BENGALS HIT WELL AND FIELD WELL AND WIN THE GAME

EASY VICTORY OVER BOB BROWNE'S PET BEAVER CHAMPIONS

Almost perfect fielding, splendid batting and fine pitching won the game for the Tigers yesterday. The Beavers didn't have a look-in the way the home boys were exhibiting their prowess on the field.

In the first inning the Bengals began to show their superiority with the stick. Fries came up to bat and with a mighty swing sent the ball soaring to deep center and before the Beavers could recover it Fries was on his way home.

The Beavers tied the score in the fourth when Harris let a ball pass him, permitting Frisk to reach home. Harris was slightly injured by the ball and had to retire in favor of Crisp.

The Tigers again took the lead in the fifth and in the seventh inning what they did to Schultz isn't worth mentioning. Five runs came across and Schultz had to retire in favor of Doty.

McMurdo reappeared with the Beavers yesterday. He had been loaned to McGinnity early in the season but last week Brown requested that the player be turned back to him.

KID SOUTHPAW WINS 11 STRAIGHT JOE BOEHLING SENSATION OF MAJORS

Winning 11 games in a row is some considerable performance in a major league. Earlier this season Fred Falkenberg won 10 games for the Naps and was lauded to the skies as the "come back marvel."

Just now the major leagues are gasping about the wonderful pitching of Joe Boehling, the left-handed star of the hustling Washington crew.

Boehling to Jesse Burkett's Worcester, Mass. club and there the boy struck his gait, winning 14 out of 22 games and batting .315.

Late in the fall Griffith recalled Boehling. Why he didn't start the kid the full route this last spring is a mystery.

TACOMA MEETS PORTLAND NEXT

Having held their own fairly well against the league-leading Beavers, the Tacoma Tigers will journey this week to Portland, hooking up in a seven-game series with Nick Williams' Colts.

The last series played at Portland was a very disastrous one for the Tigers, in which they dropped seven games in a row. However, they expect to at least break even this time.

After the series with the Colts, the Tigers will return home for a week, meeting the Beavers again, who are practically strangers on this lot, having been away from Tacoma since the opening of the season.

Seattle will again play Mike Lynch's Indians next week, this time switching over to Spokane, where Mike will make his first appearance as manager for the Indians.

Victoria's Bees journey to Vancouver, and it is expected that Bob Brown's men will take most of the games, and increase their lead in the league race.

COAST LEAGUERS TAKE ACTION AGAINST JUDGE M'CREIDIE'S BALL CLUB

A probable switch of the Northwestern league circuit and an entirely new construction is predicted by league magnates today following the meeting of Pacific Coast League directors in California recently in which it is said that official recommendation was made to remove the Northwestern league team from the city of Portland in 1914.

Too much baseball for Portland is the reason given for the action. Although it is said that President McCredie will fight the move and attempt to keep the team in his city, he is credited with the statement that he will abide by the decision of the Northwestern league directors. What plans the managers of the various teams will take up are problematical. With the Portland team out for the season of 1914 there remains the job of finding a substitute city to fill in the gap.

The present directors are afraid of such towns as Walla Walla, Everett, North Yakima and Bellingham. The plan of having a team in Ballard with continuous baseball in Seattle, has been discussed. President Fielder Jones today refused to discuss the situation.

Nick Williams beamed like the morning sunshine Friday, said joy being due to the fact one Harry Meek was adorning the bench for protesting a strike.

Several persons are prone to call Swain Cy, but it is generally the opposing team that does the 'Cying.'

Noticing the trouble our umpires are having this season, we are glad George Ort is no longer in the circuit, or we would be holding a funeral every other day.

Although we hate to say it, Fielder Jones is evidently a better judge of ballplayers than of umpires.

Without making much racket about it, the tennis players now bask in the spotlight.

A bartender has written to ask us what has become of Ody Abbott, displaying the fact Ody's friends have not lost interest in him.

Brooklyn has allowed Troy to win a game from them, which is worse than we ever suspected of Brooklyn.

McLoughlin's defeat is said to be due to the English mist. We rather thing it is due to the fact that the American missed.

An umpire in one league protects himself with a gun. Here is a tip to Casey, Ostdieck, et al.

A fan inquires what Victoria would look like minus Harry Meek. Like a Kansas village after a cyclone.

Frank Farmer now says he may fight Joe Bonds, demonstrating that as a press agent he is in a class with C. Webb Murphy.

A certain Mr. Benedict has been easily whipped by Carl Morris, furnishing conclusive proof that Mr. Benedict is no pugilist.

Pearl Casey made a raw decision at Vancouver, probably laboring under the delusion the Tigers like 'em raw.

MERCY, JOE JACKSON IS LEADING TYRUS COBB IN BATTING BY NINE POINTS

Joe Jackson of Cleveland is the heaviest hitter in the American league, exceeding Old Reliable Ty Cobb by 9 points. Joe has the highest batting average of any player in either of the big leagues. He is hitting .397, with Cobb at the .388 mark.

BONDS AND FARMER TO BATTLE

Frank Farmer, Kapowsin wonder, has consented to fight. Today he made a statement declaring his intention of fighting Joe Bonds of Tacoma on August 11.

The fight will take place in Centralia and will be for the heavyweight championship of Pierce county.

Farmer has gained considerable notoriety recently on account of his numerous statements and denials concerning a battle with Bonds. One week Farmer is training hard for his match and another week he has retired from the ring.

Tacoma fans are rather skeptical about the match.

RITCHIE COVERS BET.

LOS ANGELES, July 28. — Willie Ritchie has today accepted Ad Wolgast's side wager of $25,000 for a match some time in September for the lightweight championship. Ritchie declared that he would require half of the amount to be deposited when the articles are signed.

SPLIT EVEN.

SEATTLE, July 28.—Spokane and Seattle broke even on a double header yesterday, Indians taking the first game by the score of 7 to 4 and the Tillkums grabbing the second by the score of 2 to 0.

Dell was knocked out of the box in the first contest and Fullerton substituted, but all pitchers looked alike to Lynch's hired men.

TIGERS BARELY NOSED OUT BY THE BEAVERS

Not so bad. The Tigers won three out of seven games from the Beavers during the campaign of one week. The Beavers took four. The Bengals seemed to improve not only on the field but the batting average of each individual player has gone up a notch.

With two or three more good pitchers of the McGinnity caliber on the line-up the Tigers ought to break even on the rest of the games this season. The boys are fielding well at present.
