HERE'S FIRST PICTURE OF NEXT CHRISTMAS' NEWEST TOYS

BERLIN, July 11.—The toy-makers of Germany are hard at work on the toys that will warm the hearts of the children of the world next Christmas. Your correspondent is able to send you today photographs of the latest novelty—lifelike dolls that the youngsters of your city will see in the shop windows in December. These playthings are the scientific creation of a Berlin genius. The dolls can walk, run, change the expression of their faces, move all parts of their bodies, are life size and do almost everything real boys and girls can do. They can even laugh and cry.

After-Supper Talks

With Cynthia Grey

THERE IS LACK OF COMPANIONSHIP IN THIS HOME, BUT WHO IS AT FAULT—WIFE OR HUSBAND.

Dear Miss Grey: I am a neat housekeeper, a good cook and do all my own sewing. I am naturally very saving. My husband gives me most of his money, but he never takes me out anywhere. He always goes alone. I have heard of him taking other women to shows. When he is at home he spends his time reading cheap novels. He tells me he loves me, but he never buys me anything, not even the simplest article. We have been married six years, but he is no companion for me and I am lonely. What do you think of such a man?

MARY. A.: If your husband gives you most of his money, how can he buy presents? Perhaps he considers that he is doing well by you to give you his earnings—many a man does, and not the worst men in the world either. I grant that you have many virtues, and that your husband is blessed with a thrifty wife. But thrift is not all that is necessary in order to be a good wife. The fact that you have heard that he takes other women to shows indicates that you have been discussing your husband with others—which is a despicable thing to do, so long as you are living with him and he is supporting you. And I'm afraid you are a complainer, a dissatisfied, discontented woman. Most men would rather live with a woman who is slack in housekeeping affairs than a "splinter-in-the-fingernail sort of woman." Nagging, which means constant fault-finding, is the cause of more unhappiness in wedded life than anything else, and is very often the real cause for divorce.

If this is true about you, the sooner that you quit it the better, for your own happiness. And if you change your tactics, your husband may soon change his. Don't bother him about going out with you. Just go ahead, have a happy time, come home and tell him all about it, and I'll warrant he'll soon be wanting to go with you. Remember that no human being is perfect, and cease looking for perfection in man.

SHE DECREES SIMPLE LIFE FOR HER BABIES

MRS. SIMON GUGGENHEIM. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—The wife of Senator Simon Guggenheim, one of the multi-millionaire smelter kings of Colorado, believes in the simple life for children. Her boys never had elaborate automobiles, airships and such expensive toys. Like the babies of the poorer parents, they receive blocks, trains and dolls. Another idea of simple life manifests itself in the fact that the little Guggenheim youngsters have three well cooked—but no fancy foods—meals a day, and no "piecing" between meals. Also they and candy are very distant strangers except on special occasions.

LITTLE TOKEN FOR MOTHER. BLUE RIDGE, Ga., July 11.—John Withrow, hanged here for wife murder, left as a gift to his mother a photograph he had taken of himself as he stood on the gallows with the black cap and noose adjusted. He dictated a long statement, confessing his crime and blaming his downfall to drink.

Cynthia Grey's Letters

Dear Miss Grey: (7) What will cure hives? (2) I am 16 and very fond of singing, but my lungs are weak and my tonsils hinder me. Will it affect my voice to have them removed? (3) Where shall I go for information about drawing and painting? I am very much interested in it. (4) What is the name of the best violin? And where can I get good violin E strings? BLONDY.

A.: (1) Keep the blood cool and the bowels open. Eat fresh fruits and green vegetables and abjure meats during the hot weather. An efficient remedy and an old-fashioned one is a solution of common baking soda and water. Dissolve a half cupful of the soda in a basin of water and bathe the spots with this several times a day. (2) Voice culture is supposed to be very beneficial to the throat and lungs. Consult the best physicians you know. (3) To a well known teacher of these arts. If your lungs are not strong, why bend over a drawing board? It would be sure to be harmful. (4) Consult a reliable dealer in musical instruments.

Dear Miss Grey: I have blue eyes and light brown hair, but a muddied complexion. Can I wear "Helen" pink? A.: Not unless you have a white yoke next your face.

Dear Miss Grey: What will cure a cold sore? MRS. A. B. A.: Try applications of camphor ice or peroxide of hydrogen.

Dear Miss Grey: (1) Is it right for girls of 14 to let boys from other towns come to their homes in the afternoon? (2) Is it proper for a girl to give members of her class graduation presents? (3) Is it right for girls of 14 and 13 to play kissing games at parties. HAZEL AND GRACE.

A.:—(1) If mother doesn't object. (2) It is. (3) No.

Dear Miss Grey: (1) I expect a young man friend to visit in my town some time this summer. Should I meet him at the station? (2) We never received presents from him, but I should like to give him something on his birthday. Would it be proper? (3) What refreshments should I serve for luncheon? M. P.

A.: (1) Not unless your father or your brother accompanies you. (2) By no means. (3) If for Sunday evening tea, cold meats, rolls, coffee or iced tea and dessert.

Dear Miss Grey: What will remove the marks of an indelible pencil from white goods? CONCERNED.

A.: Try vasoline, wash in soapy water, and rinse as usual. If this does not do it, try washing in kerosene, gasoline or alcohol.

WARE WHAT YOU TELL YOUR LADY-LOVE

Justice Seabury, of the New York supreme court, is "dead set again" young men who speak in glowing terms of salaries they earn, mansions they will furnish and automobiles they will drive "after we are married, dear." He says that a girl has the right to marry and morally—to send back the engagement ring if she finds out—before it's too late—that the young man was only building air castles, and that they'll have to live with the folks a while after the wedding, and that he's only making eight per cent, and that the walking will be good for some time after the nuptial knot is tied. Also she may turn him down at the very steps of the church if she learns that he isn't possessed of the irreproachable character he painted in such vivid language.

Will Play Stellar Role in Next Big $$$ Wedding Scene

MISS MARGARET RUTHERFORD.

Daughter of Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, sr., and who will marry Ogden Mills, jr., in Paris this fall. Last year it was rumored that Miss Rutherford was engaged to Kermit Roosevelt.

In the Public Eye

JOHN W. GATES.

The millionaire American speculator, John W. Gates, lies at the point of death in Paris. Recently he was operated on by Dr. Boyen, one of the most famous of the world's surgeons, for the removal of a tumor that was situated in his throat. Then disregarding the advice of his physician, Gates made a hurried trip to London to put through a deal with Lord Cowdray for the Pearson interests in Mexico. His recovery is hardly hoped for now, and it is possible that death may overtake him before his son Charles, now in mid-Atlantic, can reach his bedside.

FROM WHICH STANDPOINT DO YOU VIEW LIFE?

The Storm Child ran screaming into the house, "Oh, mamma, she sobbed, "our rose bush has thorns on it." And while mamma was comforting her, the Sunshine Child burst into the room. "Oh, mamma, mamma," she cried, "look, out in the yard. Our thorn bush is all covered with roses." Mamma smiled, but her eyes were sad. For she knew it would be so all through life.

FASHIONS

Many French handkerchiefs are embroidered in delicate colors. Both high and low neckwear is being shown in the new styles.

Rosettes in novel shapes are fashioned of straw with centers of silk.

Many skirts show tunics that are buttoned over at one side under rows of buttons.

Waistcoats or vests, some with, some without, revers, are seen in many of the new coats. For tailored suits a novel material is "aero raye." It is not so heavy as chevots or serges and comes in most attractive colorings.

Socialists to Picnic.

The socialist party will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Spanaway. They'll have a woman speaker, Mrs. Kate Sadler of Bremerton to give the oration of the day. An attempt was made to get Eugene V. Debs, but he was not available.

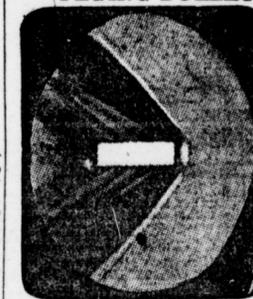

Between the serious things of the day there will be dancing and games.

A SUMMER NIGHT HINT.

When the summer days are blistering hot, and comfort in sleep is discovered not, don't sit up and blame the weatherman; but follow this cool sprinkling plan:

When getting ready for bed, annex a basin of water and one whisk broom. Carefully sprinkle the top sheet, just as you would do it for ironing, then get right into the bed between the sheets. In this way you will get delightfully cool, and should be able to get to sleep in a few minutes.

EVER SEE A FLYING BULLET?

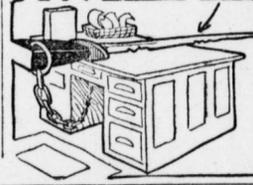

Here's one. The above is a stereopticon photograph taken with a fast telescopic lens and shows the air waves produced by the swift progress of the bullet. The white space behind the nose of the bullet is the vacuum caused by the solid missile.

WHERE IT WAS

As Told by Sophy, the Nursemaid. Last night the boss sed soft like to the shoffer so nobody cudent here, my little stenographer with the fluffy blond hair lost her paper cutter today she tho. see she is a peech. I told her that her paper cutter was so close that if it was a man an saw them pretty eyes a lookin so near she would get kiss an she sed you fat old raskal I believe you are a flirt an all the time rite where it shud be is

WISCONSIN TO TRY STATE INSURANCE

MADISON, Wis., July 11.—The signing of the Wisconsin life insurance bill by Governor McGovern commits Wisconsin to state insurance. Beginning in 1913 the state will conduct a life and annuity insurance business on its own hook. The bill provides for the establishment of an insurance department under the management of the state insurance commissioner, to be conducted along the lines of the ordinary mutual insurance corporation. Annuities are to range from $100 to $300 and life policies from $500 to $3,000. The business will be done through the insurance commissioner's office. There will be no paid agents. The aim is to give insurance at lowest possible rate.

Daily Meetings

Rev. F. E. Marsh of Sunderland, England, will open a series of meetings tonight before the Christian and Missionary alliance at South Thirteenth and L. After today he will speak every afternoon and evening up through Sunday.

WANTED THE POLICE TO BRING HUBBY HOME

A Mrs. Anderson called up police headquarters last night and wanted the whole department to be sent out in search of her husband who had not returned to his home up to a late hour. She was told that she would have to swear out a warrant and she said she would, but as she did not come down this morning it is supposed that hubby arrived home somewhere between midnight and dawn.

Why Actresses Never Grow Old

Nothing concerning the profession seems more puzzling to the dear old public than the perpetual youth of our feminine members. How often we hear remarks like, "Why, I saw her as Juliet forty years ago and she doesn't look a year older now!" Of course allowance is made for makeup, but when they see us off the stage at close range, they need another explanation.

How strange women generally haven't learned the secret of keeping the face young. How simple a matter to get an ounce of mercialized wax at the drug store, apply it like cold cream, and in the morning wash it off! We know how this gradually, imperceptibly absorbs old cuticle, keeping the complexion new and fresh, free from fine lines, sallowness or over-redness. We know, too, that this mercialized wax is the reason actresses don't wear moth patches, liver spots, pimples and the like. Why don't our sisters on the other side of the footlights learn the reason, and profit by it? Advt.
