

Destroyers Missing

NORFOLK, Oct. 25.—The torpedo boat destroyer Reed and the tug Potomac are searching today for the destroyers Barney, Craven, McDonough and Wiles, which have not been heard from since they left Charleston, S. C., bound for Norfolk, several days ago.

More Depositors Are Foreigners

A report made yesterday by Postmaster Frank L. Stocking shows that 56 per cent of the depositors in the postal savings bank, recently opened in Tacoma, were foreigners. The amount of money, however, deposited by the 44 per cent Americans is much more than the others. The daily average of the bank totals about $2,000.

Gov. West to Be Running Mate

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Gov. Oswald West of Oregon is to be Woodrow Wilson's running mate in the presidential campaign, predicts Senator Gore of Oklahoma, here today. Gore said that all but seven of twenty states visited by him were strong for Wilson; Harmon is favorite in three, and Champ Clark in four.

More for Your Money Than You Ever Got Before in Shoes

BIGGEST SENSATION IN MANY A DAY

A $15,000 Special Purchase of Shoes To Be Sold at Makers Cost or Less

Never in the history of the shoe business have so many shoes been thrown out on the market, never have manufacturers had so hard a time to dispose of their surplus stocks, and it has been our good fortune to make a special purchase involving a stock of shoes of nearly $15,000 and at such a price that we will be enabled to sell them to you in many cases at

Actually Less Than What It Cost the Manufacturer to Make Them

Let this sink deeply into your mind. $15,000 worth of shoes, and as you have noted by gazing at the seven big windows for the past few days it is a stock composed entirely of high grade and thoroughly reliable shoes for men, women and children. Every pair is the highest of its particular class, every pair is new in design and style, and when you buy them at the prices they are now quoted at you will get them for

Practically One-Half What You Must Ordinarily Pay for the Same Grade of Shoes In Any Good Shoe Store

We want to impress upon your mind particularly that these are shoes of QUALITY, not the ordinary "sale" kind, but shoes made of real leather, direct from manufacturers who have a standing in the shoe world, and back of every transaction, back of every pair, stands the People's Store.

We intend to make this the biggest of its kind ever held in the Northwest, every sale will spell satisfaction. We ask you again to note the seven big windows which can reflect only a portion of this gigantic stock.

We mention a few items only, dozens of others of equal merit will be found in the Shoe Section in the basement. Plenty of extra salespeople to wait on you. Sale starts at 9 a. m.

Rev. Calvin Stewart, former president of Whitworth college, died yesterday, after a brief illness, at his home, 4305 No. 42nd st. He was in his 82nd year. Mrs. Vivian Herron, 1409 So. Adams, died yesterday at one of the hospitals. The funeral was held this afternoon from the Hoska-Buckley-King parlors.

DETECTIVE EXONERATED.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SEATTLE, Oct. 25.—City Detective Joe Bianchi, who Friday killed Frank Harris on the street in broad daylight when Harris refused to halt, was justified in the killing, according to the coroner's jury. Harris was suspected of trying to sell stolen goods. Bianchi shot a man last fall.

MOVING PICTURES FOR McNAMARAS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—The American Federation of Labor, in a statement issued here today, declares the project of exhibiting moving pictures to provide funds for the McNamara defense is "humiliating but necessary." Discussing the project, President Gompers said today: "Our purpose in sanctioning the exhibition is twofold—to give the people a fair object lesson and to supply funds for the defense of the McNamaras."

CHASE BALLOONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Young America was on the quiver yesterday afternoon for the balloon ascent from the Y. M. C. A. when two hot air bags went up, each bearing a free ticket of membership. As the balloons soared over the sky the juveniles howled and ran below. Charles Richmond climbed to the roof of a house at South Eighth and G and got one ticket where it had stuck and Willford Lapenopiere jumped down a 10 foot embankment and got the second in a lot at D and Ninth. Every day this week at 4 o'clock free tickets will be sent up. Another big bunch of applications for membership came in yesterday.

WEDS MAN 4 DAYS BEFORE HIS DEATH

ALAMEDA, Cal., Oct. 25.—Marrying Frederick L. Erickson, a prominent railroad building contractor, four days before his death, Mrs. Marie Wilson must battle for his estate today. J. M. Moffett, a San Francisco attorney representing the firm of Peter & Erickson, of which F. L. Erickson was a member, has issued funeral notices in which the name of the death-bed bride is omitted.

METHODISTS HOLD REVIVAL MEETINGS

Local Methodists are in the midst of revival services this week. Rev. C. B. Allen of Colorado is speaking to large audiences at First church. At Epworth church Rev. Mr. Randolph, the pastor, is conducting meetings assisted by local speakers, and Rev. C. B. Dewey of Portland is conducting meetings at the McKinley Park Free Methodist church.

HAVE ORDINANCE READY IN 2 WEEKS

Mayor Seymour told the Central Improvement league last night that he would have a weights and measures ordinance ready to introduce in two weeks. He has been working on the proposition now four months. Many conferences have been held with various interests, and, after all, it looks as if the Spokane ordinance would practically be adopted.

Saved His Mother's Life "Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La. "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good. I will always praise them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health, strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c at Ryner Malstrom Drug Co., 928 Pacific av.
