HELP FOR THE GRANDEST EMPIRE ON EARTH!

The native princes and potentates of India are planning to collect one hundred and fifty millions of dollars to purchase as a gift to the English government three super-dreadnaughts and nine first class armored cruisers.

The Tacoma Times prints daily the news of the moving picture world. Programs in all the picture houses change on Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays. Keep in touch with the people you know in the "movies" by watching the special feature stories in the "movies" column.

AT THE CIRCUIT.
Featuring "Reygate Squires" the Circuit theater begins today to show first run films of A. Conan Doyle's famous detective story. Everybody has read Conan Doyle's works and is familiar with all the characters in his books. The pictures are doubly interesting because they are among the first to be shown to the moving picture public the works of the famous author.

Sherlock Holmes, the great detective, of whom you have read extensively, is himself a feature. The film will be on exhibition three days.

THE CIRCUIT.—"The Reygate Squires," two reels; "Rough on Rats and the Baby and the Cop," "Her Nephew from Labrador."

THE SCENIC.—"The Little Minister," in three reels.

THE BIJOU.—"The Genius of Fort Lapawal," two reel, Bison feature; "The Hypocrites;" "The Detective's Santa Claus."

THE PALACE.—"Gaumont

Weekly No. 44, a visualized epitome of current events; "Their Masterpiece," American drama with Pauline Bush, Warren Kerrigan and Jack Richardson; "Queen of the Season," Great Northern drama.

THE SHELL.—"Off the Road," Vitagraph drama; "The Bravery of Dora," "Pirate Gold," "Roped In," western drama; "Pathe's Weekly."

THE LYRIC.—"The Rose of Old Mexico," American drama; "The Little Enchantress," Majestic drama; "A Double Life," Gaumont drama; "The Mistaken Masher," Keystone comedy with Mabel Normand.

AT THE PANTAGES

Hand it to the dog Jap, the elephant Hippo and the monkey Napoleon, for they are the real "its" at the Pantages theater this week even in the face of a pretty strong bill at that.

When you see a dog that can put on its own little jacket, squeeze on his little collar and play an organ accompaniment to a violin solo you want to give him credit for having brains, and Jap seems to have plenty of them, too. Without any reflection on Jap, Hippo is some vaudevillian. He bowls, plays football and drinks good beer with ease. He is ably assisted by Napoleon, who delights in dancing a hoedown before the footlights.

The Boardman Sisters, singers and dancers, open the bill. Beck and Heney in a musical dancing novelty please with several difficult steps which start the applause. Gordon Davis, Arthur Cyril and company have an amusing skit, "Alias Trixie Kix." Daisy Harcourt returns with a new line of English wit and humor. The biograph pictures are worthy of mention.

AT THE PRINCESS

Those who care more for a really artistic play than for the gore and battle kind, those who prefer to see acting rather than have their ear drums burst may go to the Princess theater this week and be satisfied.

"Merely Mary Ann" doesn't suggest anything that it is not, but rather underestimates itself in its title. It is a play meant for people who care for the sweetness of life. And the Princess players are showing Tacoma that they can handle that sort of play better, or at least, as well as the other kind.

In "Merely Mary Ann" is a little country girl—Miss Florence Bell. She finds employment in a cheap London lodging house frequented by drunken men and "down and outs." Here she blacks boots and does other odds and ends work, and meets a young musician, Lancelot—Leo Lindhard. And there begins a love story

THEATRICAL

Tacoma—Dark, Coming, "Ben Hur."

Princess—All week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, the Princess players in "Merely Mary Ann."

Pantages—Little Hip and Napoleon headlining six vaudeville acts, all week.

Empress—Vaudeville all week, afternoon and evening, featuring "Just Kids," that runs through the play with many reverses. He rejects her because he cannot sell his music. She becomes wealthy after she has lost sight of him, and he becomes famous. They meet again, and she in turn rejects him. But in the end, "Merely Mary Ann" makes everybody glad in the only satisfactory way.

Because of the length of the play, the curtain rises promptly at 8:15 this week.

AT THE EMPRESS

"Just Kids," which is exactly what the name expresses, is the favored number on a good bill at the Empress theater this week.

About a birthday surprise party on a little country girl is woven a pretty 20-minute musical comedy in which figure eight other little girls and a country boy. The skit is enhanced by the romping of the "kids" through the audience, and the appearance of the boy, who is "goin' fishin'" down the main aisle.

One of the Patty brothers, acrobats, walked down a flight of stairs on his head, as one of their series of remarkable stunts.

In a comedy, "The Fire Escape," Charles Deland, Mary Carr and a bell boy present an amusing incident in hotel life—the occasion being a time when the hotel is being gutted by fire.

The Manning Twins are dancers of merit and the Great Westin presents some very fair impersonations of famous men in history.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

IT WILL BE THE DAHLIA SOCIETY

The Tacoma Dahlia society will remain the Tacoma Dahlia society. Its members decided they didn't care to change it to the Tacoma Shropshire Horticultural society at the annual meeting last evening.

After a hot debate President W. H. Reed won his point and the organization elected officers under the old name and constitution. Reed was re-elected president and most of the other officers will hold their places another term.

Reed announced after the ballots had been enumerated that he felt there was opposition to him among some of the members because of his policy of paying the officers of the society a salary. He said he would not consider the presidency another term unless his election was made unanimous, and the house voted for him to a man.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN ENDS INDIGESTION

TIME IT! NO SOUR, GASSY STOMACH OR DYSPEPSIA IN FIVE MINUTES.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain un-failing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.
