VANCOUVER, Sept. 1.—Hail and Chief Osborne fought hard yesterday afternoon, with Bert holding the Tigers down to three little singles, and Osborne unwillingly allowed nine hits for the Beavers. The game resulted in a 5 to 0 shut-out for the Tigers.

The champions started their hitting in the first, landing one run in that inning. They grabbed another tally in the third, two in the fourth and another in the eighth.

Tacoma's line-up was changed slightly, with Cy Neighbors in left field, instead of his familiar right garden position, and Clementson playing right.

STONE WALL INFIELD OF BOSTON BRAVES WORKS LIKE A MACHINE

LATEST PICTURE OF FOUR STARS OF "NEAR-CHAMPIONS" OF NATIONAL LEAGUE.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON

The success of the Boston Braves is due, primarily to Stallings, and secondarily to the wonderful inner wall of defense. Giving the pitchers all due credit the infield has stood between them and defeat day after day with the cleverest, most resourceful and brilliant defense seen on a modern team.

Not since the days of Tenney, Lowe, Long and Collins has the Hub seen such defensible play, such backing up, coaching and steadying of pitchers.

To a large extent this infield defense has been due to the great inside work of Johnny Evers, former Cub. Evers is an instinctive

E. Oliphant

Eimer Oliphant, star halfback of Purdue university, is the cause of a bitter controversy between the United States army and navy. Oliphant has been appointed a West Point cadet and is expected to add great strength to the army football team. Annapolis charges West Point unduly influenced Oliphant to join the army instead of going to Annapolis. Oliphant claims he tried to get a navy appointment but was unable to get it and joined the army.

player, a wonderful natural fielder, a born leader and fighter and one of the closest students of the complicated inside game that baseball ever has known. He tried out several, found them wanting and finally picked Schmidt.

Both Evers and Maranville snap a ball like a shot once it touches their hands. Many times Schmidt is just whirling into position and just has time to get up his hands when the ball arrives. But he grabs them—and that is enough.

BOXERS READY FOR THE GONG

With the selection of Frank McGeohan of the O. K. barber shop as referee for the 24 rounds of boxing Thursday night at the Moose smoker, plans have been completed and everything is in readiness for the first tap of Tom Armstrong's gong.

Every boxer on the card is in rigid training. Joe Bonds and Frank Farmer, the 175-pounders, who have the last place on the card, are working as they never worked before, both anxious to force a K. O. finish to the match.

Bonds and Farmer have mixed three times. The first time was at Chehalis, where Biddy Bishop gave Farmer the decision. The second time their match between the young huskies the third time Bonds was given a decision. Thursday night's match between the young huskies is really a keenly anticipated battle between the lads and some fast sparring is anticipated.

One of the fastest of the lightweight boys will be that of Leo Crebier of Seattle and Joe Hill of Tacoma, boxing at 120 pounds.

Leo Crebier, the clever 120-pound Seattle youth, who meets Joe Hill at the Moose smoker Thursday night.

NIMRODS OUT AFTER GROUSE

With nearly 75 hunting licenses issued up to this morning, the blue grouse season opened today with many Tacoma nimrods hiking into the hills and valleys of the Sound country. The season this year is 16 days earlier than ever before, and will close November 30, but is only for blue grouse, and all hunters are warned against shooting any other class of upland bird.

YACHT CLUB IS MOVING TODAY

The Tacoma Yacht club celebrated moving day today, changing its quarters from the entrance to the city waterway to the new site near the Nereides bathhouse at Point Defiance. Within a couple of weeks a big house-warming will be held in the new club.

The new club house was put on scows and moved bodily. It will be enlarged and made more commodious and comfortable before it is formally occupied. There will be a supply station for motor boats, and a large landing stage for row boats.

FULLERTON'S DOPE-LETS

Jack Dunn's team is playing a double-header every other day to fight the Baltimore Feds. C. Ebbets, please get jealous.

We have heard a lot of knocks on ball players but the most artistic of recent history was handed to Pol Perritt, of the Cards. Some one referred to him as a "right-handed Slim Saltee."

An interview with B. B. Johnson as to what he thinks of George Stallings' success would be interesting about this time—if the reporter has nerve enough to ask for it.

Evidently the Pittsburgh team has decided to maintain strict neutrality in the National league war.

Twenty-five printers, two ball players, an umpire and a bartender got to arguing about the Fed league in Kansas city. One dead, two arrested.

Baseball is the only business in the world where the employer will pay a man a $5,000 salary because the other fellow wants him.
