FARMER AND BONDS SNAPPED

TWO HEAVIES INDUCED TO POSE TOGETHER

This picture is not "faked." Joe Bonds and Frank Farmer were induced to pose together, although it was not without a great deal of argument. Had not both of them been courteous, agreeable fellows the picture could not have been snapped.

Outside the ring, however, the logger and the collector are quite amicable in their relations. While they are not chums, neither do they pass each other with scowling looks and eyes full of hate. Bonds, who takes most things lightly, was perfectly willing to pose with Farmer. This is the first time they have been photographed together, although they have appeared together on the same photograph before.

First actual picture taken of Joe Bonds and Frank Farmer together. Photograph by the courtesy of Ibrig Studio.

PERKINS AND CRANE MAY REMAIN AT HIGH

As yet, Coach E. E. Perkins of the Stadium High school is undecided as to whether he will leave to coach Indiana university or not. Although he expects an offer within a few days, none has yet been made.

will be secured to the High school eleven is a matter of conjecture. Joe Willie Coyle and Mel Muckleston, two former stars under Gil Dobbie, have been mentioned, but neither one of them is considering taking the position.

Chirps & Chatter

Second Baseman Groh has demonstrated that he is a happy-go-lucky devil by sticking to Cincinnati instead of going to the Federal league.

MISPLACED SYMPATHY.
We heard Nebraska got Stehm, and we were sympathizing with poor Nebraska until we learned this Stehm was a coach.

The president of the International league has given the Feds plainly to understand they can't trundle along in his Barrow.

VERY PUNK ENGLISH WIT.
C. Murphy declares that no matter what his First Baseman Saier do, he is bound three years to the Cubs.

With careful study and a can-opener, the above can be dissected.

Our notion of a hero unflinching is a ballplayer who'll sign a three year contract to listen to Charles Webb Murphy.

O, MELTED BUTTER.
President Farr of Spokane has been sending contracts both near and "Farr." (Old stuff, kid, old stuff.)

A recruit pitcher in the East is named King Lear. It is sincerely to be hoped he has a happier time than the original.

THIS IS A GOOD ONE.
Now we know why they call Chicago the "Windy City." It's because Charles Murphy lives there.

Our idea of nothing at all: Capablanca's chess battles with Snosko-Borowski and Duschotmirski.

GODRY WETCHER!
Did you get that last one? And it is real, too.

LIGHT ATTENDS MOUNT VERNON GATHERING

Despite the fact that Congressman Albert Johnson has given assurances that no prosecutions are to be made under the federal law, Game Warden Ira Light will enforce the law and report all violations after January 15, until advised to do otherwise by the authorities in charge. As yet, he has not been officially notified that the federal laws are not to be enforced.

Mr. Light left last night for Mount Vernon to attend the meeting of the game commissions and "Swap" the dog for a Persian cat. See Want Ad page.

CON LEAGUE HAS PASSED THE JOKE STAGE

The Conversation league is now to be considered a real, honest-to-goodness organization of serious purpose. In addition to matters of athletic interest, the hyperbolic bunch is going to dabble into politics, and it is expected that the league will prove of some influence in the coming campaign.

At a meeting of the league last night at Rosin's hall a committee of 25 was proposed, which will be announced next Tuesday night, to look into the candidacy of prospective commissioners at the spring election.

It was explained that the league is for the advancement of all clean sports, and they want the municipal commission to promise that they will be sanctioned.

Next Tuesday night a smoker and buffet luncheon is planned by the league, in which an act from each of the vaudeville houses and the Princess is figured upon, as well as two boxing bouts of four rounds each.

The committee in charge of this consists of Dr. Wall, Secretary Corcoran, Clint Manley, Ned Drew, Frank Leslie, Joe McGinty and J. Matthews. This bunch ought to rig up something good.

The charter was left open until the next regular meeting, and new members will be taken in at the smoker Tuesday night.

The league membership is constantly increasing and it is expected to have 1,000 before long.

CHAPMAN IS REAL MARVEL HAS THE SPEED TO BURN

RAY CHAPMAN.

From the infield of a country town high school nine to the American league in three years—such has been the flash across the baseball firmament of Ray Chapman, the chain-lightning shortstop of the Cleveland American association club and the latest sensation of baseball.

Chapman is a speed marvel. He used to do a hundred yards in 10 2-5 seconds and the 220 yards in 23 flat, when a student in the Herrin, Ill., High school and was quite some football player.

Chapman is a shortstop, and a whirlwind shortstop, too. He has a powerful throwing arm and the ability to throw from almost any position. He is so fast that he gets in front of the ball when another would be trying for it with his finger tips.

Chapman hesitated, when he left high school, between scholastic inducement and a contract from the Springfield Three I league club, finally accepting the latter.

Lack of experience held him back, and Springfield was about to release him when Davenport, of the same league, bought him for $250. This was a league joke, but in a short time Chapman had them all watching him.

Bill Armour, then president of the Toledo club, bought Chapman for $1,000, and he later went to the Naps.

BONDS-FARMER BOUT WILL BE FEATURE

Both Joe Bonds and Frank Farmer are in tip-top shape for their bout tomorrow night before the Moose, which will be the feature of the evening. There is more interest in this match than there has been in any boxing bout staged in this city for some time, and it should prove a real head-line event.

The other matches, while not figuring with the prominence of the headline event, ought to be good in most instances. The semi-windup will be between Henry Krieger and Harry Bishop, and if the South Tacoman can overcome the disadvantage in weight, he may be returned a winner.

Joe Hill and Dyer ought to put up a good go, if Dyer is as fast as he is claimed, and there are several other good matches.

BOXING PICKING UP AMONG THE AMATEURS

Amateur boxing is picking up in Tacoma. If the signs are to be believed. At the Y. M. C. A. a squad of boxers are coming along rapidly under the direction of James Coffman, and a smoker is planned for February, in which wrestling will also be featured.

The Cushman Indians are also taking a great interest in the manly art, and will give a program of boxing and wrestling Jan. 24, open to the public.

Boxers at the Armory are also hard at work.
