LURE OF DEPTHS, CAUSE OF YOUNG TEACHER'S DEATH

FROM A DIZZY HEIGHT SHE LOOKED HUNDREDS OF FEET BELOW AND FELL—COMPANIONS SEE BODY HURLED DOWN DEEP CHASM—HELPLESS IN RENDERING AID.

It had been but a week since a party of 18 healthy, joyous, eager young men and women left their homes in Tacoma for a 10-days' outing at the mountain. Today they are huddled together in Paradise valley, their happiness gone. They are coming home tomorrow with the pleasure of their vacation blighted by the memory of a disaster—the death of one of their number.

It was the lure of the depths that called Miss Charlotte Hunt to her grave. It was the irresistible call of space that cried to her as she stood on the topmost point of Pinnacle Peak looking down the precipice into the valley.

"Come!" it called to her. It was compelling and she stepped far out from the cliff and down—down—down—800 feet into the chasm.

They saw her topple from the ledge, but could not reach her in time, it all came so suddenly. Fifteen feet below she hung for a moment on another point that jutted out into the air.

She lifted her face to them but did not speak. Only a silent appeal came up to them from her eyes. Then the girl plunged out and down.

It was all over. Somewhere down below in the valley was the form of the pretty, joyous school teacher, its bones broken, its life crushed out.

The men of the party were the first to act. The women had fainted.

Carefully leading the way, Dick Carter, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., toiled down the

Why Not Have a Real Man For Governor?

We have had stool pigeons for governors, and cripples—mental, moral physical. We have had "me-too" governors, political apologists, nifty players of the game, BUT we haven't had a straight, honest, masculine person on the job for some periods.

WOOL BILL IS PASSED OVER TAFT VETO

RULING OF SPEAKER CLARK MAKES IT POSSIBLE TO DEFEAT TAFT'S PURPOSE TO BEAT MEASURE.

(BULLETIN.)

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—By grace of a ruling made by Speaker Clark, the house today passed the wool tariff revision bill over President Taft's veto by a vote of 174 to 80. Nineteen republican insurgents voted with the democrats.

On the vote as at first announced by the speaker the democratic insurgent alliance apparently had failed to pass the bill by two votes. Ten members who had paired with absentees voted as present.

Clark ruled that it took only two-thirds of the members voting "aye" or "no" to pass the bill and ruled that two-thirds had so voted "aye" and that the bill was passed.

A violent dispute followed, the republicans bitterly attacking Clark. On this Underwood made a point or order, thus finally enabling the speaker to declare the bill passed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Entering the grocery store of John Knebel, a thief caught sight of a shelf of whisky bottles. Result—three bottles missing and cash register untouched.

Oh! Shudders! Hair Dresser Says Blond Strands Simply Cannot Exist On Puget Sound

Breathed there a man with soul so dead that he should love a bald headed woman?

Then should the young man who is searching for a wife on the shores of Puget Sound take heed of the words of one who knows—a hairdresser, in fact. She is one of the maids at Thorsen's hair shop, 917 So. C street.

Puget Sound, she says, is no place to grow long, beautiful tresses. The sea breeze does it—makes the scalp too oily and darkens the color of the hair, all of which is bad for the young woman and extremely disappointing to the young man.

Beware particularly of the maiden with the blond strands. The gold comes not from natural causes for blond hair cannot exist in the Puget Sound climate.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight and Wednesday.

ASTOR HEIR DUE TO ARRIVE ANY MINUTE.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—When it was reported here today that the expected heir to the Astor millions was due to arrive any minute considerable excitement was created among the curious crowds that have besieged the Astor mansion where Mrs. Astor, widow of the Titanic disaster victim, Col. John Jacob Astor, is confined.

Dr. Cragin, the physician attending Mrs. Astor, refused to make any statement.

Mrs. Astor requested the reporters to refer to her as Mrs. John Jacob Astor, and not as Mrs. Madeline Astor.

BULL MOOSE DELEGATES WANT A THIRD PARTY

SEATTLE, Aug. 13.—Returning delegates from the bull moose convention headed by E. C. Snyder of Seattle, this morning declared for a third party ticket from governor down to coroner in this state.

This matter has been the subject of a full-absorbing interest among local progressives, who were divided as to whether to put up a full state third party ticket or not. A compromise had finally been effected to delay action until the return of the Chicago delegates. The question is now fully settled, and Washington will have a complete third party ticket.

"SHAME" SAYS DARROW'S ATTORNEY

DARROW'S ATTORNEY MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION ON JURORS.

HALL OF RECORDS, LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 13.—Pacing up and down before the jury, peering intently into the face of each juror, Horace Appel delivered today the opening address to the jury in behalf of Clarence S. Darrow in the labor attorney's trial on a charge of having bribed jurors in the McNamara dynamiting cases.

Earl Rogers, Darrow's chief counsel, is scheduled to start his argument late this afternoon. Appel swayed his hearers with the earnestness of his appeal. He appeared to make an excellent impression on the jurors.

"What a shame it is," began Appel, "that Clarence Darrow, whose name is inscribed in the heart of every laboring man in the country, should, when he has reached the highlands of life and is now on his pathway to the lowlands, be pointed at as a perjurer and a criminal."

"What a shame it is that he, because the prosecution can point at him and say, 'That looks suspicious,' should risk going down the road to the dark penitentiary, to a grave with a headstone inscribed, 'He died in disgrace.'"

GETTING READY FOR BIG RACE

(By United Press Leased Wire.) BERLIN, Aug. 13.—The Berlin to Paris aeroplane race has been definitely put down for May, 1913. Several plane constructors already have entered machines, including Bleriot, Morane, Nieuport, Borel, Breguet de Perdussin, Hanriot and others.

WOULD PAY THIEF

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 13.

Although J. C. Smith had been unable for six months to persuade his balky family horse, "John," to leave the stable, someone stole the animal. "No questions asked and a steady job for the man who did it," Smith told the police.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS 3,000; 50,000 PEOPLE HOMELESS

(BULLETIN.) BERLIN, Aug. 13.—Three thousand persons are known to have been killed in an earthquake which rocked Southeastern Turkey, according to a message just received here by the Tageblatt.

from its correspondent at Constantinople.

More than 50,000 persons are homeless and starving. An active crater is also reported to have appeared on the Asiatic side of the sea of Marmora.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 13.—Crying bitterly, but refusing to give any reason for her action, Edna James, a 11-year-old nurse girl, is being held today in prison by the police here for setting fire to 35 dwellings.

On Saturday 35 fires occurred here in various houses. A guard was placed at the house where Edna worked and the conflagrations stopped. The girl's arrest then followed. She admits firing three places, but the police believe she is responsible for them all.

Do You Want to Be a Political Cartoonists? Here's Cory's Kit

The entire Times newsboy force will walk into Pantages theater for the second show Friday night. It has every promise of being "some" night. The theater management is responsible. Yesterday Manager Timmons visited the Times office, looked over the lively swarm of bareheaded, brown skinned youngsters, and then and there wrote a "comp" for the whole bunch. He assured the rest that they would not be overlooked at some later date. And so it is tonight the Times newsies are yelling louder and more vociferously than any other newsies, and as usual, are selling more papers.
