TACOMA MOVIES AND VAUDEVILLE

Charming Child Impersonator Leads Own Vaudeville Troupe

Miss Gerlie Carlisle, who with her "seven sweethearts" will be the headline attraction at the Empress beginning tomorrow afternoon.

The final week of the Sullivan & Considine direction of the local Empress theater will see quite the most charming of the Joe Maxwell productions as the headline attraction.

Walter Brower is a feature in the new bill. Mr. Brower has been a star during the past season and returned to vaudeville with the close of the legitimate productions closed for the summer months.

Something entirely out of the ordinary is the offering of Paul Stephens, "King of the unappreciated pole."

Mennetti and Sidelli, comedy acrobats, have the position of next to the headline attraction. A sensation in Europe, their coming to this country has been one of the acrobatic sensations of the season.

Manager William T. Casey announces the return of J. Edwin Owen as the director of the Empress orchestra beginning with the new bill.

Charles Reilly Comes Back To Tacoma In Irish Comedy Drama

Giving promise of a program of exceptional excellence, the new week's bill at the Pantages theater beginning Monday matinee will have a number of stellar acts in its lineup, chief among which will be Charles Reilly and his company, Delmore and Lee, and dainty Olive Briscoe.

Charles Reilly headlines in his Irish musical comedy playlet, "The Irish Emigrant." As an added attraction, the new bill boasts of one of the finest offerings of its kind in vaudeville. Delmore and Lee offer an athletic novelty in which art is combined with remarkable skill.

Another name well known on the legitimate stage is that of Olive Briscoe. Having won success as a comedienne, Miss Briscoe recently entered vaudeville and she has scored an easy victory. She always appears stunningly gowned and she has the voice and personality to win great popularity.

Two others who will make a bid for comedy honors are Belle and Jones, a decidedly pretty girl and a pleasing youth.

One of the novelties of the bill will be Deerfoot, an Indian juggler and comedian. New motion pictures will serve to round out the bill.
