ITEMS FROM TACOMA'S DAIRY INDUSTRY

The East Side Dairy is located on the bank road to Puyallup, E. Zehnder, the proprietor, who recently started this dairy, is enlarging it gradually to meet the demand of his customers.

The Pioneer Dairy is located at West Station, and has been under the personal supervision of Mr.

Fachlin for a number of years. Deliveries are made daily in Tacoma.

The City Dairy, which is owned and managed by Mrs. Fox and son, is located about a mile from South Tacoma. The herd has recently been inspected and segregated and the milk and cream has been recommended. This dairy is always kept in a sanitary condition. The General public is always welcome at this dairy.

The Flett Dairy is located on the American Lake car line at Flett Station, on the banks of the Flett creek. This location is one of the most beautiful spots in the state. Added to this, Mr. Fuchs has one of the prettiest dairies in this section.

The Reservation Dairy, which is owned and managed by Mr. Good, better known as Joe, has many customers and friends in the Puyallup valley. Recently Joe has segregated his herd and delivers milk now from only tuberculin tested cattle.

The Royal Ice Cream Co., which is one of the largest milk and cream depots in this vicinity, have contracted to handle the full supply of the Spring Hill Farm, Puyallup, and the American Dairy of Goldau for local distribution. The Spring Hill Farm was examined Monday by A. D. Fish, state deputy inspector, who gave it a score of 95 per cent efficient. The American Dairy milk and cream has also been recommended to the general public.

The Western Dairy, which has been recently inspected and recommended, sells all its output to the Crystal Dairy, Sixth avenue, for local distribution.

The Standard Dairy, which is owned by Frank Trutman, sells nothing but milk and cream from healthy cows and has been recommended by Dr. Button.

The Golden Eagle Dairy has been thoroughly inspected and recommended.

S. O. O. F. Will Attend Methodist Services

The lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Tacoma and vicinity have, in nearly every instance, decided to celebrate the 96th anniversary of the founding of the order in America, by attending the First Methodist Episcopal church, next Sunday evening, and listening to a special service to be conducted by the Rev. Delmar H. Trinkle. The pastor's text is to be "The Supreme Personality."

Samuel H. Henshaw, the American inventor, who was born in Warwick, R. I., on Sept. 17, 1818, will have his case on self-
