BEAVERS GAIN ON SEATTLE

VANCOUVER, May 23.—With two on bases the first inning of yesterday's game between the Beavers and the Tillamans, Walsh hit to center for a home run and scored two men, more than enough to win the game. Hall out-pitched Gipe of Seattle.

R	H	E
Vancouver	4	7	2
Seattle	1	5	0

Batteries: Hall and Lewis; Gipe and Cadman.

Alberts, the little pitcher Victoria uses in the outfield, seems to have a strange habit of knocking home runs. Wednesday he clouted two of them all by his lonesome.

Odd bits of sport: Rube Marquard or Joe Wood winning an exhibition of our national pastime and amusement.

Baseball statistics show that most of its fatalities are experienced by grandmothers.

A rabid fan said this morning that Holderman's name reminded him of an old maid's prayer. Yes; we bought him a muzzie—he was rabid.

Most prizefighters could make good as advertising managers.

Whenever we meet a boxer now who really fights we have him taken before a lunacy commission.

Is it possible, when they take the Portland Beavers' first baseman out of the game, that they "Derrick" him? (Help, he's choking muh!)

Some infielders are not particular about their footwear. Too many of them have boots.

Pretty neat, eh?

Joe Wood is not setting the American league afire this year, judging by the way his curves have been straightened out.

They are going to have a championship golf tournament soon.

BEES KEEP ON WINNING

VICTORIA, May 23.—The Bees won again from Spokane yesterday. Smith outpitching Covaleski and winning his game, 4 to 1. Smith and Swain stung the ball for homers. Swain also grabbed a single and double. Joe Cohn announces that he has several new players coming to bolster up the team.

MILWAUKEE SHOPS ORGANIZE TEAM

The Milwaukee shops has organized a baseball team and will play a game Saturday night with the night boiler-makers and helpers. Some promising material is to be found around among the railroad men, and they are confident they have a fairly strong team. J. Ghilarducci is captain of the nine.

FROM MAKER TO YOU

To err is human. But to err the way the Bengals have been doing of late is positively inhuman. Five large, juicy bobbles lost Iron Man McGinnity one of the best games he has pitched this season. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of Portland, but should have been 1 to 0 in favor of Tacoma.

The Iron Man counted the only run himself when he doubled to center and scored on McMullin's safe swat. Errors by Ruell, Keller and Grindle helped Portland score. Ruell made three boots himself.

"Spot" McMurdo, released by Bob Brown, has joined the Tigers and will hold down first until the arrival of Holderman. He may be used elsewhere later.

It was the fourth straight defeat this week for the Tigers.

McGinnity had beautiful control, walking not a man.
