Dr. Clark Tells Mothers How To Bathe Our Better Babies

The Call of the Baby Should Come Before the Call of the Housework, She Declares.

By Dr. Mary Vaupel Clark.
Most mothers would feel that you had insulted them if you intimated that the baby they love so much was not their most precious belonging—and yet these same mothers will sometimes let the "call of the housework" come before the "call of the baby."
Every mother should determine if anything is to be neglected it must not be the little helpless atom of humanity whose only hope and shelter is her tender heart and loving arms.
Take time to bathe your baby every morning, even if you must leave the breakfast dishes until later.
Bathing the baby is such a delightful task that it does not seem possible that any mother would neglect it. She can make it her rest time during the morning. A baby should be bathed every day if it is perfectly normal and does not show any temperature, but if the baby is the least bit feverish and "fussy" a sponge bath in tepid water often will do him more good than a dose of medicine.
The bath should be of the temperature of 98 degrees F., and this should be decided by the use of a thermometer and not by the hand. The child should be ready for the bath when the bath is ready for the child, or the water will become too cold. The child should be placed in a warm blanket while being dried and then be at once slipped into warmed clothing.
Never bathe the baby just after it has had its milk. Use only the best soap and be sure that the "wash rag" you use is perfectly clean.
I have seen mothers use cloths to wash their babies with that are wet and almost soon from being left in a "wet wad" from the last bath. Don't be afraid of bathing your baby even if it has stomach trouble. Indeed, a bath will be found to be of great benefit.

After you have used soap and water rinse well with clear water and pat the baby dry with the softest of CLEAN towels and the lightest of touches.
As baby lies on his back most of the day, you can impart an extra coolness to him by laying him over your lap before you put on his clothes and rubbing talcum powder over his little back.
Put your baby in the bathtub at least once a day and you will be astonished how soon he will grow to love it and he will stretch and squirm and "oo" when you rub his back afterward with the powder. It is well to do all this just before his feeding time and not less than two hours after a meal, so that when he is bathed and dressed he can be fed and like any other comforted and comfortable little animal can go to sleep.

SOCIETY

A number of Tacomaans, members of an auction bridge club to which Gov. and Mrs. Lister belong, were delightfully entertained at the governor's mansion in Olympia Tuesday evening. The Tacomaans motored down in the afternoon, returning late in the evening by moonlight. Covers were laid for 20 and the table decorations had pink as the essential motif. The guests for the dinner and evening included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drury, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Titlow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mudgett, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Haskell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Messinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Todd, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamborn.

Members of the Wittengemote Round Table were delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon with a handsome luncheon given by Mrs. George W. Bullard, the club's president. The Prospect Hill home of Mrs. Bullard was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Musical selections were given by various club members during the afternoon.

Tacoma friends of Ernest B. Hendry are interested at the announcement received yesterday of his wedding May 1 in Bethlehem, Pa., to Miss Lillian Wetzel of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Hendry came to Tacoma quietly after their wedding trip and are at home to friends at 1014 North Fifth st.

An informal banquet will be one of the features of a meeting this evening of the Tacoma Business Women's club at the Tacoma hotel.

John A. Logan Aid society was entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Bott, 618 South G street.

The Central W. C. T. U. will hold a rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday at 2220 North 30th street, Old Town.

A dancing party will be held at Burton Friday evening by the T. L. D. club, members going to the island town in a launch at 7:30 o'clock. Chaperones for the evening will be Mrs. Fitz-Henry, Jean's orchestra will play for the dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Fogg entertained informally last evening at their apartments in the Lewis in honor of Mrs. Fogg's sister, Mrs. O. G. Hansen of Olympia.

One of the larger bridge affairs of the week was that yesterday given by Mrs. G. O. Hickox and Mrs. Ralph C. Cunningham at Sloan's hall on North I street. One hundred guests attended. The rooms were decorated in Scotch broom and green sprigs.

Following the completion yesterday of the school year at Whitworth college, members of the graduating class will devote their time to preparations for the commencement exercises.

The annual social gathering of the Philadelphia class of the Methodist church will be held tomorrow afternoon, instead of Memorial day, as formerly planned. The hostess will be Mrs. F. H. Skeewis, 625 South Trafton street, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Boyle, Mrs. K. N. Eldredge and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lewis. St. Mrs. J. L. Hamilton.

Letters To Cynthia Grey

For Summer Wear.
Dear Miss Grey: We are two brunettes and would like to know if a medium brown dress would look good on us?
Is medium brown a dark or light brown? Is it a good color for summer?
TWO BRUNETTES.
A.—Medium brown is half way between light and dark brown. It is a good shade for summer wear and you should look well in dresses of that color.

When you are reading and come to a word you do not understand, look it up in the dictionary, copy it with the meaning in a little note book, kept exclusively for this purpose. Once in two or three weeks review these words and in a surprisingly short time you will find your vocabulary increasing rapidly.
Too Young to Realize.
Dear Miss Grey: I like many others have come to you for some of your good advice.
I am 16 years old and have been going with a young man of 17. He is a very nice young man and has always acted so to me, but the other night I went to the theater with him and when we were coming home he asked me to kiss him.
This I would not do, and it made him very angry and he did not speak to me until the other night he asked me to go with him again. I did not know whether to go or not. Do you think it would be proper for me to? I love him very much and I think he does me.
Very anxiously waiting.
LILLY.
A.—Do not go with him again unless accompanied by either of your parents or some older person. Both of you are too young to be other than good friends.
When you are old enough to realize what love is you will understand how silly and disgusting such talk sounds from 16 and 17-year-olds.

was about a year. Ever since then she has led a straight life.
She has made me a good wife, devoted and loves me extremely; but I fear for the future, think I could never be happy again, though I still love her. Would you advise me to separate? Do you think she is to blame for her earlier life? Should she have told me her history before marrying me? Has she a right to my affection any more?
All these questions I bid you to answer in one of the early issues as I want a woman's point of view on this matter.
HARRY.
A.—"Judge not that ye be not judged, for with what judgment ye judge it shall be meted again unto you."
It is never too late to do right. The world in general is too selfish, conceited, yes, hard-hearted, toward the erring one. Professing to follow in Jesus' footsteps, they more often go in direct opposition to his teachings.
I hold the man in this case responsible and to blame for leading a young and inexperienced girl astray. Never did a girl go wrong by herself. Why is it a man can wreck a girl's life and still mingle in society, exonerated by it, while it kicks the girl down and tramples on her?
Your wife's extreme youth and lack of motherly training and advice plead for her. She has been a good wife, you say, and you love her; then do not think of giving her up. Do not allude to the past; let it be dead—as though you had never known. You can make your future happy or sad, just as you choose. Try never to think of her past, but when it does come to you, think how you would be treated were you in her place.
As a rule I deem it best for young men and women to tell each other of their past before marriage; but to disclose such a secret is much easier said than done. If the girl had studied your character and felt confident that your love for her was greater than would be your disapproval should you ever find it out, can you blame her for not telling?
Yes, if you love her and she loves you, she has a right to your affection as much as she ever did, and this is my honest advice: Stand by her and help her to live above and forget a past for which she was not wholly responsible.

Buying a Player-Piano
Is a More Serious Matter Than Buying An Ordinary Piano for Hand Playing

In the average home a piano is possibly played by only ONE member of the family two or three hours per WEEK or per month.
There are a number of well-known American Pianos so thoroughly standardized as to workmanship and material, that under the above conditions and with ordinary care they will give years and years of satisfactory service. And to buy such a piano becomes merely a matter of selecting a tone quality that pleases.
But EVERY member of the household uses the PLAYER-PIANO. It must be READY TO WORK FOR HOURS, DAY IN AND DAY OUT.
We have among the VERY FIRST to sell PLAYER-PIANOS and have found that there are very, very few PLAYER-PIANOS that are TROUBLE PROOF.
And of these few

has established itself as the safest, soundest, and simplest player-piano made.
Don't wait until you have spent your money for a "JUST AS GOOD" only to find that your HINDSIGHT is better than your FORESIGHT and to wish you had bought a GENUINE AUTOPIANO. Come in to our store and see how easily YOU can play your favorite music on an AUTOPIANO, and welcome whether you purchase or not.

Suffragette Roasts The Men Who Do The Legislating

"Roughnecks is the only term which may be fittingly applied to some members of the legislature of California which has occupied the attention of the world on account of its attitude toward Japan in connection with anti-alien land ownership legislation," according to Miss Blanche Morse.
She divided the California lawmakers into classes as follows: College men; idealists, to whom nothing is real but the ideal; professional men; business men; clerks, those who are there merely attending to some one else's business and having no independent voice of their own; second rate professional men, and last, but not least, the roughnecks."
She explained she used without disrespect, but simply to designate the interests for which they stood.

"The field for legislation, according to Miss Morse, ranged from fixing the legitimate size of a hen's egg to the abolition of capital punishment, from blue sky laws to red light laws, and from the pensioning of mothers to making pipe lines common carriers.
"The only thing that was omitted from the wide range," declared Miss Morse, "was the providing of an adequate penalty for the act of being senator or assemblyman.
"The amount of oratory wasted is painful to the thrifty woman. The last thing that a legislator wants to do is to place his measure before the house, to let it stand or fall by its own merits.
"The resolution tactics resorted to in the legislature would not be tolerated five minutes in any woman's organization I ever sat in."

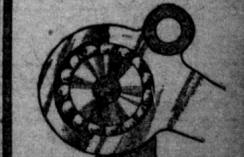

How to Acquire Health and Beauty

HOW TO HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR—An occasional massage with a quinzoin hair-tonic is very beneficial to both hair and scalp. To make the tonic add an ounce quinzoin to 1/2 pint alcohol, then put in 1/2 pint water. This should be gently massaged into the scalp at frequent intervals. Using this quinzoin tonic corrects dandruff and excess oiliness, overcomes brittleness in hair and gives it a rich tint and glossiness as well as induces a healthy, luxuriant growth.
FOR WEAK EYES—A bright, clear, youthful eye is always attractive and admired. Most girls neglect to give the eyes proper care. Very few use an eye-tonic, which is essential in properly caring for the eyes. The following tonic is fine for weak, tired and inflamed eyes: Go to your druggist and get one ounce of crystals and dissolve it in a pint of water. Use two or three drops in each eye night and morning. It will not smart. This intensive eye tonic will do you lots of good and relieve you of that dull, tired feeling above the eyes.
FOR THIN SKIN—If you are uncomfortably fat and wish to reduce your weight, try this simple remedy: Dissolve 4 ounces parrotin in 1 1/2 pints hot water and when it cools take a tablespoonful before each meal. This treatment is quite inexpensive and gradually reduces weight without the slightest possible danger or inconvenience. It does not leave the skin wrinkled nor is the flesh flabby.
WRINKLE-REMOVER—Wrinkles can be quickly removed by using this stimulating vegetable jelly-cream which can be made at home at very little cost and will, while filling out the wrinkles, purge the skin of muddy spots and pimples. Get from your druggist one ounce almond oil and dissolve it in half-pint of cold water, adding 2 tea-spoonfuls of glycerine. Stir and let stand one day. Apply to wrinkled surface or entire face to prevent wrinkles and leave through night. Wash out and gradually reduce the jelly-cream as a massage. This treatment will remove the most obstinate wrinkles or finest crow's feet, while toning the skin to a velvety texture. This cream being greaseless, does not make hair greasy. Advertisement story.

It Wins its way by service
L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

In buying a typewriter you want a satisfactory answer to three questions:
What will it do for me?
How well will it do it?
How long will it do it?
By answering these queries with the needs of the typewriter user in mind, the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Company has attained the front rank in the typewriter field.
Some people think that a typewriter is a typewriter and that in all there is to it. Machines may look alike but there is a lot of difference in efficiency.
The new Model Five is built not only for straight correspondence but for tabulating, filing and in fact for every service needed in the average business.
Its ball bearings at all points where friction develops through action, permit close adjustment and insure correct and accurate typewriting.
