TOWN'S SPECIAL WEEK OF PRAYER BRINGS A MIRACLE! HELPLESS WOMAN CAN WALK

"IT WAS CHRIST HIMSELF WHO DID IT," EXCLAIMS MRS. S. H. MORAN, PARALYZED 26 YEARS, AND WHO NOW IS WELL.

BY K. W. PAYNE. RICHLAND CENTER, Wis., Feb. 4.—"It was Christ Himself rose before me, and he said, 'Will you lean on me and walk?' I rose to my feet, trembling, and I WALKED—on legs that for 26 years had been helpless, paralyzed!"

This did Mrs. S. H. Moran picture to me the marvelous miracle of faith which they say was worked upon her in a week-long prayer meeting in her little cottage here. I came to Richland Center to hear her story, and I have talked with many who corroborate it.

"Then the pastor turned to me, and anointed me with oil. The room was very dark, despite the faint glimmer of the candles on the mantel. There was the perfume of flowers in the air, and the sound of half-breathed prayers. A sort of musical throbbing beat dully on my ears.

OWN perfect faith in God would bring me His mercy. Then everything around me fell into blackness and I saw Jesus Himself, in a glow of gold. He spoke to me in a voice as sweet as beautiful music.

"Will you walk?" came His voice, leaning on none other arm but mine?"

"Right with His words a great strength flowed into my spirit. 'I WILL!' I cried, and I rose to my feet. I walked about the room, and seemed to feel the guidance of His arm."

The city physician, Dr. G. R. Mitchell, was asked what we should think of this alleged miracle. "All I can say is," he replied, "that two weeks ago Mrs. Moran was a pitiable invalid, and that today she is unquestionably cured."

I asked the same question of Ralph Thurber, newspaper owner, and formerly executive clerk to ex-Gov. Davidson. "We used to think Mrs. Moran absolutely without hope of cure," he answered. "For years she was a familiar sight, helpless in her wheel chair. But since that prayer meeting she walks about at will, totally cured of her infirmity."

Finally I went to Mrs. Moran's pastor, Dr. D. G. Jones, of the Reformed Methodist church. "Except as a wondrous miracle," he declared, "the event is absolutely inexplicable. It was the direct intervention of God."

Find Money in Shoes

After a careful search of their clothing had failed to reveal the money they were believed to have secured on forged checks during their operation in Tacoma, J. R. Williams and George Gilbert, said to be clever forger, were given a second close search last evening at police headquarters, and more than $40 was found in Williams' shoes. The men are said to have obtained $100 on forged checks in Tacoma yesterday.

J. B. IS RESPONSIBLE

MANCHESTER, Eng., Feb. 4.—Sir Edward Gray, secretary of foreign affairs, in a speech admitted England is responsible for the craze of nations in building dreadnaughts, but he was afraid to stop now.

URGES NEW LAW

Miss Marjorie Johnson, city pure food inspector, speaking to the South End Improvement club last night, urged a state meat inspection law. Meat inspection, she showed, was very difficult for the municipality unless the state has supervision outside the city.

Rode Woman on Rail

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Feb. 4.—Five women, said to have forced the "kitchen court" that convicted Mrs. John Richardson of immorality and rode her out of town on a rail, were convicted of assault here yesterday afternoon and fined $100 each. They were given three days to pay the fine.

Home Has Big Surplus

Although comparatively a new organization, the Children's Industrial Home has a cash surplus of over $6,500, according to reports yesterday at the annual meeting of the board of managers. The home was reported in excellent condition. Mr. Alexander Thompson was elected president; Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, first vice president; Mrs. F. G. Purington, second vice president; Mrs. J. H. Brown, third vice president; Mrs. F. C. Walker, fourth vice president; Mrs. James Pincus, treasurer; Mrs. F. S. Harmon, recording secretary, and Mrs. J. M. Martin, corresponding secretary.

Once Rich, Now in Jail

Once a prominent Western railroad contractor, said to have been worth $400,000 a few years ago, Nicholas Hughes, 607 South 10th street, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of failing to support his destitute and hungry family. Mrs. Hughes swore out the warrant, alleging that her husband had deserted her and had failed to contribute anything towards her support or of her children. Hughes has squandered $85,000 in two years, his wife said, Hughes became wealthy on big construction contracts in Montana and Canada.

Get $15,000 in a Week

Fifteen thousand dollars in a week! That's what the Tacoma Y. W. C. A. set out to raise by popular subscription yesterday, and in a half day they reported donations totaling $1,744. If the women could get sufficient workers, they say, they will easily raise the required amount in the week's time. The amount is needed for the 1914 budget, and to pay off some pressing debts of the association.

Tango Has Its Rival Now

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Baroness Helene de Forster, formerly Miss Sage of New Jersey, arrived today to introduce the Hungarian dance "czardasch" as a rival to the tango.

After the Ad club gets the ordinance through the council that was introduced this morning it will be hard on the merchant who exaggerates in his advertisements. The Ad club thinks there is too much plain and embellished prating in advertisements and wants to stop it.
