Lest Justice Forget

Several months ago the fact was made public that the firm of John Wanamaker had defrauded the United States government of an enormous sum of money by customs swindles.

"Holy John" Wanamaker, who parades his piety on any and all occasions, paid one hundred thousand dollars to escape the consequences of this crime. The money was paid over one day before President Wilson assumed office. As soon as Wilson learned of the transaction he ordered Atty. McReynolds to make a rigid investigation of the whole business. As a consequence, a special grand jury was impaneled, and is supposed to have been probing these frauds now for some months. Not a word of what they have been doing, discovered, or intend to do, has been made public.

The officials connected with the case curiously refuse to give any information to the public.

John Wanamaker paid one hundred thousand dollars to escape prosecution for a long series of frauds on the government of this country. If an ordinary citizen committed a crime, and, when discovered, offered a sum of money to hush it up, he would be at once clapped into jail.

What is the reason for the leniency shown John Wanamaker?

"The hesitation waltz" is the coming dance. In its fifth position there is a "wave movement," and you don't care a cent if it's earthquake movement in the other positions.

Friends of the family can get their flowers ready. Editor of El Pais, Mexico City, has got out an edition intimating that Huerta cooked up those elections.

In emergency, Uncle Sam could put into the field on a day's notice 500,000 fully equipped men, army officers announce. They could all be vaccinated by the second day, too. Isn't Uncle Sam the swift old war dog, though!

Chauffeurs are forbidden to smoke while driving cars in Berlin. Too bad they can't forbid the automobiles to smoke in the U. S.

HERBERT QUICK SAYS TODAY

"JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S PHILANTHROPY WILL REDEEM MILLIONS TO MAKE HIM AND HIS HEIRS RICHER."

Herbert Quick.

By HERBERT QUICK.
Author of "On Board the Good Ship Earth," "Virginia of the Air Lines," Etc.
(Copyright, 1913, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
John D. Rockefeller is sure to die the world's greatest philanthropist. He has given a hundred millions to the Rockefeller Foundation. One of the tasks of this foundation is to find a cure for cancer. There is scarcely a disease on the trail of which the Rockefeller researches are not camping. Men like Carrel and Flexner march in this war UNDER ROCKEFELLER'S BANNER.
The work of this great Foundation in combatting the hookworm is of itself the greatest of all philanthropies, judged by its results.
Hookworm is probably MAN'S WORST ENEMY. Few will believe this on the first statement, but a survey of the world shows that from the latitude of 32 degrees north to 30 south all the world is infected with the hookworm.
Hookworm in nearly a third of the United States, all Mexico and Central America.
Hookworm in nine-tenths of South America, all of Africa, the most populous part of Asia and three-fourths of Australia.
Hookworm in practically all the rich islands of the South seas and in the West Indies.
Hookworm, in short, in four-fifths of the habitable world. And note this: Read the list of infested countries and you will call the roll of the BACKWARD, DEBILITATED, BENCHINGED, INDOLENT, INEFFICIENT PEOPLES.
Rockefeller's money has already cured scores of thousands of hookworm victims in the United States. The medicine costs less than ten cents a cure, and never fails. To the extent that the unprogressiveness, indolence and inefficiency of the tropical peoples are owing to hookworm infection, Rockefeller's money can redeem these millions from the curse of tropical inferiority. I have no doubt that this inferiority is owing, not to the heat of those climes, but to infestations of hookworm, malaria, yellow fever and a few other plagues of less consequence. ROCKEFELLER—

LER WITH HIS MILLIONS IS ON THE TRAIL OF THEM ALL. And yet so miserable is the plight of a Midas that even his most sacred aspirations serve his pocketbook. Midas had the golden touch that turned everything to gold—the flowers when he tried to smell them, the food that entered his lips, the very ringlets on the head of his beloved.
So it is with Rockefeller. He has cured a hundred thousand people of hookworm. They at once became active, industrious citizens. They read—by kerosene lamps. They clean up—with gasoline. They spray their orchards—with power sprayers driven by gasoline or motor spirit. They travel—on railways. Every one of these new activities pay tribute to Rockefeller.

So it will be all over the world. Rockefeller's money will redeem from disease millions and millions—to make him and his heirs richer.
He has no longer the power to make sacrifices. He can no longer do good to others, on a large scale, without at the same time reaping money benefits for himself. He has the Midas touch which turns to gold the things which would make him much happier if they could remain flesh and blood.
The tramp under the railway water tank has one power which Rockefeller has lost. He can give away the crust he has begged. Rockefeller can give nothing away. Like Stevenson's Bottle Imp, it comes back.
Of all men who ever lived, the status of John D. Rockefeller is strangest and most pitiable.

The FREE
Is the Lightest Running
Sewing Machine
in the World
Ball-bearings make light running, and for this reason, in the Free stand, where the most friction is, every bearing is ball-bearing; both ends of the treadle, both ends of the pitman and both sides of the drive wheel are fitted with ball-bearings of the latest type.
If you unbolt the Free stand and start it running as fast as possible, it will run from four to five minutes without stopping.
Do you realize that this means that when you sew on the Free you will have less backache and will not be near so tired at the end of the day's work?
