

BARNES MAKES DENIAL

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 13.—William J. Barnes, on the witness stand yesterday afternoon, made a straightway denial of ever saying that the people did not know enough to rule themselves; that the "riff-raff" must have leaders and that he favored government through an organization of big business into parties.

All these statements had been attributed to him by Theodore Roosevelt, whom he is suing for $50,000 libel.

Barnes further denied the many meetings and luncheons which Roosevelt said the two had had, at which Barnes had made the alleged remarks. He said he had not been the moving factor in defeating the anti-race track and direct primaries bill.
