"CASCARETS" FOR LIVER-HEADACHE

You're bilious and constipated—Clean up inside and feel bully.

Get a 10-cent box now. You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

"The Confession," Given at Princess, is Keen Drama

Scene from Reid's powerful drama, "The Confession," which opened a week's engagement at the Princess theater Sunday. It is a new play, and won strong endorsement from Cardinal Gibbons when it was produced in the East a year ago.

The sanctity of the Catholic confessional, wound around the powerful brother-love of two strong men—one a priest and the other an accused murderer—form the central theme of "The Confession," one of the most dramatically tense plays ever produced at the Princess theater. The play scored a great success at its opening performance yesterday and will undoubtedly attract capacity houses all week.
Robert McKim, as Rev. Bartlett, the priest who hears the confession of the real murderer and dare not reveal the secret even to save his own brother from the gallows, has the most difficult part in the play and carries it with remarkable effect. William Brewer, Miss Florence Bell, Ethel Tucker, Hazel Bess Laugenow, and the dozen other members of the company, share in even honors for a most successful presentation. "There will be ladies" bargain prices tonight, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

JULIAN ELTINGE HERE TOMORROW

No actor on the American stage today is better liked or has a larger following than Julian Eltinge, the star of "The Fascinating Widow," who has attained his enviable position through his masterful and artistic portrayals of beautiful women. In "The Fascinating Widow," Eltinge's art is put to the severest possible test by being surrounded by the most beautiful girls Manager A. H. Woods could secure to make up his chorus. The star and play will appear at the Tacoma theater tomorrow night.
