Won't Raid Blind Pigs

An erroneous statement that there was to be a raid on blind pigs Saturday has stirred up the keepers of the places. License Inspector Shortes says he is simply investigating now, and he will make no raid until he gets everything ready and knows just what he is doing. Many of the blind pig places have now closed up since he came on the job.

May Sell Power

With Tacoma installing a $2,000,000 water plant and a $2,000,000 power plant, Commissioner Freeland believes the city should sell the surplus to small towns around Tacoma. Puyallup, Buckley, Enumclaw and Parkland would probably be glad to get water and light from Tacoma and pay in a couple of thousand dollars a month for it.

TELEGRAPH TABLOIDS

SAN FRANCISCO—Two dusky queens looked so good to two members of the crew of the wrecked bark Puritan that they refused to leave Tahiti with their shipmates.

SALEM, Ore.—Because the price of hops went past the 25 cent mark, Governor West today stands pledged to pay the cost of the honeymoon of two of his young friends whom he made a wager with.

MILWAUKEE—The health department, following tests, reported the best ice cream in Milwaukee contained 1,753,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter. One sample showed more germs than ice cream, the health officers say.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio—A. R. Howell, 65, arose from a sick bed, bought his coffin, named his pall bearers and selected the text of his funeral sermon; then went back to bed and died a few hours later.

ST. PAUL—Minnie Madden Fliske, the actress, complained to the authorities here of the cruelty of Frank Penes, an armless shooter, in killing quantities of clay pigeons.

PHILADELPHIA—Without work for months Harry Fisher and Walter Davis sold their bodies to the University of Pennsylvania for future delivery for $50 each. "Now for a square meal," said Davis.

STAMFORD, Conn.—Holding a mad dog in her lap as it frantically tried to bite her, Miss Laura Smith drove a mile in her automobile to a veterinarian. The animal was shot.

NEW YORK—In court for being intoxicated and making his auto stagger because he couldn't see straight, Wallis F. Freed, a broker, offered to prove that four highballs would not faze him and was discharged.

VOTER IS SORE

"You are getting in bad, bad, bad; look out! look out! look out!" wrote an anonymous contributor to the mail of Commissioner Weeks this morning. The fellow said he had voted for Weeks and then had not been given any job.

Collier's pictures a mermaid with a baby. Doggone! I have got to go to censoring Collier's?

There will be ladies' swimming races at the Nerides Baths tonight. Cash prizes given every one. Come and bring your pal. Pt. Defiance.

Rays From a Fan's Diamond Blinds Umpire--Stops the Game

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 18.—The scintillations of a huge diamond dazzled Umpire Hildebrand during the ninth inning of the Los Angeles-Portland game yesterday afternoon. The sparkler was worn by "Doc" Anderson, one of the best known fans in Portland, who sat directly behind the plate and in line with Hildebrand, standing behind the pitcher. A ray of sunlight struck the diamond and so blinded Hildebrand that he could not judge the throws. Finally he stopped the game, walked into the grandstand and told Anderson to button his coat over the headlight. Then the game was resumed.

Will Try to Save Young

Arrangements were completed for the new public meals commission yesterday afternoon. At least 10 of men and women will be named by the commissioner of safety and mayor. Mrs. J. Q. Mason urged Commissioner Pettitt's plan of having every school house turned into a neighborhood clubhouse. Secretary Lister of the school board, however, rather gave this a black eye by declaring the law prohibited this.

IRISH CONCERT

Irish songs and Irish dances, Irish talks and Irish laughter filled Fraternal hall last night at a celebration held by the Gaelic League. Father Michael Flanagan did the oratory, urging every Irishman to teach his children the Irish language. Miss T. Schilling, Miss Stella Harrington, Floman McCullum sang, T. Hogan, Bridget O. Quinn, M. Burke jiggled and Miss Helen Noon gave a piano solo. Father Flanagan is also boosting Irish industry, and has a lace-making booth at the Peoples store this week.

City Briefs

One hundred odd members of the Tacoma German Singing society, headed by the Tacoma Military band, went to Seattle yesterday to attend the North Pacific Saengerfest.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union yesterday sent a communication to the commission protesting against the use of tobacco at the Stadium.

City Electrician Collins says most of the main lines in the city will have to be reconstructed next year when the city begins using power from its new substation, and he figures it will cost $100,000. He is preparing plans and estimates now. The money will be taken out of the receipts.

LOOK FOR CITY FARM

This afternoon the city commission will look at a big farm of 100 acres south of town with a view to securing it for the new city farm for prisoners.

Europe has 465,451 schools, 45,500,000 pupils and 1,119,413 teachers.
