J. PLUVIUS HALTS CONTEST 'TWTX BENGALS AND BEES

Giving heed to the earnest request of one J. Pluvius, manager of the Rainy team in the Shower League, neither the Tacoma Tigers nor the busy Victoria Bees engaged in a game of baseball yesterday. The same pleasant and happy little dampness that visited our own fair city was present at Victoria. Naturally, baseball was forgotten.

It was the first time this season that rain has caused a postponement of a game for the Tigers.

The stamping grounds of the Vancouver Beavers were likewise moistened, so the Indians and the subalterns of Robert Brown were forced to spend their second day this week in idleness.

Speed McDonnell, the latest Tiger to be added to the fold, is expected to get into the game here tomorrow. "Speed" can play a variety of infield and outfield positions, so where he will be placed is more or less a puzzle.

The K street boosters will be on deck tomorrow en masse (high-brow stuff for "some bunch") to whoop it up for the Bengals. Together with the Old Town contingent and their brass band, there ought to be enough rooting.

Mike Lynch will make his first appearance here since he managed last year's team, and will have a big gang of friends on hand to give him said hand. The K street Boosters are said to be planning a nice pleasant little surprise for Michael, so there'll be no danger of the Bee leader being overlooked.

OWEN BUSH PROUD TO BE "MOTHER'S BOY" DETROIT INFIELDER LIKES TO HELP AT HOME

OWEN BUSH

Inasmuch as Owen Bush, the pee wee shortstop, is a Detroit ball player, the supposition is that Manager Hugh Jennings is his boss. But Hughie is merely an assistant boss.

The real boss, chief adviser, the guardian angel of Owen Bush, is Mrs. Ellen Bush, 55, widow and mother of the spec marvel of the Detroit infield. Bush is "mother's boy" and glories in the title.

The affection between the little ball player and his mother is an old story to their friends. Mrs. Bush still thinks of Owen as her baby and her baby is a national character.

"I hated to see Owen become a ball player and I cried when he went to Dayton and to Marlon and to South Bend, when he was scarcely old enough to wear long trousers. But it's worse now, for he goes so far from home," said Mrs. Bush.

"He is a good son, and of course I like to see him praised.

1908 and helped win the pennant, but was too late to play in the world's series. He was 15, or was it 16? when he joined the Dayton club and 19 when he had such a good season with Indianapolis and helped Carr win the pennant," said Miss Bush.

"Owen stays home most of the time when in town. He bows considerable and has competed in the national tournament.

"I hope Owen stars for years, for I'd hate to see him return to the minors and be treated as some of them are. Whne he's through

MOTHER

"I feel badly when he makes an error.

"When Owen was with Indianapolis I used to see him play nearly every day and it did me good to hear the people cheer him."

Another worshiper of "Donnie" is his sister, Elizabeth, who says the Detroit short fielder is a dunce with the broom and dust cloth about the house, but, girls, he draws the line at dishwashing.

"Owen will be 24 in October. He joined Detroit in the fall of

RETURNS OF H. S. MEET IN PINK

Complete returns, announcing the winners of the track meet between Stadium and Lincoln Highs in the Stadium this afternoon, will be out in the Times Pink. All the interesting events of the meet will be chronicled.

The track events commence sharply at 1:30 o'clock, and it is hoped that they will terminate in time for the ball game to begin at not later than 4 o'clock.

The local high school lads believe they will capture the majority of points. Bandy in the hurdles and Roberts in the dashes are looked upon as sure winners, and Crane is practically sure of the high jump. Other athletes, while not so prominent, are expected to do well, and Tacoma is counting on adding Lincoln's scalp.

FARMER BONDS ARE SIGNED

Joe Bonds, Tacoma, and Frank Farmer, Kapowsin, both heavyweights, have finally reached an agreement, after dickering for a month, and will meet for the championship of Pierce county on May 20.

Both fighters have been more than willing to meet, but a final agreement could not be reached until today. Promoters in nearby towns are anxious to stage the bout, but both Bonds and Farmer prefer to fight in Tacoma. The place will probably be decided upon within a few days.
