

JAPANESE SEEK HEAVY DAMAGE

Charging that they were arrested on a false charge, I. Okagaki and K. Sota yesterday filed suit in the superior court for $5,250 damages each. The charge against them was made by Frank Sussman, who, they say, had them arrested charging them with stealing 1,500 gunny sacks, when there was not enough evidence to warrant the charge. Each Japanese asks $5,000 for injury to character through false arrest and $250 for expenses.

DIVORCE

Extravagance in dress was Maurice Lisle's answer to the divorce complaint filed by Alice Lisle in the superior court yesterday.

Suit for divorce was filed in the superior court yesterday by Elizabeth Hell against Joseph Hell, charging him with cruelty.

Declaring that her husband had a very violent temper and sulky moods, Mrs. Pauline Echelberger was yesterday granted a divorce from Alvin W. Echelberger by Superior Judge Card. Mrs. Echelberger was allowed to resume her maiden name, Pauline W. Anthony.

We are shocked to see that Lydia Pinkham has been left off the official list of the World's Greatest Women.

PROCRASTINATION

Is the Thief of Time

The time to have dental operations performed is while cavities are small. The BEST place in Tacoma to have dental work of merit is the Tacoma Dental Parlors.

COLORADO BEET FARMERS REVOLT AGAINST THE "PICKPOCKET TRUST," BIG PROFITS IN SUGAR INDUSTRY, BUT NOT FOR THOSE WHO RAISE OR EAT IT

HOW "PROTECTION" DOESN'T PROTECT THE MAN WHO DOES THE WORK

EDITOR'S NOTE—Some trusts steal like highwaymen, with a pistol at your head; some with the suavity of a Wallingford. In this article the Daily Times shows up some of the tricks pulled off by "the pickpocket trusts"—the sugar trust—which not so long ago disgorged a couple of million dollars stolen from Uncle Sam's revenue pockets. But it's still picking the pockets of beet sugar growers and sugar eaters, which means all of us. Robertson's article is particularly timely, in view of the congressional probe of the sugar trust now in progress.

BY W. C. ROBERTSON, Staff Special.

Tacomaans are now signing petitions to congress asking for a reduction in the tariff on sugar, which at present adds 2 cents to every pound consumed in this country.

The petition cites that the present exorbitant tariff is not only a burden on consumers, but is preventing the development of the canning and preserving industries in this country. As Puget Sound is a great fruit section, the high tariff hurts.

LONGMONT, Colo., Dec. 15.—"Sugar is such a staple that nobody makes more than an infinitesimal fraction of a cent per pound on it."

"So they were tellin' me." But the FACT is that the sugar trust makes millions more every year, net profit, on the sugar grown in Colorado than all the growers together got for planting, raising and marketing the beets. And makes it in a few weeks of factory operation in the fall, at that.

So the sugar beet growers of America are organizing to get a fair price for their beets. Many growers in Michigan, California, Utah, Idaho, Wisconsin and other states are joining with Colorado farmers under the leadership of Attorney Albert Dakin of Longmont, to fight the trust.

Northern Colorado, acre for acre, is the greatest sugar beet producing region in the world. Here the Great Western Sugar Co., a subsidiary of the trust, operates. Its Longmont factory alone this year cleared 505,000, or 110 per cent on its actual investment. Its profit was greater than the TOTAL RECEIPTS of $755,000 for selling it to the keepers for $15,700,000; giving the trust a profit of $8,400,000, besides 175,000 tons of pulp sold for $87,500 as cattle feed, and 28,000 tons of molasses worth $280,000 by-products. That made the year's net profit for the trust $8,592,500 on an assessed tax value of $2,500,000. Its actual value is $7,500,000 and its capital is $30,000,000. Last summer the trust sent out stories about the ruin of the American beet sugar crop. When that lie was nailed a rumor came that foreign crops had failed. "Then how is it," asked the American grower, "that prices of beets don't go up?"

McCORMACK BROS.—June 17th, 1911

ONE YEAR AGO

At midnight on December 16th last the good people of Tacoma were disturbed by the clanging of fire bells and the shrieking of whistles. The next morning our store lay in ruins at our feet. The disaster was appalling, coming as it did in the heart of the Holiday season.

"We Will Rise From the Ashes"

No sooner had this statement been made when every employe donned watersoaked overalls and pitched into the black chaos before them with a fighting spirit which knew no surrender. Every Tacoman knows what happened later—how we opened a temporary store at 1144 Pacific avenue 36 business hours after the disaster—how our loyal friends stood by us. On the 17th of June last we moved into our present light-flooded quarters at "the old stand." Today we feel grateful to all those loyal ones who rallied to our cause.

Our Gratitude Will Find Expression in Extra Value Giving Tomorrow

We are in a better position to serve you today than we were a year ago. Our factory at 112 Blecker street, New York City, makes all our Men's Clothing—and right here we want to say that they're "honor made" clothes. We pay for no million dollar advertising campaigns—we pay no middle man for his services, but buy them direct from the mill.
