

BEGIN TASK OF PREPARING FOR M'NAMARA TRIAL

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, July 15.—Now that the McNamara case is actually set for trial the attorneys for the defense of the accused men today settled down to earnest work in preparation for the legal battle. They say that to get the case ready for October 10 will require the hardest and most persistent endeavor. Not only will the 5,000 pages of the transcript of evidence have to be gone through and classified, but trips will have to be made all over the country, to Chicago, to Indiana, to San Francisco and to many other points where different phases of the case leads, and many witnesses summoned. It is anticipated that the selection of the jury will take fully a month. It required that length of time in the Haywood trial and Attorney Darrow states that the McNamara case is probably better known among the people than the famous Idaho case.

Sen. Lea in Another Fight To Save His Wife's Life

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15.—Having saved his wife's life recently through the transfusion of his own blood into her veins, United States Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee today is racing westward against death which now threatens Mrs. Lea from pneumonia.

Soon after Lea and his wife were discharged from the hospital here as convalescent they went to Deer Park, Md., to recuperate. While there pneumonia attacked Mrs. Lea, and a physician told the senator the only way to save his wife's life was to get her to a dry climate.

Other Rich New York Men Involved With Girls

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, July 15.—Charges that a combination of city and private detectives who were paid by rich New Yorkers, "double crossed" their clients were made openly here today by lawyers for Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, the two girls held for the alleged attempted murder of Millionaire W. E. D. Stokes, their aged admirer.

Saves Two Lives. "Neither my sister nor myself might be living today if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough—all bronchial troubles—It's supreme. Trial bottle free, 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Ryner Malstrom Drug Co., 938 Pacific ave.

Half a score of rich New Yorkers, the attorneys said, had been involved with the girls, and when Stokes was shot in their apartments, both girls had bundles of torrid letters from them as well as a bundle from Stokes. All of these letters were stolen from the Graham girl's trunk. The thief, they say, was paid by a combination of the girls' admirers who feared an explosion would ensue because of the publicity of their attempt on Stokes.

GREAT RACE TO THE WHITE HOUSE—ELEPHANT OR DONK?

NEW YORK, July 15.—The elephant and the donkey—just as you know them in the daily political cartoons—are on their way from Coney island to the white house at Washington, D. C. The race is a go-as-you-please, trot, run, walk, balk or gallop. The course is 275 miles long. It crosses New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and

Maryland into the District of Columbia and right up to the white house steps. The big, gray elephant and the dapper yellow donkey carry big oilcloth side panels on which, in red letters, appear this stirring device: "1912—to the White House or Bust." The race is the result of a bet made three months ago by Joe Cannon and Frederic Thompson of Luna park, following a discussion as to the trustworthiness, speed and general character of the elephant and the donkey. Fred Thompson stood out stoutly in favor of the donkey. Cannon backed the good old republican elephant. Thompson bet "Uncle Joe" the finest, fattest, thickest, most fragrant cigar obtainable on the result of the race.

Woman Gets 24 Days In Jail

Women who insist on being bad are beginning to learn that the present police administration means business when it orders them to leave town.

One May Smith was brought in the other day. Chief Fraser yesterday morning let her go to leave town. Before night she was settling down again in the city and the police brought her back. She made a howl about not being given a chance to get away and the chief told her to go. She started but before midnight Archie Mondeau found her again with no indication of leaving and now she will do 24 days' time behind the bars.

Temperature 89 Yesterday

"Ain't it boss," said the cornstark yesterday as it cracked and stretched and grew four inches under the smile of Old Sol. "Just fine," chuckled the tomato vine, as it stuck a yellow blossom up top for a flag in celebration of the fine climate.

"Say, dad told me I'd freeze to death and never do any good if I came out here," drolled the pumpkin. "I'm going to write back east and tell my cousin, young watermelon, to come on out; that he'll do all right."

In company with one of them, who gave his name as Grant Allan of Boston, Garnass was taking in the sights of Berlin under the glare of arc lights when the trick was turned.
