

11 NATIONS TO HAVE FLOATS

Already 11 different nationalities have arranged for floats for the big parade at the Montama Feast and it is believed others will also come in. The foreign born citizens are taking great interest in the carnival.

Tiger buttons and pins are going fast now. Mrs. H. M. Prince says she sold 280 in Seattle and is going to sell another batch. Surrounding towns are taking interest and the whole state will be here in July from present indications.

Home Made Food Feed Tonight

Several hundred Tacomans are going to prove tonight that a man would not starve to death if deprived of outside sustenance by banqueting on home made edibles at the Commercial club.

The mayor, all the ex-presidents of the club and other orators will talk and boost the made-in-Tacoma wares. It will be the last big feed before the club moves to the new building.

JAIL BIRDS SOCIETY

(By United Press Leased Wire.) BUCHAREST, Roumania, April 25.—A congress of ex-convicts, the first of its kind, is to be held here for the purpose of forming an international association of men who have served jail sentences. The promoter of the scheme is Constantin Danseco, who has himself served several terms in prison and who declares that society is cruelly unjust to ex-convicts.

Mrs. Young, millinery and fancy goods, Old Town. For one week commencing Saturday, I will give a premium with every $1.00 purchase. Main 3392.

TACOMA

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Seats are going fast at the Tacoma theater for the engagement of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," which comes to Tacoma theater tomorrow with special ladies matinee on Saturday. "Rebecca" is a real American play. It is one of the most refreshing productions seen in any country; it is a play of the dream days of young childhood. There is not a girl of fourteen who will not think it the best play ever written, and every mother of a girl of fourteen will quite agree with the daughter. It is unlike all other plays of New England life. It is all sunshine and joy. Nearly every one has read the book and if they have not they should.

You'll Find It Here

HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Robert Cooper, aged 8, studied circus posters of darling bareback riders. He then tried them on the family cow. His right shoulder is broken but they think with careful nursing he will pull through.

Alleging his duties forced him to fill grease cups on the engine rods and that while doing so he was injured severely, John Rowan has filed suit for $35,000 damages against the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway and the N. P. He was formerly employed as engine inspector at Pasco, by the S. U. & S.

"Three months," said the judge. "Your honor," bawled the lawyer, "can't you mitigate the severity of that sentence? Would you send a beautiful actress to jail for three months?" "Three months is very light for shooting a man."

"But, judge, you don't understand. In three months the case will have been forgotten, and my client will be a frost in vaudeville."—Pittsburg Post.

Leva Griffith has filed suit for divorce against Daniel Griffith on grounds of cruelty. They were married in Ogden, Utah, in 1892.

On ground of non-support, Hatley Skinner has filed suit for divorce against George Skinner. They were married in 1906, in Dillon, Mont.

PORTLAND, Ore.—R. J. Hill remarked that William E. Marshall was a knocker. Marshall was annoyed and taking up a man's size hammer pounded his views into Hill. Marshall is charged with battery.

Laura M. Tourpin was granted a divorce from Sidney L. Tourpin, on grounds of desertion, by Judge Clifford yesterday. They were married in 1895.

"What is your idea of economy?" asked one statesman. "Making everybody except my constituents get along with as little money as possible," replied the other.—Washington Star.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Miss Viola Carver, acquitted on the charge of murdering J. Edward Edge, called on the deputy district attorney and thanked him for courtesies. She said she would soon go back to Tacoma and forget Los Angeles and her experience here.

Claiming that Melvin Burnham had another wife living at Alameda when she married him in 1910, Jeanette Burnham filed divorce papers against her husband yesterday.

Doctor: You will be glad to know that your husband will almost certainly recover.
Wife: Oh, doctor! What shall I do?
Doctor: Why, what do you mean? Aren't you anxious that your husband should get well?

Wife—Yes; only when you said last week you didn't think he would live another day I went and sold all his clothes.—Yonges Gazette.

PUYALLUP, April 25.—Property owners who gave the Stone-Webster syndicate free right of way on a promise that it would extend its Interurban lines from Meeker Junction, Puyallup, to Sumner and Orting, will meet Monday to take steps to either force the company to go ahead and make the extension or give back the right of way. Some property owners sold the right of way at a nominal figure to get the company to go through and they will probably sue for damages.

The county auditor's office has been warned not to issue a marriage license to S. Donnelly of Puyallup and Miss French of Centralia, the girl's parents declaring she is not of age and that the couple intend to elope.

PORTLAND, Ore.—"Just for fun," said Gus Erickson, explaining why he rang the doorbells of a number of adjoining houses, asking each time if he might remain all night. "For the same reason I fine you $30," said the court.

For $14,525 Joe Warter was given the contract by the park board for laying Warrenite pavement at Point entrance park from Pearl street to the rustic bridge. The Warren Construction company, Portland, was $102 lower but the board decided to give it to the local man.

M. E. Langford will build concrete posts for the buffalo pen for $1,000.

SANTA ROSA, Cal.—The next time Ben Craftree, a college student, trains for a Marathon race don't yin running trunks, he will not go through Sebastopol. He was chased three miles by 100 citizens of that village before their mistake was discovered.

IMMIGRATION CONFERENCE
C. W. Blaupied of the local Y. M. C. A. left yesterday to hold conferences on immigration work at Portland and San Francisco with prominent workers on the coast.

HILLSBOROUGH, Cal.—A small boy wandered upon the Crocker estate here and unchained two dogs, which fought to a finish. They were Champions Halcyon Alexandre, French bull, and Sir Barney Blue, Boston terrier, and Miss Jennie Crocker is out the better part of $20,000.

Uncle Eben—I tell you, these gab fellows in New York have the best memories in the world.
Uncle Ezra—How do you make that out?
Uncle Eben—Well, from the way they hollered at me this last time I was down there, they must have known that I was the fellow who tipped one of em a quarter to drive me from the station back in '79.—Puck.

SAN FRANCISCO—"Now, you can all keep your hats on," smiled Mrs. Robert M. LaFollette as she stepped nimbly upon a high table in the St. Francis hotel to address 300 suffragettes.

"Battle Bob's" stock went up at once.

OAKLAND, Cal.—Because J. J. Carroll's landlord removed a baseball scoreboard from over his cigar store, Carroll is suing for $10,000. "It almost ruined my trade," he declares.

SALEM, Ore., April 24.—Clemency for W. Cooper Morris, now in the Oregon penitentiary for bank wrecking, will not be recommended to Governor West for six months at least.

LaFollette In Oregon

Chiefs of the Umatilla Indian tribes came to see LaFollette during his campaign in Oregon. The whole reservation turned out to greet him. They knew him to be a friend of the red man, and especially of their tribe, because, while a congressman, LaFollette prevents a crowd of speculators from securing control of the better half of the Umatilla reservation.
