HOW TO KEEP IN PERFECT HEALTH. A Wonderful Complexion WITH WHITBREAD

The English race has for over 100 years consumed the famous Whitbread English Ale or Whitbread Renowned Stout (Malted Extract), made from the finest barley, malt and hops. Matured naturally in bottles in England and sent direct to America by the great house of Whitbread and do not contain any artificial gas. The greatest doctors in England have recommended to thousands of women the Whitbread Stout for their ailments. For mothers, invalids and those in a nervous, run-down condition it is invaluable. The most temperate people drink Whitbread Ale because it is not only a delicious beverage but a blood giver and tonic. Doctors, clergymen and professional men have taken Whitbread to build up their systems and keep them in good condition. People in a run-down condition or susceptible to colds will find the most wonderful effect from taking Whitbread. A glass with your meals and again at night time will give that restful sleep. A dozen bottles can be obtained from your local dealer, but do not accept any substitute as Whitbread is totally unlike all other English Ales or Stouts, being naturally matured in the bottles and is therefore most easily digested. A trial for one week will convince you of the wonderful effect of either Whitbread Ale or Whitbread Stout. St. James Importing Co., 278 West Broadway, New York City.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots, How to Remove Easily. Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from Crown Drug Co. and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold, under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

CYNTHIA GREY'S ANSWERS.

"Suppose the Tables Were Turned."

Dear Miss Grey: As I have become interested in your letters, I would like to say a few words concerning the many broken hearts. For instance, a letter I noticed signed "Brown Eyes," stating she had heard disrespectful stories about her loved one and was about to turn him down for this scandal. My friend, what sort of characters have those who speak disrespectful of your lover? Are they pure, or do you think if they would get busy and weed out their own faults they would have enough to do to keep themselves occupied. Do unto others as you would they should do unto you. If you do not wish your loved ones to listen to others gossip of you, treat him accordingly. Suppose the tables were turned. A SUBSCRIBER.

Sufficient Grounds.

Dear Miss Grey: Will you kindly answer my questions? First, if a man has a terrible disease and marries, not telling his wife until after they have been married some time, and the wife asks for a divorce will she get the child? I have one child and can never think of giving him up and cannot continue living with my husband he is so cruel. Can I sue for a divorce immediately after leaving? If not, how long must I wait? I thank you, Miss Grey, and hope for an early reply. CHARLOTTE. A.—The above mentioned grounds are sufficient for a divorce and you may obtain one as soon as you wish after leaving. I cannot say positively that you will get custody of your child, as that will depend on the evidence produced on both sides; but if you can prove that you are a clean, moral woman there is no doubt but that you will get your child.
