Gregg and Krapp Win from Browns

sat in the grandstand yesterday and watched the Naps trim the Browns in a double header, and in the meantime the Cardinals dropped one in a double-header to their old rivals, the Cincy Reds. After losing the first, the Bresnahan boys pulled themselves together and took the second by a score of 2 to 1. They lost the first by a score of 5 to 1.

COAST STARS WIN

George Stovall has to thank two of his Pacific Coast recruits for his wins over the Browns yesterday. In the first game Vean Gregg was in the box and held his opponents to four hits and no runs. Gene Krapp, his old teammate on the Portland team last year, officiated in the second and allowed but two scratch hits, but as four errors were made by his teammates, one runner crossed the plate. Gene Fisher, his old battery partner on the Portland team, did the receiving.

Bobby Keefe pitched another one of his nice games against the Cardinals, but as Golden, the Cardinal star, was pitching just a little better, Bobby lost. The former Tiger held his opponents to six hits and 2 runs, and its no particular disgrace to lose a 2 to 1 game. About the only way an opposing pitcher can win from Bob is to administer a shut-out, or to win a one or two run game, and Golden, evidently, had it figured out about that way yesterday. But even that system doesn't always bring home the bacon, for every once in a while Bobby gets it into his head to do the goose-egg stunt himself. Every game Keefe has pitched this year he has held his opponents, win or lose, to low scores in the dumps today. They scores.

Coley's Parents Hear Plaudits of the Fans

CURTIS COLEMAN.

Curtis Coleman is particularly fond of his aged parents, and cares more for their good opinions than for the combined plaudits of all the hero-worshipping fans that could be packed in all the grandstands in the circuit. So no king that his father and mother were in the grandstand at Portland yesterday watching his every move, Curtis didn't overlook any bats.

The first time at bat he whacked out a nice one that was good for a base, and the next trip he stepped into a three-bagger. Then the bleacherites sat up and took notice, and the lady-bugs discovered a new hero—and father and mother were proud of their son that could call forth such thunderous applause. But Curtis, who is anything but half-hearted, never does things by halves. The next time up he swatted out a homer, with Johnny Bassey on the paths. Talk about your noisy applause. What the bugs did for Coleman hasn't been heard in the Portland park for many a day. The bleacherites tagged Curtis for the big leagues, then and there, and the sweet baseball girls were bemoaning the fact that they had discovered their new idol on the last day of the team's stay.

But bugs and lady-bugs all looked alike to Coleman, who thanked his lucky stars he had been able to do so nicely, with his father and mother in the grandstand.

Holland Wants Go With Klaus

FRANK KLAUS.

It will be Holland and not Klaus, who will get the crack at the Thunderbolt. Holland fought around Spokane, Wash., last year and cleaned up most of the middles in the north. Tomorrow night he is booked for his first important scrap, a go with Rafe Williams, the dusky scrap-artist, and if he emerges with flying colors, as the fans believe he will, he will be given a crack at Klaus. Rufe Turner, who fought around Seattle, seven or eight years ago, is also carded to go against Johnny McCarthy as an adjunct to the Holland-Williams mill.

The World Does Move

For many years, science has been compelled to depend upon peroxide of hydrogen, even though it is a weak antiseptic and will keep but a very short time. But the world moves and since the discovery of Benetol, the remarkable germ killing chemical discovered at the University of Minnesota, peroxide and all similar preparations are being laid on the shelf for good and all by surgeons and physicians. Benetol has a hundred more uses than peroxide and poisonous antiseptic, and is so permanent that in a hundred years it would be as potent as when first bottled. Benetol is much cheaper than peroxide and should be close at hand for every emergency. Benetol is saving lives every day. Trial bottles free at Bonney Pharmacy, 9th and Pacific ave., Tacoma, Wash.
