

MARY FULLER LIKES TO GET LETTERS FROM MOVIE FANS

Posed Especially For The Tacoma Times.

CHAPTER VI.
The young actress on the "legitimate" stage is used to "mash" notes, to love notes, to letters inviting her to go out to supper, to bouquets with little missives concealed in them.

The movie actress necessarily gets a different kind of correspondence because, so often, she is not in the city where her acting or her personality have made an impression.

For instance, as these chats are intensely personal take my own case. Films of myself have appeared in many cities and countries where I will, perhaps, never set foot. Naturally, if I please an audience in some such faraway land, I will not get the ordinary "mash" note, or love note. What I do get are the kind of letters that often hearsten one on a blue-day, a rainy day, a day that has gone all wrong, somehow.

There are letters telling me how some loney cow-puncher way out in Wyoming liked me in a certain film and how he would like to have my picture for his room in the ranch house. Or it may be from a sheep herder in faraway New Zealand, or from a farmer in South Africa. But, of course, many of my letter, if not most, come from young girls here at home.

My movie fans are very dear to me and many packages containing hundreds of letters neatly tied up and inscribed, attest my appreciation. I keep them as medicine when I am melancholy. Their youthful enthusiasm puts

New Bills At Tacoma Movies

VAUDETTE BILL
The Vaudeville theater's bill for today and Saturday is headed by "The Champion," Charlie Chaplin's latest two-part comedy. With it is "The Thumbprint on the Safe," two-part GGirl Detective drama; "The Stenographer," Edison drama; and "The Bush Leaguer Who Failed to Qualify," Geo. Ade fable.

IDLE HOUR BILL
Today's new bill at the Idle Hour includes "The Mayor's Secretary," Alice Joyce feature; "The Lion Hunter," Selig Jungle Zoo drama; "The Champion Process Server," Edison comedy; and "The Gallantry of Jimmy Rogers," Essanay drama.

AT THE LYCEUM

MOVIE BILLS BIG DRAWING CARD

"Hypocrites," at the Liberty this week, has proven the biggest drawing card of any film exhibited in Tacoma. It is artistic, and not resque, as many persons imagined. "The Clemenceau Case," with Theda Bara and William Shay, comes Sunday.

TREMENDOUS DRAMA

"The Escape," a story based on real life in the lower East Side of New York, in which eugenics and the effect of improper marriage have an important part, is the big feature for the Colonial starting Sunday. It is said to have a tremendous "punch." "The Fifth Commandment" is now showing at the Colonial.

MARY AT PALACE

Mary Fuller, the charming little actress who has revealed her innermost thoughts to Times readers this week, is appearing at the Palace today in "The Honor of the Ormsbys," a three-part drama. With this film are "The Runaway Auto," comedy, and "A Mater of Parentage," drama.

SENSATIONAL DRAMA

"The Woman He Wronged," the famous Strand theater success that has caused such comment in the east, and such wonderment that it passed the national censorship board, opened a two-day engagement at the Melbourne today. It is a five-act drama with a strong moral lesson depicting the many temptations of young womanhood.
