PANTAGES—Vaudeville; daily, afternoon matinee and two shows nightly. New bill Monday.

TACOMA

"Louisiana Lou" comes to the Tacoma Thursday night.

This musical comedy from the Chicago La Salle is a wonder. It is guaranteed to rout hoodoos, put jinx to flight and to restore a saturnine cynic to a healthy appreciation of the good things that are in life.

Barney Bernard and Sophie Tucker alone would carry a far lighter vehicle to the heights of musical comedy fame and fortune. Bessie De Vole and Eleanor Henry are pretty as pictures; Harry Hanlon and Helena Salinger admirable in character roles; Robert O'Connor, Mortimer Weldon, Messrs. Crawford and Sennels and the remaining members of the cast in every way unusually clever and entertaining. The chorus, as San Francisco expressed it, is of "triple class A construction."

Monday matinee, for this bill has, as one of its big features, the Wolgast-Rivers fight pictures. Followers of the prize-fight game will have an opportunity of seeing for themselves just which one of the little fighters was really entitled to the decision.

Headlining the vaudeville bill will be the Four Casters, a quartet of acrobats.

The added feature will be Cantor's Seven Merry Youngsters, who present "Fun on a School Ground," a hodge-podge of music and fun.

Mathews and Duffy offer a breezy playlet entitled "The Rangers," which has been winning laughs over the circuit.

Mile. Hadje is a beautiful athletic girl who will be another feature.

Still another hit is the temperamental Zenita, a violinist and dancer, who is scoring a tremendous hit with both her music and her dancing.

ZENITA, AT THE PANTAGES NEXT WEEK.

Circus Has a Complete Zoo

One of the things that has added greatly to the fame of the Barnum and Bailey circus is its menagerie.

The Barnum and Bailey circus is the only one in the world that has its own animal hunters and trappers.

In the Barnum and Bailey menagerie are 110 cages, dens, tanks and pens in which are to be found 1,200 animals. An instance of their great enterprise is found in the giraffe family. Here are five perfect specimens. One is twenty-two feet in height. Another is the only baby giraffe in America. It is worth its weight in gold.

Various other displays are a five-ton hippopotamus, a double-horned rhinoceros, bears from the Arctic regions and from a dozen other climates, wild boars from the German black forests, kangaroos from Australia, horned horses from Africa, forty elephants, thirty camels and dromedaries, herds of llamas and yaks, zebras, curious cattle, water buffalo, nyghaus, ibexes, gnus, viak vaards, hyenas, porcupines, tapirs, ant-eaters, ostriches, emues chimpanzees, orang-outangs, caribous, sealions, seals, peccaries, wart hogs and all varieties of the cat, monkey and deer tribes.

When the circus comes to Tacoma on Friday, August 23, a full hour will be devoted to the menagerie after the doors are open.

Have you anything you would like to sell? If you have a "For Sale" ad in the Times it will find you a buyer for it.

REBUILD GRECIAN CITY FOR MOVING PICTURE

For nearly nine months a crew of workmen labored to rebuild a Grecian city. This was used by the Milano Film Co. of Italy to reproduce Homer's "Odyssey," the actors living in the city for over a year and a half while rehearsing.

As a result, a perfect picture and perfect work rewarded the efforts and expenditure of the Milano company.

Not a detail has been overlooked to make the one big film sensation of the world.

Homer's "Odyssey" will be exhibited at the Dream theater three days, starting tomorrow.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—To Queen Alexandra is attributed the invention of London's most popular hot weather drink. The juice of crushed peaches and oranges is used in equal parts, a few slices of cucumber are added, sugar to taste and a slight pinch of ginger, the whole being mellowed with maraschino, then placed on ice, where it must remain at least two hours before serving.

The concoction, which was first served at one of the early summer functions at Marlborough house, may now be obtained at almost any aristocratic sideboard in London.

Rebels Raid Border; Fear Clash; Return

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 10.—Fearing a clash with United States troops, Mexican bandits who crossed over the international boundary into Texas and raided several ranches near Sierra Blanca, withdrew today across the border, according to word received today across the border, according to word received here.

Colonel Stovover of El Paso ordered American troops to patrol the border to prevent a renewal of the raids.

HUBBY MAKES ANSWER

In answer to his wife's complaint in suit for divorce alleging cruelty, Harry Osborne, a pool room proprietor of Enumclaw, declares that his wife left him despite his efforts to keep her at home, and obtained employment in Tacoma. He asks for the decree upon the grounds of abandonment.

THE EMPRESS

Although to all intents and purposes a road show, next week's bill at the Empress has a "punch in every act."

Marco Molasso, the author and producer of "Paris by Night," "The Darling of Paris" and other notable pantomime productions, has written another Parisian novelty, "La Petite Gosse," which will be presented at the Empress beginning Monday afternoon. Molasso is sending with "La Petite Gosse" Lillian Lester and Carlo Cassetta, two of his star pupils. There are 14 dancers in the cast in addition to Miss Lester and Mr. Cassetta.

An added attraction to the bill beginning Monday is "The Leap Year Girls," a comedy classic written by John Stokes, the playwright-actor husband of Emma Dunn.

Jack Allman, the famous Irish tenor, will make his debut Monday.

Two very capable xylophonists in the person of Charles Lowe and Benjamin Edwards will furnish a portion of the bill.

Joe Cook, the black face comedian, is a juggler, acrobat, dancer, singer cartoonist musician and comedian all in one.

Cheekers Von Hampton and Hazel Josephyn are a youthful musical comedy pair who have just taken up vaudeville.

PRINCESS

Crooks who are trying to reform, crooks who do not wish to reform and their various methods of making a livelihood are all shown in "The Deep Purple," which will be presented at the Princess theater for the week beginning with the matinee Sunday afternoon.

The famous "badger" game, as it is worked in the big city, is one of the absorbing themes of the play. The piece abounds in interesting character sketches. There is "Frisco" Kate, Leland, the badger man, Laylock, the "killer" from the West, old "Pop" Clarke, the scoundrel in sanctimonious garb, crooked police officials and others. In "Frisco" Kate and young Harry Lake, a mining man from the West, the bunch of crooks meet their match.

"Frisco" Kate will be played by Miss Bell, Laylock by Guy Fittner, Leland by William Brewer, "Pop" Clark by Lester Paul, and Lake by Clifford Thompson. There will be bargain matinees tomorrow, Wednesday and Saturday.

PANTAGES

If Tacoma fight fans are no longer to enjoy little bouts pulled at the Athletic club smokers, they can at least witness one of the most interesting fights the country has seen this season, by attending the Pantages theater during the week which begins
