

Free Votes to Determine Winners of Fourteen Prizes.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR REWARD EXISTS IN THE TACOMA TIMES GREAT FREE PRIZE COMPETITION—IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO ENTER.

The votes are beginning to accumulate. The contestants in the Tacoma Times Prize Competition are realizing that their efforts put forth now will reward them in votes, greater than they would after July 31st. The votes to be given for subscriptions turned in after the above date will be in smaller amounts. As a result it behooves every candidate to turn in as soon as possible all subscriptions, to the end that their vote standings will be accordingly increased.

In nomination the rest is easy, as votes come easy to the hustlers. They are given in large amounts for every Times subscription payment. Note how it is possible to become a contest leader by simply securing and turning in a few subscriptions.

HOW TO GET 50,000 VOTES

To get 50,000 votes for the prize competition, secure and turn in a three-year subscription payment from either an old or new Times reader.

HOW TO GET 25,000 VOTES

To get 25,000 votes, secure and turn in a two-year subscription payment from either an old or new Times reader.

HOW TO GET 11,000 VOTES

To get 11,000 votes, secure and turn in a one-year subscription payment from either an old or new Times reader.

HOW TO GET 5,000 VOTES

To get 5,000 votes, secure and turn in a six months' subscription payment from either an old or new Times reader.

HOW TO GET 1,500 VOTES

To get 1,500 votes, secure and turn in a two months' subscription payment from either an old or new Times reader.

HOW TO GET THE BONUS VOTES

For every five one-year subscriptions turned in, (or their equivalent, which is 60 months) 50,000 extra votes will be given.

NOTE

The ten-vote coupon appears today, on page 2. Look for it on this page hereafter. The nominating blank is not printed, but anyone desiring to enter can do so by sending their name and address to the Times Contest Manager.

Be sure that all friends clip the coupons from the paper, fill them out and send them to you or to the Tacoma Times. While coupons are not to be sought and accumulated with any idea of winning solely on them, they aid materially, and should not be overlooked, because here, as in the song, every little bit added to what you get makes just a little more. Add to your standings each day and have a great deal more when tomorrow comes.

Now is a good time to call up the friend who promised to give a subscription. Likewise, if you are any other way, you may not have heard that you are seeking to win one of the Times' prizes. If so, telephone or drop a postal to them. This is one way of extending an already profitable vote-getting campaign.

There is always someone in attendance in the Contest Department to attend to the wants of candidates and their friends. If you are thinking of entering, or if you wish blanks for securing votes, call any time before 7:30 p. m. If it is not convenient to come, phone or write and a representative will be sent to you. The telephone number is Main 32.

It is not too late to enter the Times' great prize offer. Anyone can enter by sending in their name and address. When once placed

Advice from Billie

By Billie Burke

Did you know there was a very great menace to the teeth in summer?

It is eating much acid fruit and not cleansing the teeth afterward.

After eating strawberries, pineapples, sour apples, plums, oranges and lemons in fact with almost any fruit except bananas, the teeth should be carefully brushed that none of the fruit acid may be left on them.

Daily diet of oranges without the proper care of the teeth makes this imperative.

Strawberry juice is a very delightful tooth wash and very whitening, but it should not be used more than twice a week during the strawberry season and after brushing the teeth with the juice you should take a piece of magnesia as big as a hazel nut in your mouth and rub it all over your teeth and gums with your finger. Here is a good place to say that if you would massage your gums every day with your fingers after brushing your teeth you will not be apt to have receding gums as you grow older.

Speaking about growing older, don't, I beg of you, wear an ugly high collar unless you want your neck to grow old years before your face.

Cynthia Grey's Answers

Going Home Alone.
Dear Miss Grey: Do you think it wrong for a young lady of 20 to come home alone about 11 o'clock from some friend's house, when she gets off the street car, and don't pay any attention to anybody?
I did this one evening and it seemed as everyone noticed me.
Thanking you for your trouble,
C. H.

A.—It is not best for a girl of your age to make a practice of going alone late in the evening, but if you live close to the car line it is nobody's business as long as you mind your own affairs. Other people should do the same.

You Need Self-Reliance.
Dear Miss Grey: I feel confident you can help me, and therefore am writing you.
I am a young lady and have been working as a stenographer for a few years, but on account of my mother being ill, I am compelled to stay at home several months now, but I need money badly and must do something in order to earn some.

I positively cannot work in the daytime, I must stay at home, but can work nights. I would like a position as pianist in a picture show in the evening. I am capable of doing this, but have no one to give me reference.

I have not asked my teacher, as I feel that it would be of no use, as she says I have ability worth cultivating.

Thanking you in advance, I am,
A.—Confidence and self-reliance, backed by common sense, are all one needs to secure a position. I have heard a number of employers remark that they did not give the snap of their finger for reference or recommendation; that they judged a girl by her capability of doing the work.

Work, go to each theater and apply for the position; if they do not have a place for you at present leave your name and address and phone number. If you are a neat, intelligent looking girl and have talent about that line, you stand as good a chance as the best.

The Heal Cure.
Dear Miss Grey: My husband drinks and I would like to know if you can tell me anything to make him stop. I have a little girl and it just breaks my heart to see him drinking. Please answer.

A.—The real or permanent cure for such habits must come through the mind of the person addicted. All that any medical cure does is to rid the system of the poisons and impurities left by the use of the liquor, and after that they may refrain from its use if they have any self-control or will power.

If your husband refuses to stop drinking, I advise you to re-orient him to the juvenile judge, as he is not executing properly his duties as a father.
