

BANKER LED A DUAL LIFE

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PASCO, Wash., Oct. 11.—That Banker Christensen, for whose murder his young wife is on trial, supported "Bobbie" Rouchet, another woman, while living with his spouse, and otherwise lived a dual existence, is the evidence in the possession of the court today.

The Rouchet woman testified that she had demanded $100 a piece from Mrs. Christensen for certain letters written to her by the dead man, but in lieu of the money accepted a proposition from Mrs. Christensen for transportation to Pasco and a home and clothing while testifying in behalf of her benefactor.

Puyallup News

PUYALLUP, Oct. 11.—Puyallup is planning to send the largest delegation of any outside district to the county teachers' institute to be held in Tacoma, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week.

Much interest is being taken in the Puyallup Parent Teachers' association, the membership having already reached 50.

The team to represent Puyallup high school this year has not been selected. Several new students are showing decided class and it is expected some of these will be included in the lineup.

TACOMA

"The Old Homestead." "The Old Homestead," ever old and ever new, is coming to the Tacoma Sunday night, and with it the ever popular Uncle Josh, whose joys and sorrows, failures and successes so invariably interest an audience and arouse its sympathies.

The "Goose Bone Bulletin," issued anonymously and neatly typewritten, reached Commissioner Woods yesterday from some unknown source, giving the weather forecast for the winter.

WHAT Y.M.C.A. IS DOING FOR THOSE WHO DIDN'T STICK

Does education pay? Walter Clark, educational director of the Y. M. C. A., insists it does and he has inaugurated a campaign to try to get the boys of Tacoma to realize it.

"Statistics show that the boys who quit school at 14 earn in their lives from the age of 14 to 65 amount to $65,000."

"The object lesson is startling. It shows that the boy who goes to school until 18, in the rest of his life earns nearly three times as much as the boy who quits school and goes to work at 14."

"Out of every 100 boys who enter the first grade, 45 drop out on or before the fifth grade," says Clark. "Only 27 are left in the 8th grade and three finish high school. Less than one finishes college out of the 100 that started."

"We are going after the boys who have stopped school and try to get them to continue studying," says Clark. "We find many stop school because they can not get adjusted to the school machine. The school system is built for the average. The exceptional boy does not fit, becomes discouraged and quits. We are going to find that boy in Tacoma, try to get him into our educational work and adjust him to such work as he will be interested in."

SENT TO PRISON

With Halle Brown, who is going to Walla Walla today to begin a sentence for grand larceny, Judge W. O. Chapman is sending a letter to the prison board asking that she be let out before the birth of her expected child. She was sentenced early in the week to from six months to 15 years for stealing $2,600 from Sailor John Spence.
