Throw Light On Mettler

The business transactions of ex-County Commissioner Simon Mettler got a little light thrown on them before Bankruptcy Commissioner Worden yesterday when practically going broke here deeded something like $100,000 to his brother Carl, then went to Vancouver, B. C., and borrowed $60,000 from Vancouver banks on the same property. The deeds had not been placed on record.
If the court holds the deeds to Carl Mettler valid then Simon may be prosecuted. If not the property will be seized by the trustees.

Dramatic

TACOMA

"Paid in Full."
Wagenhals and Kemper announce an elaborate production of the great play of contemporary American life, "Paid in Full," by Eugene Walter, at the Tacoma theater on Sunday night. In the presentation that Wagenhals and Kemper offer they will have one of the most notable acting companies in America, and the production here will be as complete as that given for nine months at the beautiful Astor theater, New York, and for five months at the Grand Opera house, Chicago. "Paid in Full" has been endorsed by the critics as the greatest play since the days of "The Banker's Daughter" and "Jim the Penman." Seat sale opens Saturday.

Brutus, Macbeth, Shylock, Lear, Hamlet, Othello, Iago, Orlando, Romeo and Richard III. All of these great roles, comprising practically the cream of Shakespeare's male characters that are dramatically possible, are in the repertoire of the foremost classic actor of the day, Robert B. Mantell. No other player has so extensive a line of parts. Mr. Mantell appears at the Tacoma theater Monday and Tuesday nights in "Hamlet" and "King Lear."

"Rob Roy" by Scotch Players.
"Rob Roy" dramatized, in operatic form, with augmented orchestra and company of sixty people, under the direction of Ernest Glover, comes to the Tacoma theater for one night, Wednesday, March 6.

Alice Lloyd, in the lively musical play, "Little Miss Fix It," at the Tacoma theater next Saturday.

Alice Lloyd, who is to appear in this city next Saturday as the star in Werba and Luescher's musical gaiety, "Little Miss Fix-It," has a distinction accorded her that no other women of the world can claim. She is an honorary member of the Elks' lodge of New York city.

"Mutt and Jeff" are tired of their ability to "draw some" on their own accounts. Fisher can only draw two men, "Mutt and Jeff," while "Mutt & Jeff" are drawing thousands of men, women and children every day. See them at the Tacoma soon.

"The Balkan Princess," with the original star, Louise Gunning and the entire New York company, is on the road for a coast to coast tour. Coming from the Herald Square and Casino theaters, New York, with a company of seventy-five, this delightful comedy will be anxiously awaited by theater-goers of this city.

PRINCESS

"Girls" will be the offering of the current week at the Princess theater beginning with Monday night. It is a story of contemporaneous life in a large city, and has to do with three struggling studio girls. These girls, Pamela Gordon, Violet Lansdowne and Kate West, expressed the utmost contempt for man. They proudly confessed to being bachelor girls, and a part of their daily routine was the singing of "No Wedding Bells for Me." They are living in a New York flat and the struggle for existence does not prove an easy one. After a series of humorous situations, each man-hater is forced to confess her hypocrisy, and life in the flat is all broken up by matrimony.

Violet Lansdowne, the little illustration, will be played by Miss Laura Heimlich, while Miss Florence Spencer will make an excellent in juggling. With a gist of songs and sayings said to be new and clever, Val and Erny Stanton come to the Empress next week.

Coy De Trickey, known in vaudeville as the "Belle of Coontown," promises something of an innovation in the singing and dancing business.

PANTAGES

The big act of the new Pantages bill will be the dancing novelty, "A Night in Frisco," which is under the management of Jules Held & Co. There are fourteen people in the act, six of them performing the dance numbers.

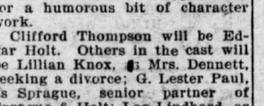

Equally featured is another Jules Held act, with nine people, in a musical comedy entitled "Childhood Days." The Shubert Musical Quartet is composed of four men who are vocalists and instrumentalists of much talent.

In the Nichols-Nelson troupe are five men who do an exceptionally neat and classy hoop-rolling, juggling and diablo act.

Alf Ripon, the Scotch ventriloquist, has a witty and original sketch.

Allman and Nevins are known as "The Tenor and the Country Girl Fiddler."

The usual first-run films and the Pantages concert orchestra will be a feature of the new bill.

THE EMPRESS

The "Texas Tommy," that dance which was conceived in the dives of the world's famous "Barbary Coast," the deadfall of the San Francisco waterfront, is holding the feature top line at the Empress next week.

Dear Sir: Your circular letter received announcing your decision to offer your Sulphurro to the public for consideration, as the demand had grown beyond the possibility of physically and financially to meet same, at least gratis.

The bottle you sent the writer has been tried for general ailments, and that here and there a store has been overlooked. If you find you can't get Sulphurro from your regular druggist, send direct to the office of the C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Company, 810, 811 and 812 Northern Bank building, Seattle, and your order will be promptly filled. Please let us know the name of your druggist, so that he may have an opportunity to obtain a supply of Sulphurro from us.

Permit me to congratulate you in your wonderful success in extracting the sulphur and maintaining its purity in the bottle. Many will call you benefactor of mankind. Very truly yours, N. E. DAVIS, Mosler Safe Co., 108 Second st.

Seattle, Feb. 15, 1912.
C. M. C. Stewart, Seattle, Wash.
Dear Sir: I cheerfully testify that I received great benefit from the use of Sulphurro. I was suffering from neurasthenia and a mild form of rheumatism. After a close application of the prescription for one month, the neurasthenia vanished and a sturdy upbuilding of my nervous system followed.

Thanking you for the great good derived from your treatment, I remain, yours very truly, (Signed) T. J. SHENTON.

Rheumatism, Stomach Trouble. Seattle, Feb. 15, 1912.
Dear Sir: I have been using your Sulphurro for rheumatism and stomach trouble for four months, and it has fully cured me of rheumatism and stomach trouble, of which I have suffered for some years, and I find it a blessing to thank you for same. You can freely use my name. Thanking you for my relief from suffering, I remain, respectfully, yours, W. W. BENSON, 3825 Nassau st.

Rheumatism, Indigestion, Constipation—Gained Flesh. Mukilteo, Wash., Jan. 10, 1912.
Mr. C. M. C. Stewart, Seattle, Wash.
Dear Sir: Your letter of recent date received, and in reply would say that I cannot say too much for your Sulphurro. It is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism. Both my wife and myself are like different people. Have gained in weight, eat heartily, sleep good, and in fact, are both free from aches and pains that we had before using it. It is a wonderful medicine for constipation and indigestion.

Wishing you success, I remain, gratefully yours, MR. AND MRS. J. R. SHARP. You can use my testimonial as you desire. I would think it a sin not to tell its merits.

It is a good time to think of Sulphurro as a tonic. Many of us still have a longing for sulphur at this period of the year, and it is a natural craving that should be gratified. Even if you have no particular ailment, but feel the need of a tonic, Sulphurro will answer that need and make you fresh and vigorous for the coming of the out-door season.
