ON DOPE HARVARD HAS THE EDGE ON YALE

SHOW BETTER FORM AGAINST PRINCETON

FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS SATURDAY WITH GREAT ANNUAL GAME BETWEEN OLD ELI AND CAMBRIDGE BOYS.

With the final gridiron games of the big eastern and western teams scheduled for next Saturday, the football season of 1912 will soon pass into history.

Only one championship game—the Yale-Harvard contest—remains to be played. By downing the husky Minnesota warriors Saturday, the undefeated Wisconsin team won the western championship. Only the Iowa team remains to be played by the Badgers, and the Hawkeyes have been easy victims for both Chicago and Minnesota.

The dope on the big game of the year favors Harvard. The best Yale could do with the Princeton Tigers Saturday was a 6 to 6 tie, while Harvard downed Princeton several weeks ago.

With the season practically over, the "Big Four" teams of the east rank as follows:

Harvard, Yale, Princeton and Pennsylvania.

In the west, the teams of the "Big Eight" rank in the following order:

Wisconsin, Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois, Iowa, Purdue, Indiana and Northwestern.

Chicago and Minnesota will fight it out for second place Saturday, while Purdue and Indiana will battle for seventh position.

NO GAME.

(United Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 18.—The football management of the Multnomah club is today informed that White man college does not desire a game with the club men, and the latter are now focusing all their attention on the contest with the university of Oregon on Turkey day.

ANNUAL MEETING

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The annual meeting of the American Athletic union began today at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel with delegates from Portland, Ore., San Francisco and Los Angeles among those present.

President Kirby and Secretary Sullivan will be re-elected without opposition. Radical changes are expected in the wrestling, boxing, water polo and tug of war rules.

FIGHTERS PLAY TENNIS.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 18.—Tennis is the latest pugilistic camp training stunt in the quarters of Jim Flynn, where the Pueblo fighter was scheduled today to meet Joe Mandot in three sets.

Flynn fights Luther McCarty at Vernon, December 10. He claims the turf game is excellent for the development of speed. Mandot, who meets Joe Rivers in a 20-round bout Thanksgiving afternoon, also has taken up tennis in earnest.

To Select the Referee For Big Battle Some Time Today

WILLIE RITCHIE.

MANAGERS FOR WOLGAST AND RITCHIE MEET TODAY TO NAME THIRD MAN IN THE RING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 18.—Tom Jones, acting for Champion Ad Wolgast, promoter James W. Coffroth and Willie Ritchie met here this afternoon to name a referee for the Thanksgiving day battle.

Wolgast already has turned in his list of eligibles, but nothing has been heard from Ritchie on this score.

Both Jack Welch and Eddie Graney have been eliminated, neither caring to officiate. Wolgast said he would be satisfied with a San Francisco referee, and it was believed that Jim Griffin stood the best chance of being named.

Not since Battling Nelson and Jimmy Britt signed articles for their memorable battle at Colma, Cal., seven years ago, have pugilistic circles been so deeply stirred over a battle involving the lightweight championship of the world as they are over the Willie Ritchie-Ad Wolgast contest, which is scheduled to take place in Daly City, Cal., just over the boundary line of San Francisco county, on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Ever since their four-round bout in San Francisco last spring in which Ritchie easily bested the champion, there has been a demand for a return match over the long route. Ritchie never once getting off the champion's trail. Ritchie, although rather large for a 133-pounder, is confident that he can make the weight without weakening himself, and with such an expert trainer as Billy Nolan, conceded to be the best conditioner in America, he believes that he will go into the ring with all of his strength.

The challenger never touches liquor or tobacco, always keeps himself in good shape and in all ways is a model boy, his one dissipation being candy, which, of course, he cuts out when training. He is a consistent and faithful trainer and lives up to all camp rules. Nolan has his own ideas about training and he invariably sends his men into the ring in fit condition.

Nolan is a great believer in the simple life, usually taking his charges to his ranch in Northern California and compelling them to live as close to nature as possible. Nolan is a stickler for diet, selecting food with extreme care and preparing it "just so."

Ritchie is a plain eater, so Nolan will have no trouble with him in this regard.

Ritchie will train in Marin county, Cal., across the bay from here, where the weather is warmer and the roads are better.

PREPARING FOR BIG GAME WITH LINCOLN THANKSGIVING DAY

With but one more game left of a football season which has proved a heartbreaker, the Tacoma High school team will practice hard this week and next, with the hope of a victory over Lincoln High of Seattle on Thanksgiving day. The report is going the rounds that several of the team members will be cashing in their "unios" after the quarterly marks are sent in this week. Tacoma needs her full strength in this game, for the Seattle school has a strong team, as was shown in the game with Everett Saturday. Lincoln was defeated by the same score. Everett defeated Tacoma, 13 to 3, but it was not until the last quarter that Everett even scored, Lincoln leading 3 to 0 up to then.

Queen Anne evened up the honors for the four times that the team has met Tacoma by winning the victory over the local foe Saturday, by the score of 7 to 0.

MAY BRING UNIVERSITY OF WASH. AND WHITMAN TOGETHER IN STADIUM

Plans are under way today to stage a game between the University of Washington and Whitman college in the Tacoma stadium after the regular schedule is played by the two teams.

Whitman and the state university are not booked to play eastern Washington college is not a member of the Northwest college conference. A post-season game is the only solution to get the two colleges to come together.

Manager Zednick of the University of Washington will be consulted by local men who are interested in the promotion of the contest, and it is expected that an answer will be coming by the end of the week.

PLAY SAILORS THIS WEEK

There will be a host of Jack tars in Tacoma during the week, and the old football yell of the Annapolis navy team will be heard on local fields for the first time in years. Wednesday afternoon the U. P. S. team will meet an "All Star" team from the Bremerton navy yard.

Whitworth college will clash with a team from the U. S. S. Galveston either Thursday or Friday. Whitworth arrived from Oregon yesterday in good shape after their defeat by Willamette.

The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow chills and the lives of fever. The appetite flies and the strength falls; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Frotwell, of Lucama, N. 14 YEAR OLD BOY PICKED FOR CHAMP BILLIARDIST

WALTER COCHRAN, BOY BILLIARD MARVEL.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The title of champion billiard player of the world may soon rest on the head of a 14-year-old boy about as big as a cue.

He is Walter Cochran, who hails from Iowa, and is now rounding into a world beater in Chicago, under the instruction of W. Perkins.

"Prof." Perkins is the man who coached Calvin Demarest and any number of high-class billiardists, and he declares that not only is young Cochran the most promising pupil he ever had, in his 5 years' experience, but that the boy will be greater than the late Wizard Schaeffer.

If you understand billiard language, consider this latest feat of the boy wonder: He averaged 5 5-35 in a Class A 18.2 inch balk line tournament, to the amazement of Chicago experts. He continues to amaze those same experts by the skill he shows in his daily practice at Mussey's rooms, where Perkins holds forth as teacher.

He had no scientific knowledge of the game when he went to Perkins. That made it easier for his teacher, for there wasn't anything to forget. He quickly grasped the fundamentals, learning the 20 elementary shots and their numberless variations, developing his natural delicacy of touch and revealing an instinctive perception of the game's mysteries that delighted the veterans.

The best thing of his wonderful that, in spite of his wonderful gift, he is just a regular boy, unspoiled by praise and admiration, and having no bad habits.

HE DOES NOT SMOKE CIGARETS.

The dictionary, one can find by reading it through carefully, contains many quaint things, in other sections than that headed "Q."

For example: One is pleased to learn that Billingsgate is a "place in London noted for its fish and fowl language."

And then again: One is glad to have such a clear and convincing explanation that "several" is "more than one or two and not many."

One wonders why Mr. Webster's book isn't one of the six best sellers.

The various small and novel tasks connected with the adjustment of a brand new flat had been successfully accomplished by the husband-to-be without any difficulty. He was just getting ready to give a variety cheer for himself when the matter of the dressing table and the chiffonier came up for consideration.

In transportation the mirrors had been removed from these two articles. The wife-to-be, who was superintending the flat adjustment, suggested they be replaced.

The H-2B was brave. He carefully adjusted the mirror supports to the dressing table, and then prepared to fasten the mirror.

But something seemed wrong with the mirror—or the supports. The mirror seemed about three inches too wide for the supports. The H-2B was of the opinion the supports had shrunk. He didn't say so. He just pulled away, trying to stretch them so the mirror could fit in. For a long time he struggled in silence. Then he heard the bride-to-be's voice.

U.P.S. SCRUBS BEAT SUMNER

By the decisive score of 31 to 7 the U. P. S. "scrubs" defeated the Sumner high school team Saturday afternoon. Sumner put up a scrappy game, but was outclassed by the local college. Sumner's only score came in the last quarter, as the result of a fumble. Sutherland, U. P. S. left half, played a star game.
