Czar Uses Arctic Ribbon of Rail to Baffle Berlin

By Mary Boyle O'Reilly.
KARNNGI, Sweden, March 16. (By Mail)—This tiny frontier hamlet is since the war began, the most important point in the thousands of miles of Russian border and in this story I will tell you why.

When in Stockholm I had hoped to save three days time by taking a boat across the Baltic to Finland. But the lanes through the Baltic ice fields which are kept open by Canadian ice crushers are full of drifting mines.

Of eight boats which set sail recently five will never make port again. So the Scandinavian government in consultation with shipping interests and diplomatic representatives decided that all sailing must be cancelled and now would-be travelers must go to Petrograd via the shores of the Baltic.

Here is the route: From Bergen in Norway south to Christiania, each by north to Stockholm, thence along the western shore of the Baltic to Karnngi in the northern part of Sweden, then to Tornea on the Finnish frontier and then down through Finland to Petrograd—miles and miles of desolation, leagues and leagues of ultimate cold.

This is the new war route to Russia, crude as yet in organization, but withal fairly comfortable.

My companions on the train were a little group of pioneers, greatly daring, wrapped to their eyes, gulping boiling tea hourly, speaking many tongues but arriving at a final understanding through French.

Every three hours we stopped at a tiny station buried in the snow. We had to dash through newly swept snow tunnels to the wooden hamlet hardly a month old.

TINY KARNNGI IS A BOOM TOWN OF WAR.

Grateful and philosophical we accepted the offered hospitality. Only a chimneyless cot banked with snow, its low door protected from drifts by a wigwam of fir poles, a single room dimly lighted by two tiny frosted windows, the brick stove half filling the floor space.

In the picture above a Lapland woman is shown milking a reindeer. He reindeer furnishes food and drink to the Lapp for he drinks the milk and also eats it made into cheese.

From the Finnish border there is a gap in the connections of some 30 miles to the Swedish railroad at Karnngi. To bridge this gap the Russian government is using sledges drawn by Lapland reindeer to transport freight and mails.

"feed room" where eager girls, too shy to accept tips, rushed up to serve us.

No Menu, No Price List. There is no menu, no price list. One eats all one chooses and pays a nominal price for the meal.

"It does not seem right to take money for food," apologizes the maitre d'hotel.

THIS IN EUROPE ON THE EVE OF A WORLD FAMINE. When the only train that links Russia with her western allies clanked into Karnngi I found a raw little hamlet of half a hundred houses, three shops, a bank, and a moving picture theater.

Imagine, almost in the Arctic circle! From a frost bound carriage 20 pioneer travelers descended fur clad for the coming sledge journey.

Boom Town of War. Five hundred porters, Norsemen, Lapps and Russians, all wearing huge fur boots and pointed caps, swarmed about mail vans and freight cars. Finnish women in wadded winter dress swart the station platform of the "highborn."

Southward for a thousand miles stretched snow covered Sweden, northward Lapland and the Arctic circle. The sky was curtained with drifting snow. The railway station was a mere shed, the

New O.W. Terminals Put to Use

The O. W. railway today is putting for the first time to the use for which they were designed the freight terminals which yesterday were exhibited in all their newness to the Tacoma public.

The open house celebration yesterday was brought to an end with a meeting of railroad men at the Transportation club rooms.

McCormack Bros. store, 15th and Pacific, which is handy to the terminals, had special window displays and made much of the celebration, a fact which was much commented on by visitors to the terminals and by the railroad officials.

Baker lived at the club since April 3, when he was introduced by Stanton G. Smith, forest supervisor.

He was a Boston Tech graduate. The only explanation for Baker's suicide is that he was afflicted with tuberculosis.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hays yesterday recalled the peculiar circumstance of their honeymoon, 50 years ago.

The whole nation was in mourning over the shooting of Lincoln, and everywhere the young couple went, they were met with hotel tables draped in black and white, flags at half-mast, and a general air of sorrow. No amusement places were open.

"It wasn't exactly the merry honeymoon we had planned," says Mr. Hays.

JOHN BULL APOLOGIZES

LONDON, April 16.—The government let it be known today that it has made full apology to Chile for the sinking of the German cruiser Dresden in neutral Chilean waters.

ASHAMED OF HER BAD COMPLEXION

Many an otherwise attractive girl is a social failure because of a poor complexion. If your skin is not naturally fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment will almost surely clear it in a normal, healthy way. It is so easy to do. Just bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger-tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear, cold water to close the pores. Do this regularly once or twice a day, occasionally spreading on a little Resinol Ointment for ten or fifteen minutes before using Resinol Soap, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 15-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

DUTCH ANGRY

LONDON, April 15.—When the German submarines sank the steamer Katwijk, loaded with grain from Baltimore to the Holland government, they aroused all the "Dutch" in the Netherlands. The Hollanders are thoroughly aroused.

A Hague report says the incident is "the gravest incident of submarine warfare." Heat was added to their anger because this action following the seizing of four Holland travelers by Germans.

BATTLESHIP AGROUND

WILMINGTON, Del., April 16.—The second accident in which she has figured since she was launched two or three weeks ago occurred last night to the Chilean battleship Moreno when she went aground in the Delaware river. She is not thought to be damaged.

CARRANZA'S GENERAL REPORTS BIG VICTORY

VERA CRUZ, April 16.—Gen. Obregon reports that his forces counted 5,000 dead Villalistas after the battle at Celaya, that he has captured 6,000 prisoners and 40 field pieces and is pursuing "the enemy."

Put Off Old Age

Some old folks are bent and shaky. Others are straight and strong. So it can't be mere "oldness" that works such havoc. No—it is too often uric acid that weakens older folks. Fight off this life-sapping uric acid poison. Help the kidneys take it from the blood. To aid them in this struggle, live carefully, and stimulate their action with the old reliable remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. A SOUTH TACOMA CASE: Mrs. P. Sullivan, 1924 S. 41st St., South Tacoma, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a fine medicine for a weak and lame back and trouble with the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me right away. I still take them once in a while. They keep me in good health."
