TIGERS EARN WELL DESERVED VICTORY OVER PORTLAND COLTS

McGinnity Shows
Streaks of Former Ball Greatness

A thick coat of whitewash was spread over the Colts yesterday by our own tall-end Tigers. J. J. McGinnity was again the iron man of old. He was as busy as a man framing moving pictures. A Tyres Cobb at bat, a Mathewson in the box, and an Eddie Collins on the bases, he played a combination of all-round ball seldom witnessed in the minor leagues. The best Portland could do against Joe was six hits and they were scattered over as many fanfings and usually came with two out or with no runners on the sacks. Yes, Joe was the big smoke yesterday, and the usual quiet gathering of lady fans never overlooked an opportunity to show their approval.

What do you know about the Tigers pulling off two double steals in one game? They never did that before. Of course the Colts should have broken up both of them but that doesn't cover the fact that the Bengals stole McGinnity on first and West on third negotiated the first robbery. Murray threw to catch Joe going to second. Coltrin returned the throw to Murray to catch West but the throw was wide.

Brotton and Butler repeated the same performance in the sixth frame, Butler scoring when Coltrin threw high to Murray.

The Tigers displayed a slight tendency yesterday to take an occasional chance on the bases. At that it looked as if they should have stretched four hits for another base. So far the Bengals have been loafing on the paths. Perhaps their success yesterday will warm their feet a trifle.

Murray, Portland's big league aspirant behind the bat, displayed about the best example of bush league ball seen this year. He insulted McGinnity in nearly every way possible. The climax came in the eighth inning after Murray had thrown a handful of dirt down Joe's back while he

ST. LOUIS TEAM IS BIG SENSATION OF YEAR IN BASEBALL
WHAT A GOOD MANAGER CAN DO WITH POOR MATERIAL IS SHOWN BY BRANCH RICKEY WHO HAS HIS TEAM NEAR TOP

Wares, who was just fair on the Coast and gave little promise of major league strength, into a good man. He made a ball player of Del Howard, manager of San Francisco. But his most surprising success has been with Clarence Walker. This boy was with Washington when only an immature youth. He had speed limit of his ability, but he keeps improving. McGoorty is better now than Clabby was when he came over—and it will be a test of Clabby. He beat McGoorty twice—but has a better man to beat this time.

The Hammond boy evidently fought rings around the clever Oshkosh battler who grew desperate and lost it by fowling—probably saving himself a knock-out. It is pretty tough on McGoorty to get better and better and keep on tackling a fellow who improves even more rapidly. Again it is possible Clabby "has something on" McGoorty. Although the Australian critics believe he is a real champion.

It looks as if we have at last a middleweight with class. Jimmy Clabby appears to have proved that his improvement during the last eighteen months is real and not due to inferiority of his opponents.

A month ago I received a letter from an Australian boxer, expert who declared Eddie Mc-Goorty had come on so rapidly that he had a magnificent chance to beat Clabby. If Clabby does not continue to improve."

"Clabby is a wonder," he continued. "I don't know what his limit is but he is getting better, faster and cleverer all the time. I thought he had reached the limit of his ability, but he keeps improving. McGoorty is better now than Clabby was when he came over—and it will be a test of Clabby. He beat McGoorty twice—but has a better man to beat this time.
