

Scandal! Hymns In City Park

Our park board is relaxing its vigilance.

The Y. M. C. A. held a meeting in Wright park yesterday, and while none of its members prayed—at least audibly—the spirit of the park board's action on religious matters was scandalously disregarded when the gathering sang several hymns.

The songs were about such forbidden subjects as one might hear of in church. Yet no park coppers interfered.

Incidentally, M. H. Marvin spoke on the problem of drink after prohibition has gone into effect.

How long will the people of Tacoma stand for such demonstrations in our public parks?

SIMPLE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single hair and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

LEO FRANK'S JAILER 'DAD MANGUM' TO HIM

BY LINTON K. STARR.
ATLANTA, Ga., May 15.—Hanging Leo M. Frank will be to Sheriff C. Wheeler Mangum of Fulton county like tearing out his own heartstrings.

But the law has decreed that Frank shall be "hanged by the neck until dead," unless the governor interferes—and Wheeler Mangum has never yet side-stepped what he believes his duty.

Probably no kinder soul breathes than that of Frank's keeper. The prisoner himself realizes it and to him the sheriff is "Dad Mangum."

The closest to him say that Wheeler Mangum believes Frank is innocent. He was asked the direct question.

Accused of Favoritism.
"An official has no business talking about a case," he replied. Some there are who have accused the sheriff of showing favoritism to Frank. Reports came near costing him his job when sharp tongues got busy. His critics said that Frank was living a life of luxury.

It was because Mangum had treated Frank humanely and kindly, like he treats everyone. Frank is not chained to the walls of a dungeon, but he is caged between four rows of bars; there are no carpets on the floor of his death cell and his bed is no softer than the beds the county gives other prisoners.

Frank is not a desperate criminal; therefore, when he was taken from jail to court, no handcuffs bound him. But had Frank made a dart for liberty no gun would have spoken quicker than the sheriff's.

Will He Dread Day.
Wheeler Mangum wouldn't willingly hurt his most despised enemy. The correspondent saw him hang a negro once—just a plain negro murderer. Great tears rolled down his cheeks and his voice was husky as he said "May God have mercy on your soul!"

But it was Mangum's hand that sprung the trap.

On another occasion his official duty demanded that he hang a man who had once been in his Sunday school class. He and the prisoner stepped to the scaffold arm in arm and the sheriff hanged his friend.

Deputies who guard Frank day and night believe him innocent. They have learned to sympathize and admire him.

It will be a dread day for jail officials unless the governor interposes.

It will be a day of agony for Wheeler Mangum.

The tower of Atlanta in which Leo Frank is sentenced to die June 22, and Sheriff Mangum, the executioner.

SAYS OUR ETHICS MUST BE ALTERED

BALTIMORE, May 17.—"It is much more important that the right parties marry than to insist that they shall never separate," declared Prof. James H. Tufts, of the University of Chicago in a stirring address here today, before the National Conference of Charities and Correction.

"There is perhaps no field of ethics which in the past has been a point of view more prevalently negative than the morals of the family," he said. "It has emphasized not only innocence but ignorance; it forbids divorce, but takes little account of positive measures to assure good homes. It has had more horror for illegitimacy than for thought for healthy children in proper surroundings.

"Four new values, the value of women's freedom and development, the value of sex and especially of motherhood, and lastly, the value sound stock well reared for national life and for the life of the world must be reckoned with in the new ethics of the family. We can no longer meet the situation with taboos and negations."

Cheapest In Tacoma

The cost of living this year for a typical family of five was $10 less than in Seattle or Spokane, and $2.65 more than last year, according to figures gathered by E. W. Olson, state labor commissioner. Here are his totals:

Tacoma last year, $431.57; this year, $434.22; increased cost, $2.65.

Seattle last year, $418.46; this year, $443.72; increased cost, $25.26.

Spokane last year, $424.03; this year, $444.92; increased cost, $20.89.

BOTH ARMIES CLAIM VICTORY

LONDON, May 17.—The southern wing of the British in Flanders claims to have gained advantages over the Germans opposing them. It has practically pierced the German line in a two-mile front.

North of Ypres, however, the Germans claim to have repulsed all British attacks with a tremendous loss.

The British reports minimize the importance of these German successes.

In the eastern theater of war, the Austrians claim to have followed their recent serious defeat in the Carpathians, and say that now the allied Austrians and Germans are knocking at the very gates of Przemysl.

BARNES TO BRING SECOND SUIT IF HE LOSES FIRST

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 17.—It became known today that William Barnes, Jr., intends to bring a fresh suit against Col. Roosevelt if the jury in the present trial disagrees.

No matter how expensive the proceeding may be—and it is estimated that the case in the first hearing will have cost Barnes and Colonel Roosevelt together about $30,000—Barnes intends to continue the fight.

In the event that Barnes receives a substantial award the colonel will appeal.

Sure Quick Relief For Acid Stomachs

Excessive acid in the stomach, or hyperacidity, as it is called, is primarily responsible for indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, and flatulence, and frequently is the cause of stomach ulcers, which in turn may cause cancer. The successful treatment for prevention, as well as relief of such cases, depends largely on neutralizing the excess acid, stopping the food fermentation, and thereby allowing the inflamed mucous membranes that line the stomach to heal.

For this purpose Bisurated Magnesia is unequalled even in the treatment of severe cases. A teaspoonful in a little water immediately after eating stops the pain almost instantly, neutralizes the excess acid, and soothes the inflamed stomach, and if regularly used will quickly remove the cause of the trouble and effect complete relief.
