

The Newspaper Enterprise Association has writers and photographers everywhere. Tacomans receive its every feature in the Times

The Tacoma Times

The Times carries the cream of the United Press leased wire service daily. The owners of the Times own the service.

30c A MONTH

THE ONLY INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER IN TACOMA

VOL. X. NO. 201

TACOMA, WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1913.

HOME EDITION

MARSHA WARRINGTON TELLS STORY OF LIFE IN RENO

Whitworth College, Only Presbyterian School in the Northwest, Votes to Move to Spokane

BUTCHERS MAKE BIG PROTEST

IN COUNCIL CHAMBER THIS MORNING DECLARE THAT THE MAYOR'S DEPARTMENT HAD NOT GIVEN THEM A SQUARE DEAL WHEN CHEMIST PITCHFORD DECLARED THEY HAD BEEN USING FREEZUM ON THEIR MEATS.

Eight irate butchers appeared in the council chamber this morning to protest against being published to the world as dealers who doctor their meat as a result of the investigation of the city chemist Tuesday.

Manager Adams of the Commercial market declared there must be some mistake as no freezium had ever been in his market. He thought the mayor's department had not been giving the butchers a fair deal, as they had not been notified samples were being taken as they could keep some also and have some other chemist analyze them.

Herman Martin said as taxpayers the meat dealers, who were reputable citizens, had a right to fair treatment, and they were not getting it. He declared someone would have to pay for publishing the names of meat dealers as using freezium who were not guilty.

Chemist Pitchford said he found sulphates in the meat, and in some of the samples found maggots within an hour after it was bought.

Later in the day one of the dealers brought up a sample of the seasoning he used in his sausage and Chemist Pitchford found it was the seasoning that contained the sulphates, and he told the mayor that he believed some of the nine dealers were using the seasoning innocently, not knowing what it contained.

The mayor advised that no prosecutions be made in such cases. Some dealers, however, were using cracker flour and potato flour to add weight to their sausage and these will be prosecuted.

WILL LICENSE AUTO DRIVERS

Commissioner Mills had an ordinance introduced this morning to license the drivers of automobiles. If it goes through every person who drives a machine which he does not own will have to have a license and be tagged and possibly "mugged" also.

STREET CAR MEN TO HOLD PICNIC

The annual picnic of the T. R. & P. employes will be held tomorrow at Spanaway lake. Elaborate preparations have been made by the company officials to give the boys a rousing good time. Athletic events of all sorts have been provided for and the dancing pavilion will be thrown open all day. As the company wants to see that all have their annual day at the picnic some of the trippers will be taken off tomorrow to allow the men to participate in the fun.

MRS. RUMSEY GIVES UP JEWEL HUNT

NARRAGANSETT PIER, L. I., Aug. 13.—Mrs. Charles C. Rumsey, daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, will return to her home in Westbury, L. I., next week, having given up the search for her $75,000 worth of jewelry.

SULZER IMPEACHED AND WIFE TAKES ALL BLAME FOR STOCK TRANSACTIONS

GOVERNOR WILLIAM SULZER.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The state assembly at 5:16 o'clock this morning adopted resolutions providing for impeachment proceedings against Governor Sulzer. A committee was appointed to notify the senate. The state will probably have two governors. If the resolution is adopted by the senate, the state constitution provides that Sulzer shall relinquish his office until vindicated or ousted. The lieutenant governor, who automatically becomes governor in such a case, is expected to call the state militia if necessary to assume office, because of Sulzer's threats that he will resist suspension.

RIVER OF BEER FLOWS DOWN 11TH STREET

Court house attaches and interested spectators stood in front of the court house on G street this morning with wet eyes and dry throats, watching a river of beer flow down the street. The stream of hop juice was coming from the stock recently confiscated at the American lake hotel.

The heartless law has ruled that all liquor used as evidence must be destroyed, and bottle after bottle was emptied into the street by Deputies Ashby and Shortes, until the odor of malt brought people from downtown post haste up the hill.

LIND'S REPORT IS FAVORABLE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—The house committee on foreign affairs expects to ask the president for a conference on Mexican affairs. It wishes to secure the same information as was given the senate committee. Lind reports all satisfactory in Mexico City, and seems hopeful of ultimate success on his mission.

SCREAMS SCARE BURGLAR

Screams of the mother superior drove a burglar away from the Academy of the Visitation this morning at 1 o'clock. He was on the verge of crawling through the window when he was detected.

SEVENDROWNED WHEN LAUNCH TURNS OVER IN LAKE

DULUTH, Aug. 13.—Seven persons were drowned in Lake Superior this afternoon when the flimsy top of the launch Duplais collapsed, overturning the boat. Twenty-three passengers were thrown into the water of St. Louis bay. Tugs and launches rescued sixteen of the struggling passengers, but all search for the remaining seven was futile.

DIAZ CHANGES ROUTE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 13.—Suddenly receiving dispatches from Mexico City ordering him to change his routing to the Orient and travel by way of Europe, General Felix Diaz, who was to have sailed today on the steamer Empress of Russia, canceled his booking and will leave this evening with his party for the eastern coast, by the Canadian Pacific's Imperial Limited.

STEAMER CHIPPEWA BREAKS DOWN AGAIN

The steamer Chippewa broke down again this morning on her first trip out from Seattle, and drifted about Alki point for nearly an hour until she was towed back to the Elliot bay port. Passengers then waited until the next steamer. The Niaguay was taken from the Olympia run, and left Tacoma in place of the Chippewa at 9 o'clock with 293 passengers. The Greyhound was pressed into service on the Olympia run.

RED FACED, TAILLESS MONKEYS FOR ZOO

Miss Mathilda Mayer, secretary of the Metropolitan park board, this morning went down to the wharf and made a dicker with the chief engineer on the liner Laeisa for the purchase of three cute red faced tailless monkeys for $25 to be placed in the Point Defiance zoo.

TODAY'S CLEARINGS.
Clearings ..... $ 480,025.49
Balances ..... 58,299.31
Transactions ..... 1,203,820.62

Story of $35,500 Find Lands Man in Asylum as a Lunatic

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Aug. 13.—Brayton Gardner, a young man who reported that he had found $35,500 while walking along a railroad here, has shown no signs of improvement since he was committed to the hospital for the insane. He persists in declaring that he actually found the big sum of money.

London Ladies Are Taking Their Clothes Off

BY ED L. KEEN (London Correspondent of the United Press.)
LONDON, Aug. 13.—There is no question that London today is the champion city of the world for diaphanous drapery.

Recent visitors from Paris, Vienna, Berlin, Budapest and even Rochester, N. Y., say the exhibition of female landscapers in Bond street and Piccadilly surpasses anything of the sort they have ever been privileged to see. The militant suffragettes and circumpunct, unfrivolous Right Honorable Herbert Henry Asquith, premier of Great Britain and Ireland, have been blamed for it all. Asquith refused to give women the vote. Thereupon one section of the female population felt compelled to emphasize their claim to equality with men by appropriating their costumes as far as possible; while the other section, as a protest against this method, proceeded to accentuate their femininity by revealing to a greater or less degree those features which distinguish them from the opposite sex. In other words, the latter are garbing themselves in the manner which their experience indicates is most alluring—the gown that delicately suggests what it conceals, the soft, swishy, translucent fabrics that are so effective in assisting the imagination. This view is upheld by one of London's foremost nerve specialists, who declares: "The adoption by the militants of masculine or near-masculine attire has caused a reaction, and the non-militants have thought it their duty to proclaim the femininity by a wholesale process of undressing."

First Pictures of the Diggs-Caminetti Trial

This is the first and only picture of the Diggs-Caminetti white slave trial in Federal Judge Van Fleet's court, San Francisco, Cal. From left to right, are: Atty. Howe for the defense, ex-Sen. Diggs, sr., father of Maury I. Diggs, defendant, is talking with his son (indicated by arrow), who is peering from behind F. Drew Caminetti, son of U. S. Commissioner of Immigration Anthony Caminetti, and also the other defendant. To the right of Caminetti is his brother, Anthony Caminetti, Jr., assisting with the defense. A back view of former U. S. District Attorney Devlin, one of the leading counsel for the defense, is also shown. This picture was snapped in court.

RELATES IN DETAIL HER RELATIONS WITH MAURY I. DIGGS IN RENO BUNGALOW

PROMINENT FIGURE IN WHITE SLAVE CASE APPEARS ON STAND HEAVILY VEILED TODAY AND TELLS STORY THAT MAY SEND ALLEGED WHITE SLAYER TO FEDERAL PENITENTIARY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—(By United Press.)—Heavily veiled, Marsha Warrington resumed the stand again today in the trial of Maury I. Diggs, charged with violating the provisions of the Mann white slave act. She followed John S. Chambers, editor of the Sacramento Bee, who denied the paper had possession of the story of Diggs and Caminetti and intended to publish it. Miss Warrington's voice was stronger than when she appeared on the stand yesterday. After telling in detail her relations with Diggs in the Riverview hotel on the night of their arrival in Reno with Caminetti and Lola Norris, she testified that both girls wanted to return to Sacramento, but Diggs and Caminetti persuaded them to remain because it might lead to the discovery of the men's whereabouts. She stated that Diggs introduced her as his wife when he rented the bungalow. In reply to a question put by Prosecutor Roche whether she and Diggs discarded their clothing in the bungalow Miss Warrington replied: "Yes, we did; Caminetti and Lola Norris also disrobed entirely for the night."

She also admitted improper relations with Diggs and then gave in detail the story of the arrests. Diggs said that it was up to us whether or not they went to the penitentiary," said Miss Warrington, explaining that her partner warned her to keep the facts from the authorities. "He said, 'Don't tell the officers anything. If you are asked, say we two men occupied one bedroom and you girls the other.'" "When the officers knocked at the door we were in the bathroom Mr. Beasley came in and we girls started to cry. Then he put his arms about us to comfort us. I phoned father, at the request of Diggs, to have the warrants withdrawn. Father said he couldn't, as the matter was in the hands of the state authorities."

Roche patiently made it easy and possible for the girl to relate the intimacy charge. Asked if Diggs had a pet name for her, Miss Warrington stated that he often addressed her as "Pickles."

When she finished Miss Warrington placed herself under the care of United States marshals and was soon joined by members of her family. Miss Warrington swore she left Sacramento under duress and under promise of marriage. The ideal would be to have no clothes." Another who holds similar views is Laurence Housman, author-poet, who recently startled folks by advising the militant suffragettes to emulate Lady Godiva and shame men into giving them the vote.

"As to the question of present-day dress," he said, "it is a rather startling change. I think, however, that the present vogue is in a way to the good. It has got rid of a certain amount of superfluous skirts which can only impede women's legs. "No doubt transparent stockings are alluring, but if we are not shocked by evening dress exposures of neck and bust in the ballroom, why should we be shocked by minor exposures of the matter of liberty of limb as for lower limbs in the streets?"

TACOMA SCHOOL WILL REMOVE TO SPOKANE

Whitworth college is going to leave Tacoma.

The Commercial club has failed to take any steps to hold it, according to President McKay, and after giving due time for this city to act the college authorities have decided to accept the offer of Spokane and move to that city.

Such was the action taken by the trustees at a meeting held at the college Tuesday afternoon. The whole matter was discussed in all its bearings and it was finally unanimously voted to accept the offer of the County Homes Development company of Spokane to move to that city, provided Spokane supplements its offer of the site with an adequate cash bonus for buildings and endowment.

"When it became necessary for us to expand and secure larger quarters to handle the work and we received the offer from Spokane for the removal of the college to that city we presented the matter to the Commercial club here to see what they would do in the matter but we have never so much as even heard from them on the matter," said President McKay.

Whitworth college is the only Presbyterian college in the Northwest. It has been in this city for years and is recognized as an institution of merit but it has been hampered by reason of lack of adequate facilities and proper endowment to enable it to expand the work as desired.

When the matter of removal was first talked of it was put up to this city that it could keep the college here if it would make some effort, but according to President McKay there has been nothing done so the college will leave.

It is possible the trustees might be reasssembled for a reconsideration of the decision to move to Spokane if the city would get busy even now as the decision to go to Spokane has a string to it and is predicated on the raising of adequate endowment by Spokane. If this city sits idle Whitworth college will be a Spokane institution in the future, however.

According to President McKay the Tacoma school will remain here for another year. The new site is available for September, 1914. In the meantime plans for the college buildings will be arranged on entirely modern lines. The new buildings will all be constructed and ready for occupancy by September of next year, it was today predicted by President McKay.

TITLOW RANCH CAUSES DOUBLE SUIT IN COURT

Declaring that the orchard on his ranch at the Narrows had been almost ruined by calves and horses, A. R. Titlow is trying to dispossess A. A. Reynolds, to whom he leased the place in January for three years, Justice Westcott is hearing the case. Titlow is also asking $320 damages alleged to be done his fruit trees by the stock of Reynolds. Reynolds has started a counter-action against Titlow, and is suing for $600. He declares it was agreed that he could turn his stock into the orchards.

FALL STYLES IN MEN'S READY-TO-WEAR SUITS Are Here $15.00 to $35.00

SENATE BLOCKS PROBE REQUEST
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—Declaring it a reflection on the governor of that state, Senator Townsend yesterday blocked a petition from the striking miners at Calumet, Mich., demanding that the senate investigate conditions there.

Menzies & Stevens Co.
For Tacoma and vicinity: Fair tonight and Thursday.
For Washington: Fair west portion tonight and Thursday; showers east portion tonight or Thursday.

Pennants Coupon No. 12
Any three coupons clipped from The Times consecutively numbered, when presented at The Times office, The "Want Ad" Corner, Ninth and Commerce, with 15 cents, will entitle you to a 50-cent pennant. A beautiful Alaska Pennant this week and next. Pennants will be sent by mail without additional charge. Bring or mail to The Tacoma Times, Ninth and Commerce.