FEDERAL JUDGE HANFORD QUILTS BENCH

DEATH CERTAIN FOR JAPAN'S RULER

PHYSICIANS GIVE UP ALL HOPE OF HIS RECOVERY—END EXPECTED HOURLY AND SORROW QUILTS ALL NATION—MYSTERIOUS REIGN OF SOVEREIGN BRINGS CRISIS TO JAPANESE GOVERNMENT.

TOKIO, July 22.—The emperor of Japan was slightly stronger late tonight, and those at his bedside were hopeful of his recovery. Physicians, however, declare that his trouble has been allowed to go too far, and that his case is hopeless.

TOKIO, July 22.—Following a brief rally during which he partook of liquid nourishment, the Japanese emperor is sinking today and his physicians believe that the end is near. After a fair night's sleep the patient awakened at 6 o'clock this morning, spoke intelligently to the watchers at his bedside and swallowed some liquid food. Following an examination, the doctors issued a statement that the mikado's condition was improved.

Later the patient suffered a relapse and lost consciousness for long intervals. The emperor slept briefly during the night. Crown Prince Yoshihito asked permission today to be present in the sick room, and the physicians probably will accede to his request.

Members of the cabinet are awaiting the end at the palace and everything is ready to transfer imperial authority to Prince Yoshihito when the mikado expires.

Although no disorders are anticipated in Japan upon the accession to the throne of Prince Yoshihito, much apprehension is felt concerning Korea, and the government troops there are prepared for outbreaks.

Prince Katsura arrived at St. Petersburg Sunday, but the date of his return to Tokio is unsettled.

CLERK'S FALL ALMOST FATAL

William Turner, colored, a clerk in the county assessor's office and court house attache for over 25 years, lies in the county hospital fluttering between life and death as a result of a fall from the window of his room in the second story of a house at 1151 South D st., last night. It is believed his skull is fractured and an X-ray examination will be made this afternoon.

About 10 o'clock Turner received a telephone call from a friend asking him to go to Seattle on a late interurban. It is supposed that he followed his habit of leaning of the window to look at the clock on the court house tower and fell.

He is one of the best known characters about the court house.

PERKINS GAVE $15,000 TO FUND

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22. Former Senator Scott of West Virginia testified today before the senate campaign contributions investigation committee. He was a member of the republican national committee in 1904.

"George W. Perkins," said Senator Scott, "asked me that year regarding the situation in West Virginia. I said there was some doubt of the re-election of the republican candidate for governor. He said he was a friend of Colonel Roosevelt and would not see West Virginia go democratic and then he gave $15,000 to help the campaign there. I contributed nothing to the national fund but gave $30,000 or $40,000 to the West Virginia fund."

Scott said he knew of no contributions by Morgan, Havenmeyer or other trusts.

HER HAT IS STILL IN THE RING

With Mrs. Elizabeth Bradstreet ill and under the care of two physicians as a result of her arrest on a charge of grand larceny following the finding of a diamond ring belonging to Mrs. Sadie Lafer, and lost on the beach at Burton by Herbert Lowe, Atty. Ralph Woods today prepared a complaint and will sue Herbert Lowe and J. H. Douglass for $140, the value of the ring. After Mr. Bradstreet, who is a car inspector for the Milwaukee road at Malden, has been consulted, it is possible that charges of false arrest and imprisonment will be filed and another suit started.

ODDS ARE TWO TO ONE ON WILSON

WALL STREET BROKER HAS $5,000 THAT NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR WILL BE NEXT PRESIDENT.

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, July 22.—The odds in Wall street today are 2 to 1 on Woodrow Wilson being the next president of the United States, according to the New York Times (democrat), which says: "Anyone who does not believe that Woodrow Wilson will be the next president of the United States and is willing to take a chance on his conviction may find an opportunity to bet by interviewing an active member of the stock exchange. His name may not be mentioned because of the possible conflict with the anti-betting laws but the broker has $5,000 of his own money which he has been vainly trying to place at odds of 2 to 1 on Wilson."

2 INSPECTORS ON THE JOB

Tacoma has two pure food inspectors now. Miss Esther Allstrum came back last week and insisted on going to work but the mayor had put Alex Shortes in the job. The mayor is away and Shortes cannot quit without orders to do so yet Miss Allstrum insists on taking the job. As a result both are working. How Miss Allstrum will get any salary out of it, however, is not apparent.

(United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—"I take Judge Hanford's resignation as an admission of his guilt," was the statement here today of Congressman Victor Berger of Wisconsin, who introduced the resolution calling for the impeachment of the Seattle jurist. When informed that Hanford had tendered his resignation to President Taft, Berger said: "In introducing my resolution calling for action against Judge Hanford I was fighting corruption in the bench generally and not Judge Hanford personally."

Prominent Woman Visiting Tacoma

MISS MARY WOOD.

Miss Mary Wood of New York, vice chairman of the social and industrial conditions committee of the General Federation of Women's clubs, returning from San Francisco, is stopping over to see Tacoma.

Miss Wood is for women taking a hand in settling the questions affecting women. She is prominent in social work in New York, and attends the police court as attorney for women often.

What disgusts her is when an officer brings in a poor unfortunate woman and lets the man who with her go. "Women must fight the battles of the unfortunate of their sex," said Miss Wood. "They must demand equal pay for equal work."

She believes this to be the keynote to successful endeavor against the social vice.

TRIAL IS DELAYED JUROR SICK

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 22.—Owing to the illness of Juror L. A. Levitt, the trial of Clarence Darrow on a charge of jury bribery went over until tomorrow. Levitt is one of the regular jurors sworn in the trial, and if his illness, which is reported serious, proves to be of a protracted nature, the 13th juror will be called into the regular box and the case resumed.

WIRES RESIGNATION TO TAFT FOLLOWING SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN PROBE; DECLARES HE CAN'T STAND STRAIN

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

SEATTLE, July 22.—Judge C. H. Hanford resigned as a federal judge this morning at 10:30. He wired his resignation to President Taft.

The sub-committee of the house judiciary committee immediately wired for instructions whether to proceed with the impeachment investigation.

At 10:45 an adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when a house resolution containing instructions to the committee in Seattle will have probably been passed at Washington, D. C., as to whether the impeachment proceedings shall be continued.

SENSATIONAL MOVE LIKELY CAUSE

On top of this came the committee's sensational move late Saturday to investigate the whole relationship existing between Kerr and McCord, and Hanford.

When the committee adjourned today, Chairman Graham announced that the investigation would be resumed at 9 o'clock this morning. But the committee did not take its regular place at that time. For several minutes the committee members and the attorneys for Hanford were seen in hurried consultation. About 9:35 the committee went into executive session. A few minutes later, Representative McCoy called into the conference all three of Hanford's attorneys, E. C. Hughes, Harold Preston and C. W. Dorr.

Rumors became rife at this juncture that the committee was discussing what procedure to follow in case Judge Hanford and Attorney Hughes left the federal building and went to a nearby telegraph office. Judge Hanford sent in his resignation at that time, while Chairman Graham wired to the house judiciary committee asking that a resolution be passed by the house instructing its committee to discontinue the investigation.

HEARING ADJOURNED TILL 2 O'CLOCK
The hearing was then adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon. It is admitted in the federal court room that the startling evidence brought out Saturday against Hanford involving him in a financial deal with the Northern Pacific railway finally determined him to quit the bench.

There was no longer a semblance of doubt but that Hanford would have to stand impeachment before the senate. Members of the congressional committee in confidence have said that they considered the evidence against Hanford most damaging.

FIND FLOATER IN THE CITY CHANNEL

WORKER BELIEVED TO HAVE FALLEN INTO WATER LAST NIGHT BY ACCIDENT—BODY DISCOVERED BY BRIDGE WORKERS; SUICIDE THEORY UNSUPPORTED.

Floating in the city waterway at the 14th st. bridge, the body of Antone Stenevson, or Stenson, was found this morning by workers on the bridge when they went to work at 8 o'clock. Stenevson had been in the water about 12 hours.

There were no marks of violence upon the body and it is not known whether he fell into the water by accident or committed suicide, the first theory being the more tenable of the two. He was last seen at the St. Paul hotel, 2316 Jefferson avenue, where he rooms, yesterday afternoon and appeared to be in good spirits. In his pocket were found letters, $8.40 in cash and a bank book on the Pacific National showing a balance of about $150. Stenevson was between 45 and 50 years old. Little is known about his relatives and he has been at the hotel but a short time.

WILL HEAR CASE THIS AFTERNOON

Holding the motion to dismiss in abeyance and allowing the amendment of the complaint in the suit against the county to annul the paving contract granted the Washington Paving company for the Valley road to the King county line because it is $10,000 higher than the bid of Pat McHugh, Federal Judge Cushman this morning continued the case until 2 o'clock this afternoon when the merits of the case will be investigated.

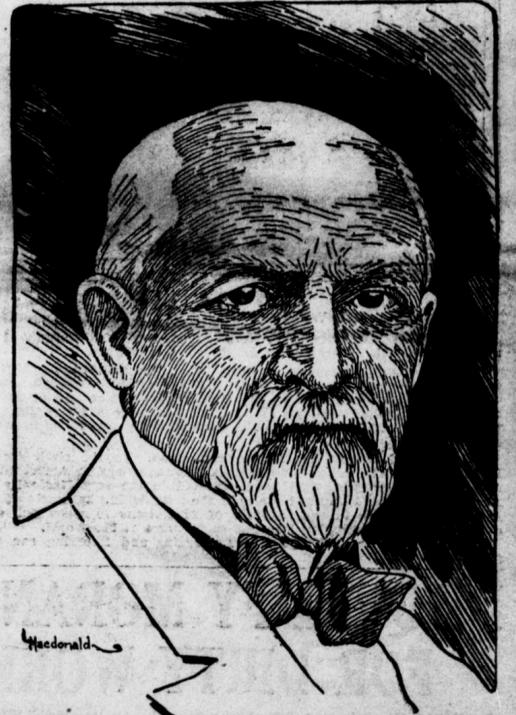

The McHugh interests declare there was collusion and conspiracy and that he was discriminated against. The amendment further alleged that the Washington Paving company was favored by a secret rebate on the royalty on the paving by the Blom company of Chicago of 12 cents a yard.

BANK CLEARINGS.
Clearings. Balances. Tacoma $ 716,426.48 $33,933.46

Hanford assigns as his reason for resigning, that he "cannot stand the strain of the investigation and an impeachment trial, and that he desires to quit while he still has some health left."

The Hanford defense collapsed apparently when the investigating committee showed a determined effort to get at the bottom of Judge Hanford's alleged business dealings with litigants. The Hanford decision reducing the Northern Pacific railway's taxes while he was negotiating for the purchase of thousands of acres of land from the railway, was a staggering blow to the defense when Representative McCoy read it into the records.

Woman Embezzler Commits Suicide

(By United Press Leased Wire.) The money was stolen out of the house, was the dying statement of Mrs. Egsjarein.

How Much Does Advertising Interest You?

The real science of advertising is in its infancy, growing in importance daily.

Yet advertising itself is as old as man. Witness that Noah advertised prior to the flood and those who heeded his advertising profited; that Joseph used his own brothers to advertise the fertile lands of the Nile; that Sampson, through his feats of strength, was known the length and breadth of the land.

Today you advertise. Yes, madam, you do. You give your neighbor a cake recipe and thus advertise your ability as a cake-maker; your taste in the hat and clothes you wear; your children advertise your care of them; when you call on a friend you have a card—advertising the fact that you have been to that particular home.

The merchant or manufacturer calls on you through his advertising space in The Times, telling you what he has to offer and asking for your patronage for the mutual benefit of you as reader and himself as advertiser.

Really, you are more interested in advertising than you thought you were.

And because you are interested you will be reading from day to day the little talks on advertising which will appear in The Times.
