

EVEN THE OLD BANDBOX PARK CANNOT WIN GAMES FOR DUG

SECOND SHUTOUT GIVEN TEALEY'S TILIKUMS

Again it happened. Another shutout, 5 to 0, with the Bengals on the big end. Rub your eyes if you will, but that makes two games that the Tilikums have not scored this week. Seattle fans are beginning to look reproachfully upon that short fence. Incidentally, the Cats have played 27 consecutive innings without being scored upon.

Big Willard Meikle was greeted harshly by members of the team to which he once owed allegiance. In the very first stanza Fries plucked a blow and thieved second. McMullen waffled a hoist that dropped reluctantly over the scoreboard on the starboard barricade. Business of trotting around sacks with smiling faces.

The fifth inning saw the Bengal bats once more busy themselves on Meikle slants. Fries dumped one by the disc, and beat it to first. McMullen heaved his bludgeon at the next hurl and the ball dropped in right for a swat. Meikle contributed a wild pitch and a licensed fog to Keller. Felts lofted a Dallas hit over the second cushion, counting Fries. On the next play McMullen Tetzlaffed for home. Golden Ruell soaked the pill at Raymond, who played ping pong with it while McMullen and Keller counted.

Kaufman pitched a nice game of ball, and was tight as a miser hoarding his gold in the pinches. Grindle caught him behind the bat, and was nearly knocked out once by a foul tip.

Lon Nordyke has resigned as an umpire. He found life with continual crabbing too much of a good thing, so he bunched the whole proposition. Shackelford, formerly a league umpire, and crippled Cy Neighbors, officiated.

Bridegroom Joe Wally is back in uniform again for Seattle. The Tealeykums are in the throes of a marked slump just at present.

Rain again prevented a game between the Colts and Beavers at Portland. It must be pretty wet down in McCreedville.

HIS FIGHTING FACE

Fighting face of "Mexican Joe" Rivera, who will try to take title from Willie Ritchie July 4 at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 25.—"A certain amount of boxing is absolutely necessary to every fighter training for a bout," says Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world. "But boxing is not the biggest feature of a training course. The most important thing is the foundation. By this he rises or falls. If he tries to force himself through a couple of weeks of grueling gymnasium work, just before his battle on a soft, flabby physique, without having laid a firm foundation, he will probably find himself a very wobbly fighter when he steps into the ring. "I have laid the best possible foundation for the training I will go through for my battle against Joe Rivers July 4."

Willie's looks prove what he says. He is as brown as a berry. His complexion is clear and his eyes are perfectly clear. There is snap and ginger in every move he makes; his conversation is animated, and his spirits are high.

He has spent about two weeks previous to the regular training grind at Shannon's on the California mountains, where he lived the best life, sleeping and eating outside, working in the field with the farmhands pitching hay, hunting and swimming and hiking over the mountains.

It was during the last day of his stay at Noland's that the break occurred between the champion and the manager.

"There are many pleasant things that I always want to remember about the Nolan ranch," said Willie. "It is the best place in the world to lay the foundation to begin training. The pure mountain air, the good water and the quiet atmosphere is bound to be restful to a fellow, particularly after jumping about like a cricket for 30 weeks on a vaudeville circuit.

"What do I think of farming? Well, a little of it is good, but the life is a little too lonesome and commonplace for a steady diet. But to get into condition to start training there is no better place than a farm.

NEW CLUB HAS GOOD BOUTS SCHEDULED

The Young Men's Athletic club has been forced to call off the go between Frank Farmer and Romeo Hagen, as both are outsiders, and the boxing is to be between strictly club members. Besides the club does not wish to chance having its bouts stopped, because professional boxers from other cities are brought in. Therefore Farmer and Hagen will not meet July 1.

The main event will now be between Sammy Good, the clever Canadian lightweight, and Harry Bishop, the South Tacoma lad, who hits blows that have the gentle, languorous effect of a nule's kick.

The other bouts should be checkoff of action from the first round of the bell until the last round. In the four-round curtain-raiser Joe Richmond of South Tacoma will meet Earl Connors of the East Side Athletic club.

Paul Steele, remembered as one of the speediest little lightweights who ever appeared in a Tacoma ring, will take on Billy Laskey of the U. S. S. Vicksburg in the second event, and "Fighting Joe" Hennessy will tangle with Hugh Bigelow, well known around Southwestern Washington.

BOATMAN WITH BEES

Willis Boatman, the Puyallup boy who pitched some wonderfully good games for the University of Washington, has been signed by Manager Mike Lynch of the Victoria Bees and will be given a trial in the box. Boatman has sharp curves and great speed, and with a little experience should make good.

Guaranteed Eczema Remedy

The constant itching, burning, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itch, piles and irritating skin eruptions can be readily cured and the skin made clear and smooth with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Mr. J. C. Ewell, of Bath, Ill., says: "I had eczema twenty-five years and had tried everything. All failed. When I found Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment I found a cure. This ointment is the formula of a physician and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we can guarantee it. All druggists, or by mail. Price 50c. Puffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis."

Lightweight Champion Willie Ritchie handling a pair of mules hitched to the horse power of a hay press. Lower picture shows him in action with a 145-pound bale of hay. "If you don't believe this is muscle building work, just take a shot at it," he panted.

Doc Thomas pitches for the San Francisco Seals, but evidently he is far from a reputable physician. Other teams say he is bad medicine.

Empire Newhouse has a rather odd patronymic, but players say it could change it to "Bug-house" and not be odd at all.

Fred Merkle will please write.

With the exception of Ty Cobb, the Tigers of Detroit look as dangerous and bloodthirsty as their feline brethren who crawl rheumatically about in a bush league circus licking their toothless gums.

Some ballplayers gradually round into form, with the exceptions of their conks, which always remain in the contour of blocks.

It is said if the work of Derrick on first for the Portland Beavers does not improve he will be "dericked" in good shape.

Throw that chunk of stove-wood, Martha, the trigger on this shotgun is jammed.

Western league fans think Bill Rapps, once of Portland, has been misnamed. Bill very seldom "Rapps" the ball.

Come on, motorman, and bring your controller.

A Sunday school player refused to participate in an exhibition of the Chadwickian pastime because the naughty and plebeian exponents of said athletic contest very criminally insisted upon the larcenous capturing of bases.

Heave a brick at him, quick.

Now that Pitcher Walker has left Toledo, the other hurlers are expected to have better control.

Outfielder Crum, the latest acquisition of the Tigers, arises to remark he was not bred in Old Kentucky.

Ferry, the former Pirate pitcher, never used to have any trouble getting 'em over.

When Toledo sent Pitcher Walker to New Orleans they received in return Pitcher Swindell. Let us hope they were not made the victim of a New Orleans "Swindell." (Help!)

Judging from the recent work of Big Bill James, he is trying to

Among the drivers already in Tacoma are Teddy Tetzlaff, known as "Terrible Teddy," driving a Fiat; Earl Cooper, Stutz; Jack Welsh, Locomobile; F. M. Nichols, Apperson; James Parsons, Stutz; Bill Taaffe, National; J. M. Thornton, Interstate; Dave Lewis, Fiat; Felice Magone, Fiat.

The Montanara race course is exactly 13,693 feet in diameter in the center of the track, or 3,523 miles. The Inter-City Century race, to be run next Saturday morning, July 5, will be 29 laps around the course, or a total of 102,167 miles. The Golden Potlatch race, Saturday afternoon, will be 57 laps or a total of 200,811 miles. The Montanaramathon, Sunday afternoon, will be 71 laps, or 250,133 miles.

Bob Burman, whose hard luck cost him the Indianapolis races after a bitter contest with Jules Goux, will show real speed on the Tacoma course Sunday afternoon, July 6. In his monster 300-horsepower car, he will make a test run at 2 o'clock in an effort to lower his previous record for the mile on a dirt track.

Hughie Hughes, known as one of the cleanest and brightest race drivers in "the business," will be welcomed back to Tacoma this year. The little Englishman has what he termed "rotten luck" last year when the clutch of his powerful Mercer went out of commission. This year he has a fine big Tulsa, specially constructed for him, and just overhauled. He is coming back to claim a title, he says, and race fans are hoping that he brings his luck with him.

Earl Cooper, driver of a Stutz in last year's races, is in Tacoma and will race this year in the same Stutz that Don Her drove in the Memorial day races at Indianapolis.

News and Notes Of the Amateurs

Jimmy Concaunon, the former Tiger heaver and now ex-Beaver, is pitching for Auburn. He twirled them to victory over Eum-claw Sunday. Jim is a good southpaw, but is a little shy on the gray matter, else he would never have left the Bengal roster.

Sperry employees will have a big barbecue Sunday and the fateful game between the Drifted Snogs and the Germes will take place. This will be some battle, all right, all right.

Little Moeckel, the spitball hurler, is now pitching for the Sperry team—that is, the Drifted Snogs. The little fellow has a nice moist one and generally twirls effective ball.

The Olympic club is but a shadow of its former self, nevertheless, it is still in the ring. All the crack pitchers with which they opened the season are gone, but they have Wog, the former Brewery player, to bend them over the platter.

Roy Wilkowski, who occasionally pitches for the West Ends, and who played first for the Brewers until they broke up, is one of the cleverest amateurs in the city. His fielding is always par excellence, and he stings the ball at all times, besides being a veritable demon on the base.

Carlson, who catches for the Bismarck team, is only a young fellow but he is a nifty little receiver, and has a whip to second that is a warning to base stealers. He is not a weak stick by any means.

There are all kinds of Harstads in Parkland, and about every one of them is a ball player—and a mighty good one. They invariably play the infield or pitch.
