

Adolf Is Certainly Behaving In a Very, Very Mysterious Manner.

HERE WE BEHOLD ADOLF IN A BROWN STUDY. HIS MAGNIFICENT BRAIN SEEMS TO BE GRAPPLING WITH A DEEP PROBLEM. SOMETHING MUST HAVE SUNK INTO HIS MIND AT LAST.

Words by Schaefer. Music by Macdonald.

NOW HE IS HASTENING ALONG THE VILLAGE STREET AS IF HE KNEW WHERE TO GO AND WHAT TO DO AFTER HE GETS THERE. LET US FOLLOW HIM.

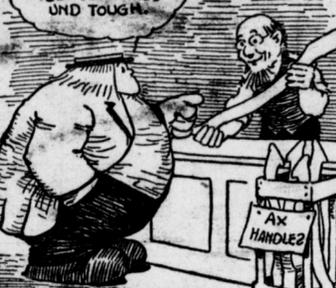

HE TURNS INTO A HARDWARE STORE, WHICH IS A PLACE WHERE THEY SELL HARDWARE AND THINGS LIKE THAT. YES, HIS CONDUCT IS RATHER PUZZLING. WHAT BUSINESS HAS ADOLF IN A HARDWARE STORE?

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, GUNS, SHOVELS, RAKES, ETC.

AH, HE IS BUYING SOMETHING. YES, THAT IS IT.

I WANT A GOOD, STRONG YON. IT MUST BE WELL-SEASONED AND TOUGH.

STILL, IT IS NOT VERY CLEAR WHAT HE WANTS THE AX-HANDLE FOR. THERE IS SOME MYSTERY IN ALL THIS.

LET US BE PATIENT. THE WHOLE SECRET MAY COME OUT TOMORROW.

It failed to work. Hutch wasn't equal to the occasion and Franz Eastley had too much "savvy" on the pill yesterday afternoon. Hence, we read today of another Tiger defeat at the hands of nine Pippins. The game was great. Tacoma played good ball. Hutch pitched splendidly, the fielders played an errorless game almost, but the hoodoo was there somewhere, somehow and "some why."

It was ladies' day, too, and Mac wanted to win. The lineup was changed somewhat as the box score indicates, but this didn't hurt the Tigers' chances any. In fact it looked like a strengthened outfit. The ladies thought so, anyhow.

Well, things were moving quite soothingly for the Tigerettes until round number four, when Nic Williams succeeded in forcing a passage from plate to first. Fitzgerald bunted to Belford and beat the throw to first. Guignol sacrificed him to second (anybody with a name like that ought to be sacrificed) and then "Mahoney" dealt out a vicious double bagger which scored Fitz.

In the eighth Portland scored again when Fitz again got on the bag on a fielder's choice. This fellow Guignol, with the hard hands, singled this time, and a double took the Fitz and Guignol scored Fitz. That was the last.

The Tigers weren't in any danger of scoring except in the third when they got a couple of men on the bags but there wasn't enough steam behind 'em to shoot them in. The score follows:

BROOKLYN'S SOUTHPAW PITCHER AND HIS "DEAD GAME" CATCHER

Injuries have laid low the Brooklyn catchers and unless Manager Bill Dalrymple succeeds in picking up a good receiver the Dodgers threaten to slip down the National league stairway with a dull thud. Miller, who is carrying the burden of the backstopping just now, is playing with an injured hand and is far from fit, but crippled though he is, he played a wonderful game against the Giants, throwing out every man who tried to steal in the game which Rucker won from Rube Marquard before 25,000 fans. Erwin, Brooklyn's first string catcher, is laid low with a broken wrist as the result of trying to block Heinie Zimmerman at the plate when the Dodgers were in Chicago and will not be able to play for several weeks. Nap Rucker, the great left-hander, is with a winning team for the first time since he joined Brooklyn. Rucker is the greatest left-hander in the National league and one of the very best in the game. He pitched consistent ball for the team even in the days when Brooklyn was always in the second division. Now the team is "playing the game" behind him and Rucker is showing just how classy a pitcher he really is. His performance in shutting out the Giants with four hits was one of the finest bits of pitching staged in the National league this summer.

NAP RUCKER AND CATCHER MILLER.

COFFROTH WOULD MATCH-ANDERSON AND RED WATSON

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Promoter Coffroth is endeavoring to match Bud Anderson with Red Watson for a 20-round bout in August. The match should prove a good one, as both men are slashing hitters.

BEAVERS VICTORS AGAIN. VANCOUVER, B. C., July 9.—The Beavers were weaker at the bat against the Indians, but that didn't queer matters any. They won with a 6 to 4 score. Bill Yohe didn't like the way the umpire ruled during the game and threw the ball at him. He missed and instead the ball found a resting place in the grandstand and the fans got sore.

BEES WIN. SEATTLE, July 9.—Seattle lost yesterday when Victoria drove Meikle and McIvor out of the box. The Bees scored 16 hits off the two men. Score, Bees 9, Seattle 6.

WANT GAMES. The R. V. A. C. second team of Seattle is looking for an organization of equal standing in this city for a game. Any amateurs wanting a contest can find the manager at 4325 Findley street, Seattle.

BUD ANDERSON HURT. LOS ANGELES, July 9.—Bud Anderson, of Medford, Ore., and Vancouver, Wash., is today nursing sore kidneys in a hospital here. It is said the lightweight is in a serious condition following his defeat by Leach Cross on July 4th.

TENNIS TOURNEY. On Monday, July 14, the first round of tennis in the annual club championship will take place according to announcement made today. The committee composed of Dr. R. A. Funk, Bob Breeze and Percy Tyler, expect a good turnout for the contests.

Rid Your Children of Worms
You can change fretful, ill tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail, Price 25c. ## Chirps & Chatter

In St. Louis they have a baseball team called the "Fats." And they sure are fat. The total weight of the team, consisting of ten men, is 2,193 pounds. Some weight.

Bodie Collins is making a great record for himself this season. He leads the American league in run getting, is second in base stealing and fourth in batting.

Here's another wild man. Pitcher Vaughan of Kansas City Blues, issued 11 passes to Columbus Wednesday.

ing outfield in the country. Jackson, Ryan and Graney are all clouting consistently in the .300 rank.

"Iron Man" McGinnity has pitched more innings and has walked fewer men than any other twirler in the league. To date the ex-New Yorker has flung 216 innings, and has issued but 25 free bases.

Manager Raymond won't miss Jackson if young Ray Brown continues his stellar performance at the initial bag. Brown is also hitting. He contributed one timely hit Saturday and came through with two more Sunday. Jackson was hurt in Saturday's game.

Bob Ewing, the former Cincinnati pitcher, hurled a game for the Bellefontaine Greys of Ohio and defeated the Columbus All Professionals. Besides his good pitching, Bob was at bat four times, poled out two doubles and two singles. Looks as if the old man still had something in him.

The series with the Beavers proved disastrous to the Tillamucks. Out of nine games played, the Champs got two.

Snodgrass has been killing the ball since restored to a regular berth. In 12 games on the western tour he batted well over .400.

If, as has been stated by eminent authorities, beating the Pirates means winning the pennant, then there is likely to be a cluster of clubs finishing first.

Meek has dropped out of the .400 department of the Northwestern league sluggers. Despite his descent, Meek still leads the league sluggers by a wide margin. Swain, his nearest rival, is batting 65 points below the Bee catcher. Meek is batting .392 and Swain .327.

That New England league umpire who allowed a batter to take first base on two balls because he knew the pitcher was trying to issue an intentional walk, must have had a date with a can of cold stuff over at the Dutchman's right after the game.

Cadman has again brushed by Shaw in the fight for the leading hitting honors of the Champions. Cadman has elevated to .293, while Shaw is punching the sphere at .292.

While we heartily sympathize with John McGraw, we're rather glad that he, instead of us, got that bust on the mush.

AS AN INVESTMENT

A Panama Hat is Gilt Edge; with reasonable care they are good for three to five years and a certain air of distinction goes with the wearing.

There is no reason why you should pay an exorbitant price for a Panama Hat; we have always sold them on the same basis of profit that we sell a "STETSON" or a "GORDON" Hat. Three prices cover the stock, $5.00, $6.50 and $10.00.

Speaking of Caps—we've a big lot right now Scotch Tweed and Homespun novelties with leather sweat bands and taped seams, beautiful caps, and any one of them for a Dollar.

We've as many more without the leather bands and a little smaller in shape at Fifty Cents. You've paid more money for these grades of caps more than once.

A FABLE

Once upon a time a Star Clout found himself in July Form long before the Training Season opened. To show his Goods he decided to start something that would tickle the tongue of the Club Owner's Tongue. He would hit 'em up for more Coin and if the

With the aid of an Interpreter he wrote Signed Articles for a shag of newspapers, his theme being: "Do I Get My 15,000 Dollars?" And the fans Raved and tore their hair. Of course the Star Clout must get his Rights. The bugs Climbed up on their Hind Legs. They Went, Walked and Gnashed their tusks. The Star Sluggers must be Signed at once. And then Warm Weather came and the fans Forgot the Holdout Hero in Lamping the Box Scores. The Star Sluggers was Shocked. Had the loyal legion Died? Were
