept open Sunday, is rampant for Seymour, and is keeping his place all ready to have his license renewed if Seymour is elected.

We'll fix Fawcett, the old bartender at Monty's place, 111 Eleventh street. The Times man never in the same length of time heard quite such volumes of blasphemous denunciation as poured into his ears concerning Fawcett by the saloonkeepers he called on and engaged in conversation as regards the election.

The "Annex," 207 South Eleventh street; "Apex," 720 Pacific; "Board of Trade," 1328 Pacific; "Branch," 819 Pacific; "Brenden," 1302 C street; City Liquor store, 2401 Pacific; "Congress," 734 Pacific; "Drum's winery," 1306 C street; "East End," 302 Puyallup avenue; "Horse Shoe bar," 807 Pacific; "Golden Gate," 1407 Pacific; "Mint," 1126 Pacific; "Monty's Place," 111 11th st.; "Peerless," 1019 Pacific; "Pioneer," at Old Town; "Raymond," 2323 Pacific; "Senate," 739 Commerce; "Tonic," 1110 South 11th st.; "Red Front," 5444 Union ave.; Tacoma hotel; Olympian hotel; Donnelly hotel; Tourist hotel; "Hillside," 523 South Ninth; "Tacoma," 939 Tacoma ave.; "Keystone," 113 South 12th.

Every saloon in the city could be printed in this list to make it complete, for not one did the Times find espousing Fawcett.

Such unanimity on the part of the saloons for Seymour must mean something. To the saloons it means that they want protection from the prosecutions of A. V. Fawcett. They want that anti-treating ordinance ignored.

Mayor Fawcett has revoked the licenses of several saloons that violated the law. He tried to do it in at least one case where the other commissioners would not stand with him. He has given notice that the saloons must obey all the laws or quit.

And the saloons are lined up solid for Seymour. What does all this mean to the moral voter? In every battle of the past where the church vote lined up with the saloon vote the church vote has been uncoordinated. And it was always done exactly the same way—by having a "nice man" for a candidate.

Seymour admits he is opposed to the anti-treating ordinance and voted against it. The moral voters know by dear experience, too, that it is useless to expect law enforcement against the saloons when the public officials are opposed to the law. They never get it. And the "nice" man the least effective he has generally been in office on those questions. Public office is not a pink tea affair, but a battle from start to finish. Every vice element is on the alert, and the public official whose whole heart is not in the work cannot be expected to make any headway against the corrupt elements.

Many of the women of the churches really thought that Fawcett had some secret alliance with the saloons, but the vote showed this was not true. And now the word of the saloons themselves shows it.

The issue is clear. It is a fight of the saloons against Mayor Fawcett. The saloonkeepers themselves declare it. And they are for Seymour.

Now will the church vote line up with them to try to defeat the only mayor the city ever had who dared to come out and take a stand against the saloon?

And its power with the masses would be tremendously handicapped.

The church cannot afford to have this situation come about. And the leaders are recognizing it.

Three prominent ministers called upon Mayor Fawcett yesterday to tell him they have seen the light and will hereafter support him in this campaign. There are reports of many church workers deserting the Seymour standard with its vice allies, and by next Tuesday it is believed the church vote will have been turned so that it may never be said that the saloon and church worked together in Tacoma.

Go to the Germania hall meeting tonight and witness further proof that Pete Sandberg, the dive king, is boosting Seymour in his paper.

WATCH OUT FOR THE TERRIBLE TALES!

Baron Munchausen tales have grown tall in Tacoma since the Seymour organs began the grist of fairy tales about Fawcett. But bigger ones are said to be incubating for Sunday and Monday and Tuesday morning.

"There has not been so much political lying in Tacoma since Mayor Campbell was hounded out of office by the Perkins crowd," said a citizen today.

But now some real hair-raising yarns are looked for. If they do not have Fawcett charged with being the head of the train robber syndicate it will be queer. And watch for the fine interviews from big business men who will leave Tacoma if Fawcett is elected!

And many shops will probably close for good and all the men will be thrown out of work!

And tears will be shed over the poor union laboring man—the same who did not get a chance to help build the Perkins block because it was a scab job and was put up at out wages with men working 10 hours a day. But tears for the union man, for Sammy loves him so.

When one contemplates all these dire things that Fawcett is supposed to have done and he plotting to do it is a marvel that Tacoma has been able to keep from sliding right into the bay from sheer crookedness and inability to lay straight.

How Did We Get 'Em. And how did it ever happen anyway, that we got that five cent fare, those big bridges, that municipal dock, the transfer stations, traction line, the comfort stations, those new bridges on Eleventh street work started on the power plant and gravity systems, the anti-treating ordinance and various other things?

Affidavits showing unfriendliness of Seymour to union labor have been read in public. They are common property. Doubtless no end of affidavits will be brought against Fawcett as regards everything under the sun.

Fawcett Rally. A great Fawcett rally will be held this evening at Germania hall, Thirteenth and E streets. An invitation was extended the Seymour speakers to be present and debate but they have not officially accepted. A. R. Titlow, J. G. Langford, Mrs. H. H. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston of Fern Hill will speak.

At press time this was the only Fawcett meeting that had been scheduled for tonight.

Committeeman of Labor Council Speaks

Editor Times: As a member of the committee of seven from the Central Labor Council appointed to look about and confer with other organizations as to who would be a good man for mayor I wish to make the following statement: "To my knowledge the committee as a whole did not invite Mr. Seymour to their meeting. To this day I don't know who gave him an invitation to attend or how he knew this committee had been appointed or why he came to be present at the first meeting. About the third gentleman who came as the meeting was assembling I noticed Mr. Seymour and was considerably surprised. As one of the committee I don't believe Mr. Seymour was seriously considered though he attended every meeting that the committee held that I was present at.

Puget Sound Posten.

Swedish Weekly Newspaper Published every Thursday in Tacoma, Wash., in the interest of the Swedish population of the Northwest, by THE PUGET SOUND PRINTING CO. Peter Sandberg, President T. Sandegren, Secretary

Foregoing was to be found at the top of the Puget Sound Posten of March 30. This issue contained a picture of Mr. Seymour and an article which referred pleasantly to him. A strong letter of commendation was given prominent space. A. R. Titlow showed this paper at Pacific Heights. He sarcastically advised that Mr. Sandberg do something to cover up the fact that he was for Seymour. The issue of April 6 also had Mr. Sandberg's name at the top of the editorial page. But the issue of April 13 finds Mr. Sandberg's name gone. Heavy attack is made upon Fawcett, and the Sandberg paper tells that Mr. Seymour will give a "business-like" administration.

Sandberg has for years been known as "King of the Tenderloin."

Stanford Wins

(By United Press Leased Wire.) OAKLAND, Cal., April 15.—The Stanford freshmen crew, pulling easily and fresh as at the start, won the three mile race this morning by one length from the "baby" crew of the University of California. The time was 16 minutes flat. At the finish the Cardinal crew was a length ahead and going away fast. They took the lead at the start and always kept the California rowers safely behind.

Two Elections Probable

All the 16 candidates against the commissioners have filed their acceptance and will make the race for councilmen May 2. From present indications it looks like two elections will be a certainty to settle the question of councilmen.

HOW WILL IT WORK OUT?

Informal expression of railroad men that they favored a restricted district is causing considerable comment in view of the fact that they are supporting Seymour. Mr. Seymour expressed himself as in favor of a restricted district and stated that he thought the city could better take care of such an institution.

With Commissioner Ruy in favor of such a district and strong

Former Sweetheart Marries Girl Who Lived With Murderer Walter

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, April 15.—Winning happiness through the steadfast love of a girlhood sweetheart, Katie Mueller, who lived with Albert Walter when he killed and dismembered sixteen-year-old Ruth Wheeler in his flat here a year ago, is today the wife of Oscar Lauterbach and her days of trouble, he says, are done.

appeal from conviction for the Wheeler murder, Miss Mueller and their child are safe under Lauterbach's protection. "Katie is a good girl," said Lauterbach after he had been married by the Rev. Koepfchen, "and now she will have a good home. I have to work hard for a living, but I am glad to share it with her and the baby. Katie Mueller had her troubles. Katie Lauterbach will have none."
