BROWN DEFEATS BOB FITZ, JR

(United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, March 1.—Knock-out Brown of New York collected some easy money today by reason of his defeat here Wednesday of Young Bob Fitzsimmons in a ten-round bout. Fitzsimmons never had a chance, Brown winning all the way.

The more discussion the better. Truth doesn't mind being talked about.

NEW MANAGER IS ELECTED

Ernest Jones was Wednesday afternoon elected manager of Tacoma high baseball team to replace John Keller, removed from school because of sickness. Following the election it was announced that in the future "T's" will be issued only to men eligible in every way. First honors will be represented by a large "T" and lesser honors by one half its size. Games or points will not count unless the aspirant is strong on averages in the gray matter contests.

Coach E. E. Perkins of the football team has announced two more games for next fall: Tacoma vs. Olympia in the stadium Oct. 12, and Tacoma vs. Seattle Broadway high here Nov. 5.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) FORT SMITH, Ark., March 2.—Johnny Coulon of Chicago, bantam champion, today is matched for a 15-round bout with "Young Togo," the Japanese fighter who recently gave Battling Nelson a stiff six round argument. The contest is tentatively arranged for April 20.

HOGAN HOPEFUL THIS YEAR

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 1.—Happy Hogan, manager of the Vernon Coasters, firmly believes that his men are going to win the pennant this season. Hogan, always optimistic, claimed today that never before has he had such good reasons for his faith. "Barring accidents," quoth Happy, "the Tigers should win in a walk. Last year we gave Portland a fearful run for the flag after we had taken a poor start. This year it will be different. We are stronger, and Portland is weaker, and my men are getting the early training they need. It's the pennant for Vernon and along about next October I'll tell you I told you so."

BENCH SHOW IS NOW OPEN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—With 467 dogs adorning the bench of the 14th annual show of the San Francisco kennel club the city has gone to the bowsbows today. All breeds with cocker spaniels, setters, fox hounds, grey hounds and bull terriers predominating, are represented among the classy canines that are being criticized and petted by dog fanciers. The show will be open from now until Saturday night, prizes to be awarded the last day.

Anderson's "white hope," who knocked out Jim Cameron at Vernon Thursday and who was injured in an automobile accident near Ocean side the following day, is out of the hospital today, showing only a few bruises as the result of his spill. (By United Press Leased Wire.) OAKLAND, Mar. 1.—Oakland's 1912 team shapes strong on paper and local fans today are figuring that Manager Bud Sharpe's men are going to be right up among the leaders from the start. Sharpe is busy putting some of his players through their practices so he can cut off five heads when his team goes into practice at Livermore.

PEDERSON-MAHMOUT

CHICAGO, March 1.—Issued because the city council refuses to give me power to retrace the application. This was the written statement of Mayor Carter H. Harrison, in granting a permit for a wrestling bout here between Jess Pederson and Yussif Mahmout, to be held today. "Personally," the mayor wrote to Police Chief McWeeny, "I would absolutely refuse, had I the power, to issue a permit to the New Empire Athletic club, an organization which 'pulled off' such a wrestling match as the Goch-Hackenschmid bout."

BELLAH INELIGIBLE

PORTLAND, March 1.—It is whispered in athletic circles here that Sam Bellah, former pole vaulter who was expected to participate in the Olympic games, is after an engineering position in the Bay city and is backed by the Olympic club members in his quest. Bellah left here a fortnight ago to participate in a meet conducted by a San Francisco newspaper. He said he would enter unattached, but it is reported he is contested as a member of the Olympic club. This would make him ineligible to compete in the western tryouts for the Stockholm games.

Diamond Dust

HP WHISKERS. President Wattlett of the Victoria Bees has just closed a deal with the Waco club of the Texas league whereby he gets "Kerrrie" Meek, a catcher. Meek's performance in the Texas league was such that Rothermel's backstaps will meet a worthy foe. His record follows: Put-outs, 339; assists, 122; errors, 13; passed balls, 7; fielding average, .937; batting, .310. Wattlett starts soon to join Nordyke in California.

Portland has turned down Brooklyn's offer of Catcher Bergen and Pitcher Stricklett. Reports say they have slumped in averages. Anson Mott may play the bench or just hang round. Rothermel has not yet decided what he'll do with him. With Cameron at first and a phenom for third, Mott will have to work hard for a place. Bob Brown is having some trouble with players not pleased with the managerial imposition of a salary reduction. Among the malcontents are the veteran Geo. Engle, Jimmy Clark and Bob James. George Engle and Clark threaten to tackle the semi-pro game and Engle has already had an offer from the Wenatchee club, which is going into baseball on almost as big a scale as a league town.

SCHROEDER VS. MILLER. SAN FRANCISCO.—Soldier Bill Schroeder, a white hope, is seeking a match with Charlie Miller, offering to make a substantial side bet as an inducement to the fighting motorman. The heavyweights may meet here in a four round contest March 15.

ATELL NOT TRAINING. SAN FRANCISCO.—That Abe Attell would not get down to training for his match with Harlem Tommy Murphy until Saturday, was the dope handed out today by the Hebrew's handlers. What the cause of the setback in his training is, they would not say, but the wise ones think Attell's injured shoulder may be more serious than has been admitted. Time to think of gardening.
