Street and Dancing Costumes For the Up-to-date Young Girl

By Mme. Cecile Dillon.

Youth has a beauty all its own, and the dressmaker should always remember the simpler the frocks of the young girl are made the more artistic and stylish are they.

The tailor-made gown that is illustrated is of navy blue whipcord—a splendid wearing material. It is trimmed with green braid.

The coat is a simple straight kimona which folds across the front and it has a narrow high belt which does not bring it into the figure at all.

The skirt is perfectly plain with one front folded over the skirt at one side and a kind of plain pep-um which is made in a point on the other side.

The waist worn with this suit is of soft white net made very full and trimmed with shadow lace in the "V" shaped neck. The close hat and muff are of navy blue velvet with gray plush at the rim.

The little white dancing dress is of accordion pleated mousseline. Any girl who knows how to sew can make this little frock, as she can buy the accordion pleating at a dry goods store and the waist is the simplest kimona.

Dear Miss Grey: Like other boys and girls, I am writing to you for advice. I am going with a young man. He is quite a bit older than I am. My parents and sisters object to my going with him.

There is another boy who comes to our house, and, Miss Grey, I cannot bear him. He smokes and drinks, and does not know how to treat a girl. My parents like him, and think I should go with him; but, Miss Grey, I do not like him. Would you give up a boy that you like and that treats you with respect to go with one that is no good to please your parents? They treat me mean because I won't. They make me slave for them just for that reason. Miss Grey, please do not throw this aside, because I am certainly perplexed in what to do. I am waiting for a reply, and I will certainly be thankful if you will answer.

PERPLEXED.

A.—It is a serious thing to advise a young girl to leave home; but I believe it is more serious for her to remain under influence such as you describe. If you are under age, go to the juvenile judge, and talk it over. He will help you, I know.

If you are of age, go to the Y. W. C. A. and tell them what you have me. Ask them to help you get a place to work with a respectable family, and that you will pay the employment fee with the first money you earn. Do this before you leave home, so that you will have work to do at once. Remember, I am not advising you to leave without the protection of someone. No matter how good the "other" boy is, he won't do for a protector just now. You need a woman to help you, so do as I say, or stay where you are.

Whatever you do, hold tight to your inane sense of good and do not be persuaded to marry an indecent man. You don't have to. Any good woman at the Y. W. C. A. or the juvenile court will help you.

Dear Miss Grey: My husband has left home, but is working in the city. He is angry at me because I want him to spend his money at home instead of other places. Now, he is tormenting my boy, 16, and tells him if he does anything toward things at home he will knock him out of his job. He is telling lies on me and trying to put the boy against me. Is there any way to stop him?

M. A. D.

A.—There certainly is. Take the matter to the juvenile judge, and he will soon put a stop to such threats, and compel him to pay something toward the support of the family. If you can prove

Margaret Illington Receives Ovation in Powerful Drama

Had Miss Margaret Illington been a total stranger to Tacoma audiences, she would have scored a tremendous success last night when she brought to the West for the first time her thrilling new drama, "Within the Law."

But, since she was Margaret Illington, wife of a prominent Tacoma man, member of Tacoma society, and acquaintance of almost everyone in last night's audience, her appearance resulted in an ovation never before given an actress in this city. Her intense acting and delightful personality, coupled with the fact that her play is one which Eastern critics

Society

The most important event of the social world this week is the advent of Miss Margaret Illington, former resident of Tacoma and wife of Edward J. Bowes of this city, who appeared at the Tacoma theater last evening in "Within the Law." The capacity house that greeted Miss Illington contained members of practically every socially prominent family in the city. There were numerous box and theater parties, with many dinners before and suppers afterwards.

For the benefit of the laundry girls of Tacoma who are attempting to make their co-operative laundry a success, the L. W. N. of Tacoma is planning a dance for the near future.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church is preparing for its annual fall sale of dainties, to be held in the church parlors November 19. Mrs. E. Otto, Mrs. C. Arnold, Mrs. O. Roeder and Mrs. W. Schober will have charge of the booths.

Mrs. W. W. Seymour is entertaining this afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. C. Davie, who leaves soon for Centralia to live.

Mrs. Sackville of Oelwein, Ia., was guest of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by Mrs. L. S. Hamlin in her apartments at the Drury. Other guests were members of the Thursday Thimble club. Covers were laid for 15.

One of the coming events will be a bridge party Friday afternoon, November 21, for which Mrs. Ben Olson has issued invitations.

A handsome dinner party was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson on North 5th street, honoring Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davie, who leave Tacoma shortly.

MONEY SAVED BY MAKING YOUR COUGH SYRUP AT HOME

Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar and mix it with one ounce of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the sugar syrup, you will have a much better cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful two or three times a day. It keeps perfectly.

You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever used in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualacol and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is easier and more home than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It.

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried every remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned.

I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of Rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

NIXOLA GREELEY-SMITH SAYS TODAY

BY NIXOLA GREELEY-SMITH. (Copyright, 1913, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

The convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union has just closed its sessions with a declaration in favor of woman suffrage and a denunciation of the "dual standard of morals."

A splendid day's work which will find an echo in the hearts of women all over the world. For even those women who are not yet awakened to the need and the justice of suffrage for their sex realize that if there is ever to be any real spiritual progress for the human race, one single high standard of morals must prevail for MEN AND WOMEN!

For a long time, by the deadly policy of taboo, that foolish conspiracy of silence which holds that the only way to deal with unpleasant things is to pretend that they don't exist, men and women were prevented from discussing their moral divergences. Today, however, we have reached a point where the most important things of life are no longer held to be unmentionable, and when men and women talk together of morals, the argument on the men's side ends invariably with the declaration that women do not understand the nature of man and that the single standard of morals will be forever impossible save in the sense of no morals for anybody.

I love you, Jane, but the deep, primordial nature of man makes it impossible for me to swear to you that fidelity which I shall expect and exact from a woman." Jane would retain a certain respect for John's honesty even while she turned him down. But in all the history of courtship, no John Doe has ever said these words. In fact, it is not until several years after she has become Mrs. Doe that Jane hears anything about those sub-cellars of feeling in the masculine soul and even then she learns of them by the accident of an intercepted letter.

YOUR HAIR NEEDS PARISIAN SAGE

Use It as a Tonic—Banish Dandruff—Stop Falling Hair and Scalp Itch.

Parisian Sage is a delightful and invigorating hair tonic. It quickly penetrates into the scalp, gets to the roots of the hair, removes dandruff, and supplies the hair with just the kind of nourishment it needs to make it grow abundantly.

Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons:

- It is not injurious to the hair or scalp.
- It removes dandruff with one application.
- It stops falling hair and itching of the scalp.
- It cleanses, cools and invigorates the scalp.
- It makes hair that is thin, dull, matted or stringy, soft, abundant and radiant with life. It not only saves the hair, but gives it that incomparable gloss and beauty you desire.

Parisian Sage is delicately perfumed—not sticky or greasy—and comes in fifty cent bottles at druggists or toilet counters.

Get a bottle from Virges Drug Co. now—at once. Rub a little into the scalp—you will be surprised with the result. Delighted users pronounce Parisian Sage the best, most pleasant and invigorating hair tonic made. Be sure you get Parisian Sage.

BACKACHE IS A DANGER SIGNAL

Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, Rheumatism, and Serious Diseases Follow.

The kidneys get clogged up, the same as the bowels do. Then they become sluggish, and only filter or strain out a part of the waste or poisonous matter, all the rest remaining in the blood and poisoning the system.

As soon as you notice the first indications of backache, pains in the sides or aches around the kidneys, or if the urine is light and pale, dark colored, cloudy, thick, or has an offensive odor, burns, is scalding or irregular in passage, take a little Croxone three times a day and end these troubles before they become more serious.

There is no more effective remedy known for the prompt relief and cure of kidney, bladder troubles and rheumatism, than Croxone. It soaks right into the kidneys through the walls and linings; cleans out the clogged up pores; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter that lodge in the joints and muscles, and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drive it out of the system.

A few days' use of this new scientific preparation is often all that is ever needed to end the worst backache, or overcome the most annoying urinary disorders. You will find Croxone entirely different from other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if it should fall in a single case.
