Outbursts of Everett True

WHOOPEE!
 By Jim Mance.
 Eat, drink and be merry, is a saying we've all heard; Another one that's common is "A bottle and a bird."
 But oftentimes we folks forget. Our happiness is roused; Instead of drink and merry be, It's drink and all get soused. P. S.—"Madame, come down here and pick out your husband."

A GOOD CROWD.
 "My father is dead," said a leading man in a heart-broken voice. "We buried him today."
 "Was there a large attendance?" asked a friend. Then a smile of delight flashed into the bereaved leading man's face. "Large attendance!" he cried. "My boy, we simply turned 'em away!"

USELESS NOISES.
 Soup.
 "Honk! Honk!"
 "D'jever hear the story about 'Wuxtree!'"
 Corn on cob.
 "Too much mustard!"
 Free lunch.
 "When I was abroad last summer—"
 "Plenty room up front."
 "We have with us this evening—"
 Mexico.

LET'S ALL SING!

The first community "sing" will be at the Stadium Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

This feature is for all citizens. It is not for any one club or coterie, but for the whole people of Tacoma. Every man, woman and child is invited and in fact, expected to be on hand and to join in the singing.

The purpose of the movement is to get the city to singing. To develop the song spirit in community life, to make the people glad and optimistic as well as to give entertainment free to all who need to be jarred out of the routine of the daily grind of business and labor.

The movement is one of the most valuable that can be promoted.

If the people take hold and fill that Stadium and sing as they can sing, it will be a feature that will attract the attention of the world. It will be an advertisement that will attract thousands to Tacoma. Let 40,000 Tacomans get in the habit of singing in the Stadium and the fact will make every one of the millions who will attend the Panama exposition next year eager to come by way of Tacoma and stay to hear that concert.

For there will be nothing like it in the world, for there is no place in the world where they can present such a spectacle.

So everybody be out and everybody sing Sunday afternoon.

Even wise old Socrates knew that Xantippe was a regular fiery scorpion, before he married her. But he wanted to add patience and long suffering to his philosophy by actual experience.

Nick Lawson is taking his defeat like a good fellow and is showing Jim Drake around the big municipal plants this week in fine shape.

That $25,000,000 payment to Colomble looks very much like the $20,000,000 donation to Spain after she had put this government to the expense of hundreds of millions to undo the results of her cussedness.

With three automobile bus lines, two street car lines and one railway now handling business between Tacoma and Puyallup it looks as if there ought to be little trouble getting back and forth.

Strange isn't it, but the elements who politically fought Ray Freeland tooth and nail throughout his administration because he was doing things for the people are now inviting him to dinners and insisting he is the best fellow ever was.

That certainly was good work on the part of City Electrician Ben Collins in stopping the Stone-Webster deal by which they intended to grab the Puget Sound Mill business from the city.

Governor Lister says he removed J. H. Wallace from office because he caused "friction." Anybody with much sand in their makeup is likely to cause more or less friction, governor.

Now that transportation men are going to form a booster club too, if Tacoma fails to boost it will not be for lack of enough clubs.

Anyhow, Huerta has a laugh coming to him, as he accepts the "good offices" of three nations that wouldn't recognize him, in settlement of his matter of slapping the face of a fourth non-recognizing nation.

It looks rather tough to have to ship that 10,000,000 feet of lumber away back to Indiana to build Great Northern cars when a plant could be established to do it right here.

Imagine the surprise of three Chinese smugglers when they found they'd landed in the midst of the U. S. army, near San Diego. They saluted the colors with 21 yells, and were glad to go to jail.

TOO CAREFUL.

They were very newly married, and she was almost as proud of her "nut" husband's faultless clothes as he was himself.

And so when he asked her to press his best suit for a very important function last Saturday afternoon she determined to do it with particular care, and that she might not spoil his perfect trousers she turned them inside out before she applied the hot iron.

When Saturday came and he found those treasured garments creased inwards, he said the things that caused the clouds swiftly to gather. And she still thinks he is a brute.

MODERN LATIN.

"Boybus kissibus Sweet girlorum; Girlibus likibus Wanti somorum."

EVERYBODY FULL.

"Sorry I'm sho late, m'dear," began Tippler, when he arrived home near midnight. "Couldn't get a car before."
 "So the cars were full, too, were they?" returned his spouse as a start-off.

Train 13,000 Kids

School authorities are beginning the training of 13,000 school children who are to take part in the Stadium singing this month.

Artist Suicides

NEW YORK, May 1.—Rudolph Seckel, art connoisseur, who sold much to J. P. Morgan, committed suicide by asphyxiation.

He Had Nerve

The first straw hat appeared on a man on Pacific avenue Thursday.

Child Cross? Feverish? Sick?

A cross, peevish, listless child, with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrhoea; grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a Worm Killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box today. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c at your druggist.

are greatly aided by a savings account. This is true because it encourages thrift and economy, and because the ownership of a pass book helps you to make self sacrifices which would otherwise be almost impossible.
